

FLUORIDATION WILL CONTINUE IN CITY; 895 VOTES DECIDE HOT ELECTION WAR

Major Hurdle Overcome In Motor Hotel Battle

The battle to allow the construction of a $4 million motel at Norumbega Park for all practical purposes was won at Monday's election eve meeting of the Board of Aldermen.

By a vote of 18-6 the Aldermen on Monday night approved a zoning change to permit the construction of the motel which has been the subject of a long and bitter controversy.

This was the major hurdle to be overcome since 16 Aldermanic votes are needed to authorize a change in zoning.

While 18 city fathers favor the motel proposition, the big problem has been to get 16 of them together at the same time.

On Monday night for one of the very few times this year all 24 members of the Board of Aldermen were in attendance at a meeting.

Still to be voted on is a so-called permissive use and site plan petition.

Passage of that measure is considered to be merely a formality, however, since only a majority vote of those present and balloting is needed for the approval of that application.

Final Aldermanic action on the motel issue was blocked when Alderman Harry H. Ham, Jr., of Auburn-dale raised a charter objection as a delaying tactic to prevent the site plan from being voted on.

Aldermanic President Wendell R. Bauckman ruled that Ham's objection was in order.

COP Here In Repudiation Of Birchers

Officials of the Newton Republican City Committee pointed out in a statement to The Graphic today the position of the organization with reference to a certain pre-election incident which brought state-wide attention to this city.

It was revealed that just before the municipal election of Tuesday, the GOP City Committee, official Republican organization in this city, moved swiftly to disassociate itself from any implied endorsement of a candidate known to be identified with the John Birch Society.

At a special emergency meeting of the Executive Committee of the Newton Republican City Committee, held

Parking Lot Loss Is Concern To Business

The inevitable loss of the municipal parking lot located at the corner of Putnam and Washington streets in West Newton is causing considerable concern to city officials and business men in the area.

This parking area will be taken by the new toll road extension to Boston.

An on-the-spot view of discussion of the situation was taken recently by Mayor Donald L. Gibbs, Alderman Robert L. Tennant from West Newton's Ward 3; George L. White, president of the Newton Chamber of Commerce, and Justin T. Horan, executive director of the Chamber.

A preliminary fact finding report, with suggested solutions, has already been prepared by the Chamber concerning the probable effect on business in the area by the loss of this parking lot.

Alderman Tennant has acted as the liaison between the Chamber of Commerce committee and the Mayor's office.

As stated by Alderman Tennant, "We must study the effect of the loss of this parking lot from not only the viewpoint of the local retailer, but must also consider the inconvenience which it will cause to the West Newton shopper."

Newton Artist's Painting Is Presented To Governor

portrait of Governor Endicott Peabody, painted by Mr. Head, at exercises held in the Governor's office on Monday.

Newton was further represented at the exercises when the presentation to Governor Peabody was made by Democratic Representative Joseph G. Bradley, of this city.

Rep. Bradley is president of the freshman class of representatives. Also taking part in the program was Representative Irving Fishman, Democrat, also of Newton.

The group of freshman legislators, led by Rep. Bradley, made the surprise presentation to Governor Peabody last Monday to commemorate their legislative assembly as members of the General Court.

The life-like pastel portrait of the Governor is the work of John Loren Head who is widely known for his portraiture of prominent civic, business and educational personalities throughout New England.

The Auburn-dale artist has a background covering 20 years of active art experience. He is director of training at the

New Renewal Program Here To Be Theme

Newton's new Community Renewal Program will be presented and discussed at the Fall Delegate Meeting of the Newton Community Council on Wednesday, November 13, 8 p.m., at the Union Church in Waban as announced by Mrs. Irene K. Thresher, president.

The Community Renewal Program survey has been called "one of the most exciting developments in Newton's history" by Mayor Donald L. Gibbs.

The meeting has been planned to be both informative and

6 New Aldermen; Pay Raise Loses

Newton citizens by narrow margins voted in Tuesday's municipal election to retain fluoridation and to turn down a proposed $5000-a-year salary increase for the Mayor.

There will be six new faces in the Board of Aldermen and one in the School Committee when those two bodies meet next New Year's Day—if the election returns tabulated early yesterday remain unchanged.

Recounts of the ballots will be made before the winners are finally known in two close contests for seats as Ward Aldermen.

One of the upsets produced by Tuesday's voting saw Paul J. Burke of 53 Jerome avenue, West Newton, defeat Alderman Robert Tennant of 185 Mt. Vernon street, West Newton, by the water-thin margin of 25 votes for the post as Ward Alderman from Ward 3.

Tennant's supporters declared last night that a re-tabulation will be requested to determine whether any mistakes were made in the rush of counting the ballots Tuesday night and early yesterday morning. The present totals give Burke 1933 votes and Tennant 1908.

A recount also will be sought of the votes cast in a hard struggle for election as Ward Alderman from Ward 4. David W. Jackson of 362 Wolcott street, Auburn-dale, emerged the apparent victor from that fight by a margin of 79 votes over John L. Vaccaro. The vote was 1532 for Jackson and 1453 for Vaccaro.

Three newly elected Aldermen-at-Large are John F. Holden of 27 Jackson terrace, Ward 1; Warren A. Sutherland of 40 Williston road, Auburn-dale, Ward 4; and William L. Bruce of 934 Beacon street, Newton Centre, Ward 6.

In addition to Burke and Jackson, whose status will remain in doubt until recounts are completed, the new Ward Alderman elected on Tuesday was Andrew J. Magni of 140 Adams street, a funeral director, who will represent Ward 1.

Dr. Way Dong Woo was elected as the new School Committee member from Ward 8, winning in decisive fashion over two opponents.

An interesting School Board contest saw Mrs. Norma W. Mintz win by

Hallowe'en Is Gay Without Vandalism

Newton's 1963 Halloween program for 23,000 school age youngsters last Thursday night was one of the most successful in the 23-year-history of the program city officials concluded today.

The children were entertained at over 400 individual parties throughout the city as part of the nationally acclaimed Halloween observance.

A single false alarm and few other incidents marred the evening during which a record number of children attended programs in all sections of the city.

Recreation Commissioner John B. Penney, commenting on the overall program, noted that Hootenannies proved one of the most successful forms of entertainment.

Musical groups from junior high schools and the city's two high schools entertained youngsters at various elementary schools with great success.

Local Man To Receive Noted Award Nov. 17

Civic and community leader Irwin Benjamin of Newton, president of Felton & Son, Inc., has been designated to receive the coveted Louis Marshall Memorial Medal of the Jewish Theological Seminary of America.

The medal will be conferred upon Mr. Benjamin at the annual dinner of the Seminary's National Patrons Society on Sunday, November 17 at the Americana Hotel of New York where Arthur J. Goldberg, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States will be guest speaker.

The Marshall Medal is one of the highest honors the Seminary can bestow. It is given annually to those who have shown "continuing effort to further the spiritual and cultural well-being of the Jewish community in the tradition."

POLITICAL HIGHLIGHTS

By JAMES G. COLBERT

Gov. Peabody More Popular Than Most Politicos Think

Recent tests of public sentiment have indicated that Governor Peabody is more popular with the rank and file of voters than most politicians on Beacon Hill believe.

While the people are not ecstatic about Peabody's performance as Governor and don't go into any rhapsodies about him, they think that he's honest and is trying to do a good job, surveys reveal.

Peabody's political stock appears to have risen substantially since its slump earlier in the year when he aroused considerable resentment by becoming so deeply involved in an unsuccessful fight to abolish capital punishment.

Politically, Peabody seems to be in pretty good shape today.

"Soldier Of Month" Won By Newtonite

PFC James Beatty of West Newton was selected recently as "Soldier of the Month" at Fort Hamilton, Brooklyn, N.Y.

He is a clerk-typist in the Transfer Station where overseas troops from Europe are separated and retired from the U.S. Army. News of his selection was received this week.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Beatty, 53 Princess Road, West Newton, PFC Beatty was graduated from Newton High School and attended Suffolk University.

He plans to return to work with his former employer at Standard Thomson Corporation, when he is discharged from the Army this month.

Country Players Will Open Season Nov. 14

Newton's The Country Players, now in its seventh year of community theatre, will launch a new season of exciting productions on Thursday evening, November 14, when it presents the first Boston showing of James Yaffe's "The Deadly Game" at Newton South High School Auditorium.

The recent Broadway hit melodrama will also be presented on Friday and Saturday evenings, November 15-16, also at the South High School, beginning at 8:30 p.m. The Saturday performance is sponsored by Men's ORT. Tickets to all performances will be available at the door.

The Thursday evening showing will start at 8:00 p.m. and will be staged as a special dress rehearsal for the benefit of students and teachers. Tickets at the special student rate may be reserved by calling Elaine Stiegel at DE 2-8876.

This will offer local students a unique opportunity to see the play prior to opening night. Herbert Adams, guest director and well-known for his work as actor and director over the country, will comment after the rehearsal performance.

Featured in "The Deadly Game," adapted from a novel by Swiss author Frederic Durrenmatt, are Lou Zonderman, Herb Dobrein, Harvey Flashman, Arnold Barron, Erwin Gleckman, Norman Hapgood, Donna Thorman, Maxine Wolfe and Barbara Berman. The plot concerns a brash American salesman who takes shelter in a Swiss mountain chalet during a snowstorm and is persuaded by two retired lawyers and a judge to participate in a "mock" trial with the salesman as defendant. The trial soon becomes a deadly serious affair and leads to several exciting climaxes on stage.

Women Voters Meet Nov. 14

An orientation meeting of the League of Women Voters of Newton will be held Thursday, Nov. 14, in the home of Mrs. Robert Hull, 41 Berkeley St., West Newton, at 8 p.m. The League's plans and procedures will be discussed.

Following "The Deadly Game," the Newton group will present a full-scale production of "Guys and Dolls," the popular musical. Harriet Wilson who staged the recent summer showing of "Janus" will direct. A third play will be offered in the Spring.

Producer for "The Deadly Game" is Barbara Levy. Elaine Stiegel is stage manager and Maury Linsky in charge of scenery.

since the petition had been amended.

Bauckman's ruling was upheld by a 13-11 vote.

The site plan and permissive use petition is now scheduled to be voted on at the next meeting on the night of Nov. 18.

However, final action could be blocked then if five Aldermen offer a charter objective against the measure.

But the application appears certain to win approval after all the delaying tactics have been exhausted.

A hearing has been set for the night of Dec. 9 on a petition for the right to build the motel to a height of 52 feet. This would be 12 feet higher than the present 40-foot level.

Both the Totem Pole and the Normandy Room, which once resounded to the music of famed dance bands, will be torn down to make way for the motel.

The motel will be built by Marriott Motor Hotel, Inc., on land leased from Peter J. Kanavos and the Perini Co. The land is to be leased for 25 years, with an option for an additional 75-year lease.

Supporters of the motel measure assert that when completed it will yield an estimated $170,000 in new taxes to the city, helping to check the upward climb of Newton's tax rate.

The proposed zoning change necessary to permit construction of the motel failed to win approval at the Oct. 21 meeting of the Board of Aldermen. The vote at that time was 14-8 in favor of the zoning change, but 16 votes were necessary to approve the measure. The absence of two members was responsible for the delay.

Two important ballots were taken by the Aldermen Monday night. One was to reconsider the Oct. 21 action. The second was to approve the zoning change. The vote was identical in each case.

Voting in favor of reconsideration and for the zoning change so the motel can be built were:

Voting against the motel were Aldermen William Carmen, Harry H. Ham, Jr., Jack Roberts, Allard M. Valentine, Harry L. Walen and Earle D. Wood.

Those who voted to uphold the president's ruling that a charter objection was in order were Aldermen William Carmen, Ernest F. Dietz, William M. Glovsky, Harry H. Ham, Jr., Theodore D. Mann, John P. McCarthy, William H. Prentice, William P. Ripley, Jack Roberts, Allard M. Valentine, Harry L. Walen, Earle D. Wood and Wendell R. Bauckman.

Kiddies Will Help Mark Library Week In Newton

A special dramatic program to herald the arrival of National Book Week, Nov. 10-16, will be given today, Thursday, Nov. 7, at 4 p.m. at the Norantum branch of the Newton Free Library.

A small group of fourth grade children from the Lincoln-Eliot, Stearns, Carr, St. Jean's and Our Lady's schools have been working with the branch librarian in preparation of two short plays in keeping with the Book Week theme.

"The Book Hospital" will feature Jane Hart (Lincoln-Eliot) as Dr. Librarian, Kristin Taylor (Lincoln-Eliot) as Nurse Mary, Nancy Linthwaite (Our Lady's) as Heidi, Tommy Green (Carr) as Tom Sawyer, Jean Ford (St. Jean's) as Cinderella, Richard Mullen (Stearns) as King Arthur, Tony Marini (Lincoln-Eliot) as Robinson Crusoe, and Robert Notartomaso (Our Lady's) as Paul Bunyan.

"The Quarrel in the Library" will feature 10 children from the Carr School: Richard Salem as Director, Ann Arbetter as the Librarian, Stephen Smith as a Picture Book.

Nixon and Robert L. Tennant.

The amendment that led to President Bauckman's ruling that a charter objection to the site plan petition was in order was moved by Alderman Franklin N. Flaschner, who explained that two of the mortgages of the Norumbega property had agreed to the nine restrictions set by the committee on Claims and Rules. Flaschner proposed that the agreement be made binding on the third mortgagee, Thomas L. Gill, original owner of the land and holder of the smallest of the three mortgages on it.

The amendment was adopted by a vote of 20 to 4. Those voting "No" on it were Aldermen Joseph G. Bradley, Harry H. Ham, Jr., Allard M. Valentine and Harry L. Walen.

Soon after the Marriott matter was taken up, Alderman Harry L. Walen moved that debate be limited to five minutes for each Alderman who desired to speak. The motion carried on a 19-5 roll call vote. The Aldermen voting against the debate limitation were Joseph G. Bradley, William Carmen, Theodore D. Mann, John P. Nixon and Robert L. Tennant.

Dari Gordon as a Train Book, Andris Kaza as a History Book, Audrey Lochiatto as a Mother, Joan Glass as a Little Girl, Bobby Eger as a Little Boy, Steven Rubin as a Big Boy and Gregory Henes as the Narrator. The public is cordially invited.

Volunteers At Pomroy House Receive Awards

Several volunteer Junior Leaders were awarded charm bracelets at the recent meeting of the board of directors of the Rebecca Pomroy House for summer service at the Play School of the House.

The following recipients of bracelets contributed sixty hours of service: Terry Arsenault, Judy Branzburg, Virginia Carey, April Crosby, Ingeline Kessing, Jackie Levin and Mary Jane Moriarity.

Charm bracelets also were presented to Deborah Kramer, who assisted at the Day Camp in Natick for five weeks; and to Ann McDaniel for two weeks at camp.

Patricia Campbell and Jean Wilkinson, who had contributed sixty hours each at the Play School for three summers, received charms for their bracelets.

These girls, and others who assisted for shorter periods, contributed a total of 839 volunteer hours for the summer.

Need For Mental Health Clinic To Be Discussed

Newton's need for a mental health clinic will be discussed in a day-long program Wednesday, November 13, sponsored by the Women's Alliance of the First Unitarian Church in West Newton.

A special emphasis will be placed on the mental health needs of Newton's children.

The Rev. Dr. Leslie T. Pennington, minister of the Unitarian Church, will be the morning speaker on the subject, "Need for More Adequate Mental Health Facilities for Children." The program will begin at 10 a.m. and extend to 3:30 p.m.

In the afternoon session, John Fielden, 90 Hancock St., Auburndale, will speak on "A Blueprint to Meet the Need for Mental Health Facilities for Children in Newton." Dr. Fielden is co-chairman of the Education Committee of "Action for Mental Health in Children, Inc." a Newton group organized about a year ago to concern itself with children's mental health problems in Newton.

Mrs. Richard A. Lowell, 13

Co-chairmen for the luncheon are Mrs. E. Woods Coty, 18 Temple St., West Newton, and Mrs. Langdon W. Chandler, 44 Cheswick Rd., Auburndale.

A devotional service will be led before the luncheon by Mrs. Spencer F. Deming, 67 Carl St., Newton Highlands, and the business meeting will be conducted by the president of the Alliance, Mrs. L. Fabian Bachrach, 215 Highland Ave., Newtonville.

Aquinas School In 2-Day Bazaar

The Aquinas Secretarial School of Newton will hold its second annual bazaar on Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 12 and 13, from 3 to 9 p.m., in the school auditorium, 71 Walnut Pk., Newton.

Children's Book Week Opens On November 10

The Newton Free Library again this year will join in the nation-wide celebration of National Children's Book Week during the week of November 10-16.

Started in 1919 by Franklin K. Mathews, author of books for boys, and Frederic G. Milcher, publisher and editor and former resident of Newton, National Children's Book Week has been observed each year all over the United States by libraries, schools and book stores in order to promote the interest of children and young people in books and reading.

Gay posters will call attention to the colorful exhibits of some of the best of the new books for children and young people published during 1963.

Fine editions of old favorites will also be on display.

For parents and teachers two pamphlets: "Growing up with Books" and "Growing up with Science Books" will be available for distribution.

These book displays will be held from November 12 through 16 at the Main Boys' and Girls' Library on Vernon Street in Newton and at the ten Branch Libraries.

As a highlight of this National Children's Book Week celebration, the Newton Free Library will offer another series of story and reading hours in the libraries of the city. The schedule will be as follows:

TUESDAY — November 12 — 3:15 p.m. at: Boys' and Girls' Library on Vernon Street; Auburndale Branch; Newtonville Branch; Waban Branch.

THURSDAY — November 14 — 3:15 p.m. at: Newton Highlands Branch; Nonantum Branch; Oak Hill Park Branch; West Newton Branch; Newton Lower Falls Branch at 3:30 p.m.; Newton Centre Branch at 3:45 p.m.

SATURDAY — November 16 — 10:30 a.m. at: Newton Upper Falls Branch.

All boys and girls who are six years of age and older are invited to attend any of these programs. All parents, teachers and children and young people are urged to take advantage of this opportunity to see the displays of new books.

For further information, call LA 7-1213.

Named Advisors At Wentworth

Two Newton residents have been made members of the Wentworth Institute Industrial Advisory Committee, comprising representatives of industry, alumni and faculty.

They were Alvin Page, 36 Canterbury Rd., Newton Highlands, appointed to advise the Architectural Engineering Technology course, and R. M. Hayward, 26 Farwell St., Newtonville, production manager of Jarell-Ash Company, who will advise the Machine Process Technology course.

Hills And Falls Children's Show

Judy (Mrs. Mark) Aronson, 170 Oliver Rd., Waban, will sing from her repertoire of folk songs that have a special child appeal, and Brian Monahan, a high school student, will open up his bag of magic tricks, at an entertainment planned for Saturday afternoon, Nov. 16, by Hills and Falls Community Nursery School.

It will be in St. Mary's Church on Concord St., Newton Lower Falls, from 3 to 4. There will be refreshments. Tickets may be had from the youngsters' mothers.

For further information call Mrs. Aronson at DE 2-8455.

"Golden Wall" Exercises As Temple Burns Mortgage

An unique "Golden Wall" ceremony will highlight the observance of the burning of the mortgage of Temple Mishkan Tefila in Newton on Sunday, Dec. 15.

Elaborate plans are now underway to mark the event, unusual in that it will take place just five years after the dedication of the new Temple and school house at 300 Hammond Pond Parkway, Chestnut Hill.

In 1958, Temple Mishkan Tefila commemorated its centennial anniversary and in the same year the congregation dedicated the new Temple and school house.

The family of Mishkan Tefila will gather on Sunday, Dec. 15, to burn the mortgage.

A highlight of the observance on that date will be the dedication of the "Golden Wall" whereon will appear the names of the families whose recent pledges accelerated the redemption of the mortgage. It is expected that these families will be present to take part in the program.

The exercises will begin at 5:30 p.m. with appropriate prayers in the sanctuary. These will be followed by a cocktail hour, a full-course catered dinner and dancing.

Win

and triumph of the season for the Tigers who have lost three games and tied one.

Steve Carroll sliced five yards off tackle to climax a 40-yard march for the only touchdown in the second period, and Ken O'Connell blasted his way across for a two-point conversion.

While Newton outplayed Medford in every phase of the game except forward passing, the big story of the clash was the rugged Tiger defense which stoutly protected the 8-point lead, limiting Medford to four first downs, 50 yards rushing and 18 yards passing. Roger Watson and Davis Bliss were the big defensive stars. Pete Shattuck, Dick Evans, Steve Woodruff and Sam Rosenberg also played extremely well.

Because of the rain Newton tried only three passes, completed none of them and was forced to stay on the ground. But the Tigers were able to advance effectively overland, gaining 253 yards by rushing to 50 for Medford.

Star Ken O'Connell was the outstanding ground gainer, picking up 112 yards in 14 rushes. Steve Carroll gained 51 yards, Marty O'Gorman 45, Fred Magarian 34 and Ron Arra 11.

Medford threw a last-period scare into Newton supporters when it recovered a Newton fumble on its own 47-yard line and marched to the Newton 33-yard stripe.

But the Tiger defense stiffened, took the ball on downs, and the Newton backs put on a sustained drive that had carried to the Medford 9-yard stripe when the referee's whistle ended the clash.

Newton South came from behind on two second-half touchdowns by Chuck Spear to achieve a 20-16 uphill win over a stubborn Lexington team at Dickinson Stadium Monday afternoon.

But the victory was a costly one for the Lions. Tom Kessler, a senior guard, suffered a broken leg in the opening period, and Tom Lopez, junior end, sustained a concussion in the third quarter. He was held overnight for observation at the Newton-Wellesley hospital.

Kessler is out for the season, and Lopez undoubtedly will be sidelined for Saturday's game with rindge.

Whether Newton South will be handicapped by playing two games in the same week is uncertain. The clash with Lexington was postponed from Saturday to Monday because of rain.

The Newton South-Lexington contest was a see-saw affair. Lexington marched 80 yards for a game-opening touchdown and then added a two-point conversion.

The Lions got back six of the points on the first play of the second period when a pass from Ted Clarke to Mark Young was good for 49 yards and a touchdown. South failed on the attempted conversion.

Lexington hit back with an 81-yard march and another two-point conversion. At half-time the visitors led 16-6.

But Chuck Spear saved the day for the Lions with two scoring runs which came within two minutes of each other. One gallop was for 24 yards, the other for 22. Spear also came through with a two-point conversion on a rush to account for 14 of South's 20 points.

Hi - Jinks At Hamilton

Halloween hilarity at its height as one of Newton's 400 parties ran up a head of steam at the Hamilton School Sixth Grade program last Thursday evening.

Hallowe'en

Emerson Sylvester, were unanimous in expressing appreciation to the hundreds of volunteer workers.

"The continuing success," Mayor Gibbs said, "is a tribute to all those parents who contributed so much of their time and effort, particularly to Dr. R. Emerson Sylvester, who again served as General Chairman."

"We must also credit Mrs. Dorothy H. Garon, the General Program Chairman, and Recreation Supervisors James E. Murphy, Robert Doherty and William Barry, for the vital part they played in this year's Halloween planning," said the mayor.

"This united effort of our citizens working with the Recreation Department headed by Commissioner John B. Penney, and the Newton Chamber of Commerce, has given our young people a gala and safe night to remember."

"I offer my sincere thanks to all those who worked so untiringly to give Newton's children the best Halloween ever."

Gets Long Service Award

Jeremiah F. Ready of 159 Washington St., Newton, has been awarded a 40-year jeweled service emblem by Boston Gas Company in recognition of continuous length of service. Mr. Ready is employed in the company's Customer Contract Department.

This effort demonstrates the neighborly spirit that makes Newton the kind of city we all want to live in," the mayor concluded.

Commissioner Penney emphasized the importance of the friends and neighbors who contributed time and effort to assure success of the program. He also expressed great satisfaction at the caliber of the program planning and praised those firms and individuals who contributed financial support to the program.

Dr. Sylvester, the general chairman, issued the following statement:

"The City of Newton has now celebrated 23 years of successful Halloween parties. Each year, with the increasing number of children in our schools, the parties increase in number and size, and the programming becomes increasingly more complex."

"The work of our many volunteers assured us that Halloween will continue to be a wondrous time for our youngsters, the first big dance of the season for those in high school and a masquerade for those in elementary schools."

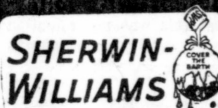

"Again this year the emphasis was on family participation. Entire families worked together to make this one night, the night of all nights. The results, with so little vandalism reported throughout the city, emphasizes the value of this family participation."

100,000 MILES AT OVER 105 MPH!

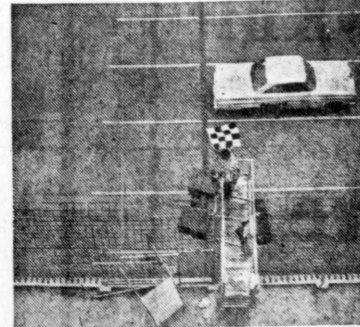

Comet Durability Run: toughest challenge of automotive stamina ever faced!

These Comets drove day and night for 100,000 miles. Average speed of the lead car—over 105 mph—includes time for refueling and maintenance.

On Sept. 21, we set out to test the stamina and rugged construction of a specially equipped and prepared team of 1964 Comets at Daytona, Fla.

During this challenging event, these Comets rewrote the record book, set over 100 world records. Many were once held by famous foreign cars.

WHAT THIS MEANS TO THE NEW-CAR BUYER. This around-the-clock Durability Run was the most rugged test ever faced by a new car. These Comets proved their stamina and durability beyond question. And the same skills and engineering excellence that made Comet's performance possible are yours in every '64 Comet. For this is a hot and hefty new kind of Comet—newly styled, newly designed, newly engineered. It's bigger, bolder looking... with a solid, big-car ride. Try one—at your Mercury dealer's.

about a 2-1 margin over Richard C. Husebee in their fight for the post as School Board member from Ward 2.

This was construed in political quarters as a rebuke to those Republican leaders who sought to block the election of Mrs. Mintz because she is a Democrat.

Newton's city elections are non-partisan, and a number of influential GOP figures made plain their resentment of the injection of partisan politics into the School Committee contest and rallied behind Mrs. Mintz.

The Rev. John A. Waite, a Baptist minister and member of the John Birch Society, was overwhelmingly defeated in his bid for election as the School Board member from Ward 1. Committeeman Francis P. Frazier polled 19,218 votes to 3441 for the Rev. Dr. Waite.

In the most hard-fought of the School Board clashes Committeeman Edwin Hawkridge won reelection as he topped Jerome Grossman, well known business and civic leader, by 2733 votes. The totals in their battle were 13,013 for Hawkridge and 10,280 for Grossman.

School Committee Chairman Haskell C. Freedman easily won reelection as School Board member from Ward 6 as he beat back a challenge by Theodore C. Green of 41 Daniel street, Newton Centre. Freedman polled 16,636 votes to 5892 for Green.

In the contest for election as the School Committee member from Ward 8 the returns were 10,493 for Dr. Way Dong Woo, 7766 for Norman S. Berkowitz and 3630 for Bertram Promboin.

Supporters of fluoridation were able to hold the line in Tuesday's election but only after a hard battle and some anxious moments as the returns were tabulated.

The margin by which fluoridation was retained was just about the same as that by which it was originally installed two years ago.

A total of 13,884 persons voted to keep fluoridation, while 12,989 recorded themselves in favor of halting it.

Mayor Donald L. Gibbs, who declared prior to the election that he would be bound by whatever mandate the voters delivered in the privacy of their polling places, said last night that fluoridation will continue in Newton.

However, opponents of fluoridation indicated last night that they do not intend to abandon their fight to stop the fluoridation of the city's water supply and that they will seek to place the issue before the voters again in a future election.

A big surprise in Tuesday's election was the refusal of a majority of the voters to sanction a raise in the Mayor's pay from $15,000 to $20,000 a year.

While the voters are never over-generous in the salaries they feel should be paid to their public officials, it was widely felt that a $5000 boost in the mayoralty pay would be a good thing for Newton and would be a factor in persuading men of outstanding ability and integrity to seek the office in the future.

At least one prominent Newton figure has stated privately that he could not afford to give up his present position to serve as Mayor for $15,000 a year.

In addition, Mayor Gibbs is considered to have given Newton an excellent administration and was unopposed for reelection to both a second and third term.

Nevertheless, Tuesday's vote was 14,344 against granting the $5000 raise and 13,837 in favor of it, with the margin of difference an extremely narrow one.

That this was no reflection of Mayor Gibbs was evident from the fact that he was given a remarkable complimentary vote, with 23,897 people taking the time to mark a cross beside his name even though he was unopposed.

The turnout of voters in Newton Tuesday was slightly higher than had been expected, with 28,818 men and women going to their polling places to cast ballots.

Attorney John F. Holden was an easy winner in the contest for the seat from which William A. Diman is retiring as Alderman-at-Large from Ward 1.

The returns in that fight were 17,937 for Alderman Adelaide B. Ball who won reelection, 13,930 for Holden who captured the second seat and 9826 for Kenneth L. Yukes.

Aldermen Winslow C. Auryansen and William M. Glovsky were unopposed for reelection as Aldermen-at-Large from Ward 2.

Aldermen Melvin J. Dangel and John P. Nixon were re-elected as Aldermen-at-Large from Ward 3. Nixon, who trailed about 3500 votes behind Dangel, finished 2347 votes ahead of his closest challenger.

Dr. Dunstan Is Speaker Before Woman's Union

Dr. J. Leslie Dunstan, who came to Andover Newton Theological School in 1954 as professor of Missions and Comparative Religions, was the speaker at a meeting of the Woman's Union, First Baptist Church in Newton, on Monday, Nov. 4.

His talk was in relation to the program theme, "Reflecting Our Reflections."

A native of London, England, Dr. Dunstan has taught in Hawaii, India and Japan, and filled various pastorates.

A luncheon served by Miriam Circle preceded the program, and a business meeting was presided over by the president, Miss Marion D. Wheeler. The worship service was conducted by Mrs. Robert S. Jigger. Hostesses were members of the Phebe Circle.

the power of God

They go together — the power of God and the triumph of man. One is the source. The other is the reflection. It's an idea worth pondering, for it holds the key to dominion over evil in all its forms. and to serve as a sounding board for citizen reactions and opinions about the recommendations.

Moderator of the program is Joseph C. Skinner, executive vice president of Meredith & Grew and active with the Community Chest and Community Council in Newton.

Mayor Gibbs will lead off the panel presentation with a brief background to the study, the reasons for making the study, and the importance of implementing the study recommendations.

An illustrated summary of the survey itself will be made by City Planning Consultant Charles E. Downe, and James A. Miller, Director of Newton's Community Renewal Program.

Lewis H. Weinstein, well known authority on the legal aspects of renewal and housing and counsel for numerous local housing and redevelopment authorities, will present the next steps, including the legal aspects, in implementing a C.R.P.

The C.R.P. survey conducted during the past 18 months was undertaken by the City of Newton to determine the need for urban renewal activities as a means of renovating, rehabilitating and cleaning-up deteriorating and blighted areas in the City.

The survey showed that Newton has its blighted areas and in six specific locations in Newton a program of urban renewal activities has been recommended to improve these areas.

Three types of renewal activities are outlined in the recommendations which include conservation (preservation of areas in good condition) rehabilitation (improvement of built up areas threatened by blight, and redevelopment (revision or replacement of existing land use patterns following general or spot clearance of dilapidated structures).

The areas earmarked for renewal activity represent only 17.2% of the total area in Newton.

Two basic sets of recommendations have been proposed by the Newton C.R.P. The first concerns policy and administrative recommendations aimed at both long-range and short-range control and prevention of blight.

The second series of recommendations deal with six specific geographical areas in the City with renewal activity designed to eliminate short-range blight. The six areas include Newton Corner, West Newton, Nonantum, Newton Upper Falls, Newton Lower Falls, and Newtonville.

Mrs. Arnold P. Mork, vice president of the Newton Community Council, Inc. is in charge of the meeting arrangements. The Council is a Red Feather Agency sharing in the United Fund.

Alderman Charles F. Hovey topped the field in that contest with 13,336 votes, Bruce was second with 9186 votes. Only 301 votes behind was Herbert L. Cohen with 8885. Then came Peter F. Harrington Jr., with 5676 and William J. Johnston with 5548.

William E. Hopkins and John P. McCarthy were re-elected as Aldermen-at-Large from Ward 7, and Theodore D. Mann and Wendell R. Bauckman were unopposed for election as Aldermen-at-Large from Ward 8.

Andrew J. Magni topped his closest opponent to win by 400 votes in the contest for Ward Alderman from Ward 1. The vote was 1221 for Magni, 821 for Joseph M. McDonnell, 575 for Herbert L. Shulman, 300 for George L. White, Jr., and 225 for George Morrissey.

George L. Hicks was re-elected as Alderman-at-Large from Ward 2. His opponent, Donald C. Howard withdrew from the contest after getting a federal appointment although his name was listed on the ballot.

Ernest F. Dietz of 93 Hancock avenue, Newton Centre, was reelected as Ward Alderman from Ward 8, defeating Kevin Lane.

Jack M. Roberts topped Jerold Wise to hold his post as Ward Alderman from Ward 8.

Ward Aldermen Edward C. Uehlein of Ward 5 and William Carmen of Ward 7 were unopposed for reelection.

Also unopposed were School Committeemen Manuel Beck with from Ward 4, Hugh M. Tomb from Ward 7 and School Committeewoman Grace C. Whitmore from Ward 3.

Social Justice Panel Meeting Next Wednesday

"Fair Employment and Education," second in a series of four panel discussions on racial justice, will be presented Wednesday evening, November 13, by the Adult Education Committee of the Aurndale Congregational Church.

Panel members will include Hubert Jones, social worker, chairman of STOP and a member of the Newton Fair Housing and Equal Rights Committee; Jerome Grossman, president of the Massachusetts Envelope Company, a steering committee member of NFHERC, and past president of the Newton Parents Association; Melvin King, director of youth services, South End Federation of Settlements and Joel Leighton, director of the Massachusetts Association of General Contractors and former organizer and administrator for the Textile Workers' Union of America.

The program will begin at 8 p.m. in the assembly room of the church's parish hall, Hancock street and Woodland road, Aurndale. The public is invited to attend.

United Church Women Form Study Groups

A unique opportunity for women of Newton to get together in studying vital problems is offered in a 10-week series of sessions for which the wife of the Rt. Rev. John M. Burgess, Episcopal Bishop of the Diocese of Massachusetts, has opened her home at 46 Berwick Rd., Newton Centre.

Mrs. Burgess is chairman of the Committee of United Church Women in Newton.

The sessions are on Tuesdays at 10 a. m., and the group is limited to 25, with each member church of the United Church Women of Newton delegating one person to study and contribute at each session. Each will, in turn, form a study group in her own church.

Topics under study are "Nation Building" and "The United Nations in the Christian World Relations Area."

Tau Beta Beta Meeting To Be Held Nov. 12th

The home of Mrs. John M. Tomb of Newton Centre will be open to members of Tau Beta Beta for their meeting on Tuesday, November 12, at 2 o'clock.

A brief business meeting will be held with Mrs. William R. Newton, president, presiding.

Harold F. Lindergreen, artist and lecturer, will be the guest speaker and will show the members how to "enwrap" their Christmas gifts with a bit of personal and original beauty from the very simple to the most elaborate wrappings.

Mrs. S. Bruce Black of Newton is hospitality chairman of the day and Mrs. Kenneth D. McCutcheon of Newton is assistant chairman. Other Newton members serving on this committee are Mrs. William P. Beetham, Mrs. Joshua B. Clark and Mrs. Leon B. Farley.

Mrs. W. F. Fullerton, Jr., and Mrs. Raymon W. Eldridge are Newton members serving on the tea committee.

Birchers

Friday night, November 1, the following votes were unanimously adopted and the committee's chairman, Edward C. Uehlein, was authorized to make them known to the public.

1. That partisan politics has no place in municipal elections in the City of Newton which traditionally have been and should continue to be strictly non-partisan.
2. That the Republican City Committee firmly believes that neither political party should endorse any candidates in Newton City elections.
3. That the Republican City Committee wants to make it abundantly clear that it did not and does not support any candidate who is a member of the John Birch Society in which Donald A. Waite, a candidate for School Committee from Ward 1, had acknowledged membership.
4. That the Newton Republican City Committee, in the area of municipal elections, is primarily concerned with the perpetuation of good government in the City of Newton.

The statement urged every voter to go to the polls and cast his votes for the candidates of his choice, strictly on a basis of merit and qualification.

Mrs. William L. Bruce, who is president of the Newton Women's Republican Club, and Wallace F. Forbes, president of the Newton Republican Club, attended the meeting of the executive committee and heartily endorsed the votes of the Executive Committee.

Toll Road Man Holy Name Guest

Edward Hasbrouck, section superintendent of the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority, whose responsibilities include that part of the toll road that passes through Newton, will be guest speaker at the meeting of Our Lady's Holy Name Society, Sunday, Nov. 10.

Weather permitting, members of the society will assemble in the parish school yard at 7:45 a.m. and march into the upper church for 8 o'clock Mass. The suggested Communion intention for November is the deceased members of the organization.

The meeting will be held immediately afterwards in the parish school cafeteria. Doughnuts, sweet rolls, and coffee will be served.

Dave Kingwill of Newtonville, Class of '65 at Wesleyan University, scored two goals against the soccer team of Tufts University last week.

Hadassah Of Oak Hill To Meet Nov. 13

The regular meeting of the Oak Hill Group of Hadassah will be held at Sidney Hill Country Club on Wednesday, November 13 with a coffee hour starting at 1:00 p. m.

Mrs. Edward Hartstone will preside at the meeting which will start at 2:00 p. m. and will present "Members of the Donor Luncheon Family" featuring Mrs. Herbert Layton, Donor Luncheon Chairman and her committee and starring Mrs. Charles E. Wyanski, Jr. president of Boston Chapter of Hadassah. The meeting will be dedicated to Membership and Hadassah Medical Organization.

A movie "Lady of the Stock Exchange" with Janet Blair and Eddie Bracken will be shown through the courtesy of Joseph P. Keller of McDonald & Company, member of the New York Stock Exchange.

Program chairmen are Mrs. Martin Alpert and Mrs. Robert Horlick. Mrs. Irving Miller, membership chairman will also act as hostess.

Charles River Medical Women Sponsor Dance

Mrs. P. Stefan Kraus, president of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Charles River District Medical Society, announces the November 16 dinner-dance to be held at the Sidney Hill Country Club in Chestnut Hill. This will be the one and only fund-raising event for this year and is a tax deductible item. It benefits the Nurse's Scholarship Fund.

Door prizes, in addition to the poolside atmosphere for cocktails, dinner, entertainment, and dancing to Don Quinn's music have been arranged by Mrs. John Meeker of Wellesley, chairman of the evening's sociability.

Style Corner

At the risk of being called hucksters or pitchmen, we're making known a half-price event that's worthy of every man's attention.

Jacques has a $45 suburban coat that is truly worth $45 (and generally priced higher elsewhere), and this excellent garment is going to be sold at half the regular price to those who qualify. This figures out at $22.50 for the benefit of us who never could dig math.

Seems hardly believable, eh? Well, the Town-and-Country tailored coats in fashionable short length can be bought for $22.50 for a limited time by: (1) any customer who has already spent $50 or more at Jacques; or (2) any customer who makes new purchases which total $50 when added to earlier purchases; or (3) any new customer who buys a total of $50 in smart apparel at Jacques.

These sparkling-new coats of character embrace the following details: • finest wools in medium-gray, saxenies, and in charcoal-gray and olive hosiackings; • two button-through models; one a set-in-sleeve, center-vent model, the other a two-way or split-shoulder; raglan with side vents; • slanted flap pockets; • full plaid linings, with 180-count satin in yoke, kasha interlining in sleeves.

Reason for this unusual bonanza: the weather was so warm up to now that business was stalled right back to the manufacturing levels. Our parent company has a manufacturing plant that has made it possible for us to reward those who have traded with us since we opened, and also to forge new links of goodwill for the future with new Jacques' customers.

And the men who buy these short-length coats may have fears of happiness in their eyes countless years from now when they recount the lucky day they bought a $45 quality coat for $22.50 at Jacques.

For they were not only saving money; they were buying protection against King Winter's icy countenance and baleful glare. All this for $22.50? Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus... none other than kindly old Jacques!

Joseph FitzSimons, Newton Fire Prevention Department; Richard Thompson, president, Newton Rotary Club; Henry Shor, president, Newton Council of PTA's; Frederick A. Perkins, Newton fire chief; C. Robinson Fish III, Greater Boston Medic-Alert co-chairman; Stanley Russell, secretary, Newton School Committee; Philip Purcell, Newton police chief; Thomas Lepore, wearer of Medic-Alert; Albert W. Tocci, president, Newton Bankers Association; Harold Boyajian, vice-president, Newton Lions; John Madden, president, Newton Kiwanis; Charles Rudnick, president, Newton Pharmacists Association; and Dr. Thurston G. Powell, president, Newton Medical Club.

Apparently the need for universal recognition of one universal medical symbol and system has developed simultaneously among conscious laymen, medical and hospital personnel and law enforcement and fire officials.

An enthusiastic welcome and support has been given to Medic-Alert Month in Newton as reported by Chairman Basbas to Mr. Fish, C.L.U., of Waban who is chairman of Project Lifeguard.

Applications for those who wish them or wish to send them to relatives in other parts of the world can be obtained in Newton City Hall, most drug stores, all Newton banks, Police and Fire Departments, and the Newton-Wellesley Hospital, whose director, William Brines, is on the hospital advisory board of Project Lifeguard.

Groups interested in obtaining speakers for meetings or any additional information may call Chairman Basbas at Newton City Hall, or Mr. Horan at the Newton Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Basbas suggests that any Newton resident who wishes to play a part in this life-saving program send an application and clipping to friends and relatives in other cities where the full message of Medic-Alert may not have reached as yet. The West Coast of the United States is ahead of the East Coast in this respect.

Steps have already been taken to make Newton police, firemen and hospital staff personnel aware of the message of Medic-Alert.

Chief Purcell and Gilbert Champagne of the Newton Police Department have already been instrumental in carrying the message of Medic-Alert to large groups of officers who in turn will take the applications and literature back to their commandants in various towns and cities.

The response to a descriptive letter sent to all Chamber of Commerce members by Mr. Horan has shown tremendous interest on the part of local business and thousands of applications have been supplied to them.

Mr. Rodman, C.L.U., on the steering committee, was a guest speaker at a Kiwanis meeting recently and Mr. Fish spoke at the meeting of the Rotary on Nov. 4.

Theatre Party To Aid Temple
School Nov. 13

A theatre party to benefit the Religious School of Temple Reym will be held Wednesday, November 13 under the auspices of the Temple Brotherhood.

According to chairman Carl Winograd, the benefit showing will be a motion picture, "Your Past is Showing" starring Peter Sellers and Terry Thomas appearing at the Paramount Theatre in Needham.

Tickets may be obtained from Mr. Winograd or his two co-chairmen, Maxwell Shuman and Charles Shapiro.

West Newton Church Bazaar
On Nov. 15th

Newton Methodist Church will hold a bazaar on Nov. 15 under the chairmanship of Mrs. Charles E. Smith.

The women of the W.S.C.S. of the church have been busy making and collecting items for the bazaar to be held from 11 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. Many attractive aprons have been made and will be reasonably priced. A variety of small artificial floral arrangements in attractive containers will be for sale. Christmas decorations, candles, dolls and gift items are varied and most unusual. Another interesting feature will be an Opportunity Table consisting of slightly used articles such as china, glassware, silver, linen, etc.

Mrs. LeRoy Coleman and Mrs. Jeff Piercy will have charge of the luncheon served from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. All are welcome. Dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. under the chairmanship of Mrs. George R. Strandberg. Reservations are to be made with Mrs. Elred Peterson for dinner.

Schedule Set For 6 Adult Study Classes

Six tuition-free adult study classes will meet at Temple Emanuel, Newton, for five consecutive Tuesdays per semester, with the initial session Nov. 12, it is announced by the Regional Jewish Education Institute.

The second semester will begin next Feb. 18.

Three classes are scheduled from 8:15 to 9:10 p.m. Their subjects: Basic Ideas in Judaism, Basic Concepts of the Prayer Book and Elementary Hebrew (10 sessions per semester). Three additional classes will be held from 9:15 to 10:10 p.m. to permit interested students to attend two courses with a minimum of inconvenience. Their subjects: The Five Scrolls, The Men Who Shaped Jewish History and Art and Judaism.

Sponsors of the courses are Temple Emanuel, Temple Emanuel and Temple Reym of Newton and Temple Mishkan Tefila of Chestnut Hill. They will be taught primarily by the rabbis and educational staff members of the congregations, including Rabbis Albert I. Gordon, Zev K. Nelson, Israel J. Kazis, Philip Kieval and M. David Weiss, and by Dr. Martin Goldstein, Mrs. Herbert Camann and Nathaniel Jacobson.

Adult education chairmen at the various temples can supply additional information.

MILTON L. GRAHAM
To Post By Hub Ad Club

Milton L. Graham, 487 Ward St., Newton Centre, has been appointed co-chairman of the Education Committee of the Advertising Club of Greater Boston for the 1963-64 season.

He is president of the Cambridge School of Business and the Cambridge School of Radio-TV Broadcasting. He is an active participant in many service and civic organizations including the Broadcast Executives Club, Business Men's Council, Harvard Club, Red Feather and the Combined Jewish Appeal.

Mr. Graham is the co-author of two books and is listed in Who's Who in American Education. He resides with his wife Edith at the Ward St. address.

Special Music At Centre Church

"My Call to the Ministry" will be the sermon topic Sunday at Newton Centre Methodist Church.

The pastor, the Rev. Seaton M. Woodley Jr., will conduct the service, assisted by Robert E. Morgan.

Miss Marjorie Dow will sing "Peace." The Sanctuary Choir will sing the anthem "What of the Night."

The Junior High Fellowship will meet Sunday evening at 5, with a guest from India.

Angier School Book Fair Will Open Nov. 13th

Books, records, and gifts will be available at the Angier School Book Fair this year, giving parents an early opportunity to take care of their holiday shopping. In addition to those books on display, others can be specially ordered on request.

Profits from the fair will be used by the school for the purchase of additional equipment or supplies for the children.

Nov. 13, 14 and 15 are the dates set for the event. The books and other items will be on display in the gymnasium from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily, also the evenings of the 13th and 14th from 7 to 9 p.m. The gift table, which will feature such items as Christmas cards, Chanukah cards, and stationery will be open only after school hours and during the evening.

Pre-schoolers as well as sixth graders will find interesting books here, in addition to recorded songs and stories. The school children will have an opportunity to browse during school hours to see what is available.

Co-chairmen for the Book Fair are Mrs. Leo Brown and Mrs. Marc Shamban.

Book Fair At
Open Nov. 12

Spaulding School will hold its annual Book Fair during the week of November 12 through 15. A wide selection of the latest children's books and many favorite classics will be on display. Adult books will also be on sale and any titles not on display may be ordered. The fair will be open Tuesday through Friday, 8:10 - 12 noon, and 1:10 - 3:30 p.m.

The Spaulding Book Fair this year coincides with National Education Week. It is hoped that parents will browse around at the Book Fair before or after visiting their children's classrooms.

Mrs. James Goodman, Book Fair chairman, suggests that the fair provides an excellent opportunity to do leisurely and early holiday shopping. Helping Mrs. Goodman is a large committee of mothers, including co-chairmen Mrs. Herbert Carver and Mrs. Hugh Stone. Mrs. Saul Cohen, Mrs. Marshall Paisner and Mrs. John Strauss are advisors.

Lincoln-Eliot In Open House

Lincoln-Eliot School parents have planned an open house at the school for Thursday morning, Nov. 14.

Parents and friends are invited to visit the classroom, and baby sitters will be on duty in the school playground.

Hostess for the day will be Mrs. Daniel Mallia, PTA president. Her committee includes Mrs. Salvatore Fugazzotto and Mrs. John Kaljian. Helping with baby sitting will be Mrs. Robert Clark, Mrs. Paul DeLuca, Mrs. Charles Gentile, Mrs. Paul O'Sullivan, Mrs. Mario Berardi, Mrs. John Martin and Mrs. Joseph Longmoore.

Of Eliot Church

Guests of the Woman's Association of Eliot Church on Tuesday, Nov. 19, will be the Rev. and Mrs. Kingsbury S. Jeyasingam, who have been brought from Ceylon to this country by the Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference for a six-months visit to churches of the Commonwealth.

Rev. Mr. Jeyasingam has achieved a most significant record in Ceylon as pastor, administrator, Evangelism leader and organizer of new work. Mrs. Jeyasingam, left an orphan at 17, kept together her family of four younger brothers and one younger sister, and has seen them all through college and some through graduate schools, with the help of Jaffna College staff and friends. She was a teacher for five years before her marriage.

Dessert and coffee will be served preceding the meeting. An offering will be taken to help defray expenses of bringing the Jeyasingams as "Missionaries to Massachusetts."

Brotherhood Of
Marks 25 Years

Featured speakers at the breakfast meeting of Temple Emanuel Brotherhood of Newton in the community hall Sunday, Nov. 17, at 9 a.m., will be Dr. Abram L. Sachar, president of Brandeis University.

His subject will be "A Blueprint for Tomorrow." The meeting will be the first major event in a series of special programs celebrating the organization's 25th anniversary.

Dr. Franklin Nusbaum, Brotherhood president, will preside. Herbert Shapiro, 47 Myerson lane, Newton Centre, is reservations chairman. His phone: 332-6991.

Currently, some 463 million separate U. S. Savings Bonds are owned by American families—worth nearly $47 billion.

Government In Action Tours
For Warren Jr. High 9th Graders

Members of Harold R. Vann's ninth grade social studies groups at Warren Junior High School in West Newton have seen government in action at various governmental agencies during the past few weeks.

They have attended a meeting of the Newton Board of Aldermen, and visited the District Court at West Newton and the Massachusetts General Court in the State House.

To the State House, too, went several pupils of James V. Amalfitano on two different occasions.

At the Aldermen's meeting, City Clerk Monte G. Basbas took time out prior to the session's opening to give the youngsters an understanding of procedures there.

Late last month a visitor to the school was Nelson Crowther, an assistant attorney general on the staff of Atty. Gen. Edward W. Brooke, who spoke to some of the 9th grade classes on Constitutional Law.

Arrangements have been made for Mr. Vann's pupils to hear a talk on constitutional reform given in Boston by U.S. Senator Clifford Case of New Jersey. The Senator will also give a description of Congress in action.

Also, the group will attend a Boston College lecture in Humanities in which John J. Galbraith will cover the subject of American foreign policy.

During the course of the year, the group will visit the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals, the U.S. District Court and other governmental agencies.

Highlight of the year's program for the pupils of Mr. Vann and Mr. Amalfitano will be the annual trip for the two 9th grade classes to New York City, where they will visit the United Nations, Wall Street and other points of interest.

HERBERT J. CALLAHAN

Temple Shalom Lists Speakers For Sabbath Eve

"Morality and the Schools" will be discussed at the Sabbath Eve Services on Nov. 8 and 15 at Temple Shalom of Newton, with well known guest speakers. Both services will be conducted by Rabbi Murray I. Rothman, and will begin at 8:15 o'clock.

Tomorrow, Nov. 8, the speaker will be Herbert J. Callahan, currently principal of the Peirce School in West Newton. Mr. Callahan was educated in the Newton schools and received his master of education at Boston University. He has taught in the Newton schools and in New Hampshire, and before coming to the Peirce School he was principal of the Stearns-Lincoln Eliot School District in Newton.

Through work with the recreation departments in New Hampshire and Newton, as well as Boy Scouts and Day Camps, Mr. Callahan has had additional experience working with youth.

The speaker on Nov. 15 is Dr. Franklin Patterson, director of, and professor at the Lincoln Filene Center for Citizenship and Public Affairs at Tufts University. He is responsible there for leading a program designed to help improve the education of citizens in high school, college and adult life.

Dr. Patterson, who received his formal education in California and came to Tufts from New York University where he was chairman of the Department of Secondary Education, has long had an especial interest in youth and their preparation for responsible membership in our society. He has written widely in the fields of education, public affairs and human relations.

All members and friends of Temple Shalom of Newton are cordially invited to attend these services.

A STATEMENT OF OUR POLICY

Could you guess how many fires were recorded in the U.S.A. last year? The unbelievable total was nine hundred thousand, 300,000 of which were in homes. If a fateful law of average should bring one to your house to-night, are you fully insured? That is the urgent question.

DURANYL by MASLAND is PLAY-PROOF

100% CUMULOFT® NYLON PILE

The proof is in the pile — lush and lusty. Tots and teens can romp and stomp on it . . . pester and pummel it . . . carpet of Cumuloft nylon snaps back, poised for the next pounding. It's got built-in resilience!

And you'll never need to fret over shedding or fuzzing or pilling. Because this carpet is made with 100% continuous filament Cumuloft nylon. Dust and dirt are never more than surface deep. Once over lightly with a vacuum is just about all Cumuloft needs to keep its original vibrant new-look.

Play-proof. Moth-proof. Mildew-proof. The penetrating beauty of DURANYL is here to stay.

you'll find the carpet you need for the home life you lead - in every price, color, fiber and type imaginable...

Abramson's Guarantee of Satisfaction

Because our skilled and experienced workmen are especially trained to expertly measure, install and service carpet we make this guarantee of satisfaction:

We Guarantee the least possible carpet waste. By efficient measuring, estimating and installation, every inch of carpet you pay for is used to best advantage on your floor.

We Guarantee the neatest, best-looking installation you've ever seen. We measure, cut and install carpet to fit any size, shape or type room without ragged or loose edges—even around corners, doorways, baseboards.

We Guarantee complete satisfaction even after the carpet is installed. If not entirely pleased with our work, call and request our workman back at any time. We do not forget you once the sale is made.

Four Temples Resume Classes On November 12

Four conservative congregations of Newton and Chestnut Hill are again this year undertaking a combined educational program. Six courses are offered by Temple Emanuel, Temple Emanuel, Temple Mishkan Tefila, and Temple Reyim, under the auspices of the Regional Adult Jewish Education Institute.
Classes are scheduled to meet at Temple Emanuel, on five consecutive Tuesdays per semester, unless otherwise noted below. The first semester will begin November 12, the second on February 18.
There will be no charge for the classes, but students are expected to buy the textbooks that will be prescribed. A certificate will be awarded to students who successfully complete a three-year series of courses.
Individuals desiring further information are invited to call one of the adult education committee chairmen: Mr. Ruby Brown (BI 4-7854, Temple Reyim), Mr. Myron Jaffe (DE 2-5391, Temple Mishkan Tefila), Mr. Milton Glanz (DE 2-9355, Temple Emanuel) or Dr. Oscar Tenbaum (DE 2-7445, Temple Emanuel).

Fessenden School Has $1000 Fire
Some 150 pupils and teachers at Fessenden School, West Newton, were driven out early last Saturday morning by a fire in the school's boiler room.
Damage was estimated at $1000 by Chief Frederick A. Perkins, Jr., who laid the cause to a defective refrigerator motor.

Aldermen In Wrap-Up Of Routine Items

Appropriations and other matters approved by the Board of Aldermen at Monday night's meeting were the following recommendations of the committee on Finance and Public Works:

A request of the city engineer for transmitting a schedule of betterment assessments in Cumberland road, West Newton, $2,676.24; in Henshaw place, West Newton, $3495.20, in Nehoiden road, Waban, of $6723.04.

A proposal by the director of public works for a street department appropriation of $11,900 for acceptance of Briarfield road, Newton Highlands, under the betterment act.
Approved was a request by the water commissioner for $2030 for a water main extension in Morrill street, West Newton.
The sum of $210,000 was added to the authorized $580,000 bond issue for the new Horace Mann School.

Also approved was an appropriation of $27,000 for architects' plans and other costs of the new Burr School construction.
Approved was the Pine and Lexington street site for the new Burr School.

A request of the public works director for an appropriation of $5500 for a drain and sewer in Parker terrace, Newton Centre, was denied.

Dr. Greenleaf Visiting Nurse Board Speaker

Dr. Henry M. Greenleaf, director of public health for the city of Newton, discussed the reorganization and modifications made in the school health program at last Monday's meeting of the Board of the Newton Visiting Nurse Association.

Introduced by Mrs. Thurston G. Powell, he said that one of the most significant modification had been established of improved teamwork between nurses and doctors serving the school districts.
"At present," Dr. Greenleaf said, "a team consisting of one doctor and two nurses is serving in each of the five districts, using the junior high schools for headquarters.
"One additional team," he added, "serves the city's six Catholic schools," and he said that "this modification has greatly equalized the work distribution among the doctors and nurses in the school health program. The two high schools," he added, "have separate doctors and nurses."
Dr. Greenleaf reported that the department has x-ray equipment and an extra chair in the dental clinic. Other additional equipment includes two more vision and hearing testers. Additional funds have been obtained with the result that all sports, instead of football only, now have medical coverage.
In closing his talk, Dr. Greenleaf questioned the feasibility of the School Health Department and the Newton Visiting Nurse Association establishing identical districts for more complete cooperation and communication between the doctors and nurses of both organizations.

The Newton Visiting Nurse Association is a Red Feather Agency.

Girl Scout Heads Meet In Miami

Members of Bay Path Colonial Council, Inc., 381 Elliot St., Newton Upper Falls, who attended a national meeting of Girl Scout Leaders last week at Miami Beach, Fla., were Mrs. Arthur T. Gregorian, member of the board and chairman of Region 1 Committee; Mrs. Ralph Werman, Council chairman; Mrs. Nathan Bugbee, vice president; Mrs. Janis Kalnais, field director, and Miss Lois Dennel, executive director.

Bus Line Will Try Again For Service Cuts

A State Department of Public Utilities hearing last week of the Middlesex & Boston Street Railway Company's petition to halt Sunday and evening bus service brought out some 200 opponents to the proposal, including Mayor Donald L. Gibbs, but was halted when it was ruled by DPU that there had been insufficient notice of the hearing.

The company announced that it would resubmit its request.

Hub Chamber Honors Bullen

Wilbur W. Bullen Jr., 8 Burnside road, Newton Highlands, has been named Man of the Month for October for achieving top honors in competition with 100 business executives who are volunteers in the membership campaign of the Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce.
In the past two years he has gained for the Chamber more than $4000 in new and increased memberships.

Teen Time Topics

By DOT DUNN

Dear Dot,

I am 16. I have been going steady for the past month. My boy friend doesn't call me every day, and we date on week-ends only. It's the first time I have gone steady. My friends think this boy is very thoughtful. What do you think?

Dear Jan,

Who is going with this boy, your friends or you? You must know that he has certain responsibilities, just as you must have. You don't own his time. Home work, family duties and extra curricular activities must take up much of his time. My advice is to discuss the matter with your steady and not your girl friends. If you don't wish to take this advice, here is an added thought. Give up going steady.

Dear Dot,

I have started preparations for Christmas giving because I seem to have a very large list this year and my budget seems mighty small. Do you have any suggestions on this subject? L. C.

Dear L. C.,

I feel that you should limit your Christmas giving to a few. The thought is really the important consideration and not the value of the gift you may give. A box of homemade goodies, attractively wrapped, will always be a welcome gift. There are many interesting gifts, still under a dollar, but you have to do a lot of hunting. The time to find them is right now.

Dear Dot,

I am a freshman in high school. I suddenly have a great desire to be editor of my school paper when I get to be a senior. How can I prepare myself for this job? K. T.

Dear K. T.,

Start right now and get any job available on your paper. During your sophomore and junior years try for any and all types of openings. Work as hard as you can. It's the people who know what they are after, and work as hard as they can, who most often accomplish their aim. Good luck.

Dear Dot,

My pimples skin is driving me wild. Everyone feels that I'll soon grow out of this. Do you have to wait? M.F.

Dear M.F.,

Certainly not. Ask your doctor for a reputable dermatologist. Do all you can to clear this up as soon as possible.

Dear Dot,

We have a real problem at every party we have given lately, at least one uninvited guest crashes the party. How can we handle this situation? Patty.

Newton Meetings To Aid Seminary Cause

Two patrons meetings this Sunday, November 10, to be held in the homes of Louis Zimble, 93 Monadnock road, Newton, and Irwin Benjamin, 7 Woodchester Drive, Newton, will start a series of gatherings devoted to the aid of the Jewish Theological Seminary of America.

The meetings, being held under the auspices of the Greater Boston Friends of the Seminary, will climax in the annual dinner to be held Thursday, December 5 at Congregation Kehillath Israel, Brookline.

General chairman Ollie Cohen, chief executive officer of King's Department Stores, said that the local program is part of a national program by the Jewish Theological Seminary called "Year of Dedication."

It will seek funds to double the student body at the Seminary's Rabbinical School in an effort to combat the present shortage of 400 conservative rabbis that now exists in this country.

Other needs to be met include endowment of additional professorships and scholarships at the Teachers Institute, expansion of faculty at the University of Judaism maintained by the Seminary on the West Coast, continuation of educational radio and television activities, construction of more teaching area, dormitories and a new library for the Seminary's 2,000,000 volumes.

Serving as co-chairmen are Rudolph Astor, Brookline, Irwin Benjamin, Newton and Louis Zimble, Newton.

West Newton Group To Hear Writer Friday

Geoffrey Godsell will deliver the second in a series of World Affairs Lectures tomorrow, Friday, sponsored by the Women's Alliance of the First Unitarian Church in West Newton. The lectures are given monthly in the parish house of the church beginning in October and extending through January.

Mr. Godsell was born and educated in Great Britain. He served in the British Royal Navy in World War II. During that time he was stationed in Rome and Paris.

He was a former member and sub-editor of the British Broadcast Company. While with that organization, he covered the United Nations, was assigned to Paris and monitored broadcasts from Moscow. He served as Middle East Correspondent and was assigned to the Mediterranean, Egypt, Malta, Iran, Cyprus, Syria, Aden, Ethiopia and other countries in Africa.

Mr. Godsell joined the Christian Science Monitor in 1958 as assistant overseas editor, and is currently an editorial writer for the Monitor.

Mrs. Henry Whitmore, Jr., 31 Sterling street, West Newton, will preside and introduce the speaker. The lecture will be followed by a question and answer period.

Hearing Is Set On Apartments

A public hearing before the Planning Board and the Aldermanic committee on Claims and Rules has been scheduled for Tuesday, Nov. 12, at 7:45 p.m., in City Hall, on a proposal to construct a garden-type apartment at Centre and Wesley streets, Newton Corner.

Permission for the construction was granted last year, but a new hearing is required because the Garden City Associates failed to have work completed within six months.

Newton Youth Well Behaved Say Police

Newton youth and delinquency, and the relationship of the school libraries to the Newton Public Library system were the two main topics of discussion last Thursday evening, November 7, at the meeting of the Newton PTA Council held at the Division of Instruction and presided over by Henry Shor.

Newton Police Safety Officer Charles Feeley said that he believed, "Because of the Halloween parties, troubles throughout the city that night were at an absolute minimum." There was only one false alarm, and almost no soaping of commercial windows.

Most of the reported complaints involved egg throwing, a relatively harmless pastime compared to the antics of a few years ago. Parties don't stop trick or treating, he stated, but they do seem to keep the children off the streets.

He declared further that of Newton's 22,000 youth, 95 percent do very well. Only about 5 percent give the police trouble, and that is generally of a minor nature, as compared to other communities.

He advised parents of teenagers having a party of any size to hire a policeman. "Pay as much for a policeman as for the cokes, and you'll eliminate party crashing and possible subsequent destruction."

The professional library consultants, John Humphrey and Philip McNiff, surveying Newton's libraries, stated that serious consideration was being given in their survey to student needs in the community. They asked the council for comments on how well the Public Library system served the school departments. Ideally, they felt public library resources should be developed in depth in order to supplement direct curriculum requirements provided by the school's own libraries.

Cong. Burke Speaks Here Sunday Night

Congressman James A. Burke and Prof. Mark DeWolfe Howe of Harvard Law School will address the Democratic City Committee of Newton next Sunday evening, November 17, at 7:30 o'clock at the Clafin School, 465 Lowell Ave., Newtonville.

Subject of the talks will be two key bills in President Kennedy's legislative program.

The bills pending in the 88th Congress are the Tax Bill and Civil Rights Bill.

Congressman Burke, of the 11th Congressional District, is a member of the

Peabody Talk on Principles Draws Fire From Politicos

Exactly what Governor Peabody was trying to say in his talk on principles and politics before the Massachusetts Council of Churches is still being debated in political circles.

Whatever thoughts Peabody was endeavoring to express, he didn't expound them very plainly as is reflected by the fact that they have been interpreted in several different ways.

Peabody's assertion that compromises between "men of principle and men of politics" are essential to progress in government, drew a blast from members of the Legislature who thought Peabody implied that men of politics are not men of principle.

The Governor's defenders insist that he meant no such thing. This listener shares the latter view. We gathered the impression that he was including himself among the "men of politics."

Cooking Party Will Take Place Tuesday

Spicy, tender, pot roast takes the spotlight at the Boston Gas Company-Newton Graphic Cooking Party to be held in Beethoven School Auditorium, Beethoven Avenue, Waban, on next Tuesday afternoon at 1:45. Doors will open at 1 o'clock.

Presiding over the modern gas oven at this popular annual event will be two skilled cooks from the Home Service Department of Boston Gas Co.

Miss Susan Mack, Home Service Director, said about the menu, "We selected two meat dishes for our demonstration because of the high interest in meat cooking. One is a top-stove pot roast, very simple to prepare because the famous gas "burner-with the brain" does the pot-watching, allowing the housewife more kitchen freedom, and thus more time for her family."

Noting that many requests reach her department concerning broiled meats, Miss Mack continued, "We decided to include a moderate-priced broiler meal. This one features lamb patties. Very tasty, very pretty to serve and the recipe will probably be saved by every woman attending the Cooking Party to include in her favorite file."

Knowing the features of the menu at this Cooking Party, many housewives will want to have their husbands accompany them to the party. Husbands have been lucky winning one of these tasty dishes, or one of the many, many other valuable prizes. Each year many men show up for this popular event.

During the cooking program seven delicious dishes

Recounts To Start Friday For Aldermen

Recounts will be held tomorrow (Friday) to determine the winners of closely contested elections for seats as ward Aldermen from Wards 3 and 4.

On the original election-night count Paul J. Burke of 53 Jerome ave., West Newton, defeated Alderman Robert Tennant of 183 Mt. Vernon street, West Newton, by 25 votes in their battle for the Ward 3 post. Burke polled 1933 votes and Tennant 1908.

David W. Jackson of 362 Wolcott street, Auburndale, topped John L. Vaccaro of 150 Islington road, Auburndale, by 79 votes in the Ward 4 Aldermanic fight. Their totals were 1532 for Jackson and 1453 for Vaccaro.

Election Commission Chairman Arthur G. Heaney announced that the retabulation of the Ward 3 ballots will be started at 8:30 tomorrow morning.

As soon as the Ward 3 recount is completed, the check of the Ward 4 ballots will be started.

Heaney estimated that the Ward 3 retabulation will be finished about 11 a.m. But if it should be delayed until noon because of disputes over pencil crosses, the Ward 4 recount would not be started until after lunch.

Five tables will be set up for the tabulation of the ballots, with a Democratic and Republican counter at each table.

Heaney estimated that the two recounts will cost the city between $150 and $200.

Local Temple Will Receive Award In N.Y.

The Solomon Schechter Award for the "most outstanding Youth Activities Program in the Nation" has been bestowed upon Temple Emanuel of Newton, by the national organization of Jewish Conservative congregations.

The award will be made at the Biennial Convention of the United Synagogue of America to be held at the Concord Hotel, Lake Klamath, New York, next Monday evening, November 18th.

It will be received by Rabbi Albert I. Gordon, spiritual leader of the congregation. Mr. Nissie Grossman, president, and Mr. Leonard L. Matthews, chairman of the Youth Activities Program.

Nine hundred children participate in Temple Emanuel's Youth Program which is coordinated with the Hebrew School, to avoid conflict in programming.

Chester Rubin is director of youth activities, a position he has held for the past eight years.

In addition to Leonard L. Matthews, chairman, and Mrs. Alfred Bickelman, vice chairman, members of the committee include: Mrs. Charles Baker, Louis Bergart, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Bloom, Mrs. Morris Boorstein, Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Carlin, Mrs. Sumner Carp, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Carpenter, Morris Danovitch, Mrs. Hyman Entin, Mrs. Henry Fine, Carl Frutkoff, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gershman, Mrs. Ralph Glaser, Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Hershkovitz, Al.

City Ordinance Seen Solving Dog Problem

A new city ordinance designed to correct a problem one of their next new meetings, The Graphic learned today.

A proposed dog leash law has been pending before the Aldermanic Claims and Rules Committee for months.

While the committee will not approve a leash law which would prohibit any dogs from running loose in Newton, it is expected to recommend these steps as a compromise:

1. The appointment of a dog officer who would investigate complaints concerning nuisance dogs and would round up all unruly and unlicensed canines.

2. The establishment of a dog pound in a building which the city would either erect or lease for this specific purpose.

3. The purchase of a truck in which dogs molesting children or otherwise misbehaving would be hauled off to the pound.

For all practical purposes the so-called dog officer would be an old-fashioned dog-catcher with a net who would swoop down and gather in a dog jumping on children in a school yard or playground or committing similar offenses.

One of the complaints by parents is that their small sons and daughters are molested and frightened by dogs on their way to and from school or while in a school yard or playground.

This is one of the things the Aldermen will seek to stop.

The city fathers have weighed the possibility of inserting a provision in the suggested new ordinance which would bar dogs from the vicinity of schools and playgrounds during certain periods of the day, especially when schools are in session.

Local Colleges Get Grants

James Stanley, left, Lasell Junior College, and Miss Judith Severs, Newton College of the Sacred Heart, accept aid-to-education grants for their colleges from Robert K. Wilson, center, general manager of Sears Greater Boston Retail Stores.

Newton High Favored For 4th Victory

Newton High School's football team, now rolling in high gear and riding a three-game winning streak, will be favored to chalk up its fourth straight victory when it clashes with Waltham High at Dickinson Stadium Saturday afternoon. The kickoff is slated for 1:30 p.m.

Newton South High's grid-ders, who lost a 12-8 heart-breaker to Rindge Tech on Veterans' Day, should regain their winning ways when they journey to Framingham Saturday to meet Framingham South.

Coach Jim Ronayne's Newton High youngsters played one of their best games of the year Monday as they toppled a powerful Beverly High aggregation 14-0 and virtually ruined the Class A title hopes of the North Shore team which had won five straight games.

2 Local Schools Get Sears Grants

Two Newton schools, Lasell Junior College and Newton College of the Sacred Heart, are among nearly 500 private colleges and universities in the country to receive grants under Sears, Roebuck & Company's 1963 aid-to-education program.

Each of the Newton colleges received grants to the amount of $450. It was announced that the grants are unrestricted, enabling the schools to use their funds for purposes they consider most vital.

James Stanley, Director of Development at Lasell Junior College, and Miss Judith Severs, Co-ordinator of Development at Newton College of the Sacred Heart, accepted the grants for their respective schools from Robert K. Wilson, general manager of Sears Greater Boston Retail Stores.

Fluoridation Vote Recount Will Be Held

A recount of the votes cast for and against fluoridation in last week's city election will be held on Friday of next week.

Attorney Charles H. McGlue, one of the State's foremost experts on the election laws has been engaged by the group seeking to halt the fluoridation of the city's water supply.

McGlue directed the preparation of a petition submitted Tuesday to Election Commission Chairman Arthur G. Heaney asking a retabulation of the fluoridation vote.

He also plans to attend the recount to challenge any votes for fluoridation which were not marked in strict accordance with the law.

When the anti-fluoridationists presented their formal recount request to the election board shortly before Tuesday's 5 p.m. deadline, those who favor fluoridation countered by filing a separate petition of their own.

Writ Would Compel Bible Reading Here

Court action aimed at compelling the Newton School Committee to resume Bible readings in the city's public schools has been started by the Rev. Donald A. Waite, pastor of the Faith Baptist Church in Newton Corner and an assistant to the founder of the John Birch Society.

The Rev. Dr. Waite has filed a petition for a writ of mandamus ordering the resumption of Bible readings. In addition to the School Board members, Attorney General Edward W. Brooke and State Commissioner of Education Owen B. Kiernan are named in the writ which is returnable today (Thursday) in Middlesex Superior Court.

Dr. Waite ran for the School Committee in last week's election but was defeated by Committeeman Francis P. Frazier.

Convocation At Theology School Friday

More than 300 New England lay leaders and ministers are expected to attend a special Leadership Convocation at Andover Newton Theological School, Newton Centre, tomorrow, Friday, November 15.

As a highlight of the afternoon session, Dr. Harvey Cox will be installed in a new position on the Andover Newton faculty as assistant professor of theology and culture. His address will be entitled, "Motifs in Contemporary German Theology."

Dr. Cox also is faculty adviser for the Blue Hill Protestant Center, an inner-city project in Roxbury established two years ago by Andover Newton students.

Dr. Barnaby C. Kenney, president of Brown University, will speak at the evening dinner on "The Search for Spiritual Leadership."

Dr. Ben Herbst, of New York City, president and chief executive of the United Church of Christ, will give the keynote address at the opening luncheon on "The Church — His Servant in the Service of Man."

Gen. Galvin's Courage Hailed In Big Parade

Major General Michael J. (Iron Mike) Galvin, who is the State Senator from Newton, left his bed at the Soldiers' Home in Chelsea, where he has been seriously ill for a number of weeks, to ride at the head of the big Veterans' Day parade in downtown Boston, Monday. Galvin was the chief marshal of the parade.

As Galvin reached the reviewing stand at the State House, he was greeted personally by Governor Peabody who shook hands with him and presented him with a Flag of the Commonwealth.

Several Senators, who know how critically ill Galvin has been, joined in hailing him and applauding his blazing courage.

Richard B. Donnelly, a Senate aide and a member of Galvin's staff, in the 94th headquarters command division, drove the open car in which Galvin rode.

Another Senate aide, Richard Hagerty, who is on Galvin's staff, was also in the front seat along with a physician.

ORT Sabbath Services To Open Friday

Tribute to the world-wide vocational rehabilitation activities of ORT (Organization for Rehabilitation Through Training) will be paid by members of several chapters of ORT at Friday evening services, starting November 15.

Mrs. Arthur Polimer, Eastern Mass. Region president, and Mrs. Eli Young, regional educational chairman, are in charge of arrangements for the ORT Sabbath being formulated by the education chairman of each ORT chapter in this area. Chapters will participate in services as follows:

Battle Green Chapter of Lexington at Temple Isaiah and Temple Emunah on November 15; Essex Chapter at Temple Ner Tamid, Peabody, on November 15; Framingham Chapter in Framingham at Temple Beth Shalom on November 15; Mystic Valley Chapter, Congregation Ezer-Israel in Malden, on November 22. Natick Chapter in Natick at Temple Israel on December 6; North Shore Chapter at Temple Emanuel, Swampscott on December 6.

Sharon Chapter at Temple Adath in Sharon, on November 1; South Shore Chapter in Brockton, at Temple Ahvath-Torah on November 15; Blue Hills Chapter, November 15 at Temple Shalom, Milton; and Hancock Chapter, Coolidge chapter, Aspinwall Chapter and Hammond Chapter will observe ORT Sabbath at Temple Emeth in South Brookline on November 22.

ORT is a world-wide organization that provides vocational education and training to impoverished, unskilled and uprooted Jews. ORT Sabbath services in honor of its work are being sponsored in over 300 Temples and Synagogues throughout the country by Women's American ORT, a nation wide organization whose 60,000 members help support the ORT program.

Newton High PTA Has Open House Tonight

The Parent-Teachers Association of the Newton High School in Newtonville is sponsoring a Back-to-School Open House for parents tonight Thursday, Nov. 14, between 7:30 and 10 p. m.

The purpose of this event is to acquaint parents with the school program of their children.

Each class will last about ten minutes. The teachers will briefly describe the purposes and objectives of their courses, as well as reading assignments, book lists, special projects and grading practices.

Jackson Homestead To Hold Gala Open House

Open House at the Jackson Homestead, 527 Washington St., Newton, this Sunday from 3 to 5 o'clock will feature a "Guys and Dolls" exhibit, which includes many Victorian Boutique items, as well as commemorative stamps and covers, mint coin sets and a collection of antique bicycles owned by Dr. Richard I. Smith of Wellesley.

Mrs. Ruth Lindquist and her committee have assembled old jewelry, scent bottles, patch boxes, fans with their original boxes, and some rare calling card cases on loan from the Loring Greenough Museum of Jamaica Plain.

A mannequin will display the 1890 wedding dress (about size 8) worn by Mrs. Lindquist's mother. Two Girl Scouts, dressed in costume, will greet the guests, and Mark Tewksbury and Martha Sylvester expect to appear as a Guy and Doll of the Gay Ninety period.

Mrs. Charles W. Peterson, Garden Club chairman, has asked the Newton Centre Garden Club to arrange the flowers in the various rooms. The following members have been working with Mrs. Clinton C. Brown, chairman; Mrs. John E. Knight, co-chairman; Mrs. William Brine, Mrs. Raymond Knight, Mrs. Walter E. McCue, Mrs. Robert S. Mullen, Mrs. Robert Steinsieck and Miss Esther Winslow.

Mrs. Malcolm N. Jackson, hospitality chairman, reports that hostesses from the West Newton Woman's Club will include Mrs. John B. Naylor, president; Mrs. Theodore C. Danker, Mrs. Raymond J. Grenier, Miss M. Elizabeth

Centre Garden Club Talk On Unusual Plants

Members and guests of the Newton Centre Garden Club will meet in Fellowship Hall, Elliot Church, on Tuesday morning, Nov. 19, at 10, with Mrs. William Henry Hull Jr., noted Connecticut horticulturist, speaking on "Why Not Grow Unusual House Plants?"

Mrs. Hull will exhibit some of her exotic plants, and members will display samples of Christmas decorations which can be made at the Workshop in December.

Preceding the meeting Mrs. Leigh Liggett and her hospitality committee will serve bouillon. Mrs. Shephard F. Williams and Mrs. Homer C. Sowles will pour.

Mrs. Benjamin T. Fawcett, the club president, will conduct a short business meeting prior to Mrs. Hull's lecture. The speaker will be introduced by Mrs. Henry F. Cate Jr., co-chairman of the program committee.

CARL DE SUZE

Color Lecture Of New Europe Here Nov. 22

The Business and Professional Women's Group of the Newton Highlands Congregational Church will present Carl de Suze and his latest illustrated lecture, "Empires Revisited — the New Look in Europe" on Friday evening, November 22.

Officers of the group include: Mrs. Herbert W. Gleim, president; Mrs. Clifford W. Rust, vice-president; Mrs. Albert W. Clifton, secretary; Mrs. Ralph W. Kellaway, treasurer; and Mrs. Barbara Riley, chairman of arrangements for the lecture.

Proceeds from the lecture will be used for community and world projects of the group.

Carl de Suze recently returned from Europe and estimates his latest lecture to be the most exciting journey thus far for arm-chair travelers. His camera and tape-recorder commentary provide the sweep and color of a Europe revitalized.

Tickets may be purchased from members of the group or at the church office, 54 Lincoln St. They also will be available at the door on Friday, November 22, at 8 o'clock.

Wellesley Alumnae To Meet Nov. 20

Fellowship Players Will Make Debut Friday Night

The Fellowship Players will make their first appearance tomorrow, Friday evening, November 15, at 8:15 p.m., on the stage of Fellowship Hall of the Eliot Church of Newton.

While the Players are primarily associated with The Eliot Church, membership is welcome to other individuals of the community who are in sympathy with its aims. In fact, the present program includes at least six performers from The Newton Players, three of whom have other church affiliations.

The group will be unrestricted in its choice of programs. Religious offerings may be expected on appropriate occasions, as the requisite ability is developed, or in cooperation with some other organization of the church, but there is utter freedom to produce pure comedy of a completely secular nature. The aims will be to present good theatre, and to demonstrate the stimulation and inspiration of the performing arts and of group endeavor in a challenging enterprise.

The following program will be offered:

1. Fringe Benefits, a partial preview of a musical comedy, music by Mat Hallett and lyrics by Betsy Allen, performed by Edna White, Jane Marston, Dick Blue, Pat Harp, Bud Angier and Len Abbot, with piano accompaniment by Mat Hallett. 2. Exhibition of Marionettes by Betsy Allen. 3. Instant Theatre (1), by the Four Graces, — Jane Marston, Vivienne Rose, Phyllis Wheeler and Edna White.

4. Hootenany, featuring Walter and Nancy Lob, Dick and Ruthie Salinger, Frances Atkinson, Betsy Bennick, Ellen Gleason, Valerie Grosse, Susan Hallett, Kristine Seelitz, Sandy Thomas, Steve Fields, Bruce Garon, John Humphrey, William Hunter, Tom Marquis, Sid Marston, John Miller and Erland Russell. 5. Instant Theatre (2) by the Old Troupers, Steve Currier and Len Abbot. 6. Group Singing, led by Bud Angier.

Assisting in the staff work for the production are Mrs. Dorothy Hallett, Mr. and Mrs. Al Rosene and Mrs. Grace

4. Mayor Gibbs' Vote

An analysis of the returns in last week's municipal election discloses that the popularity of Mayor Donald L. Gibbs has remained remarkably consistent during the past two years.

In last week's election 28,818 men and women went to the polls, and 23,867, or 82.8 per cent of the total turnout, took the time to give a complimentary vote to Mayor Gibbs who was unopposed.

Two years ago in the 1961 election, when 24,422 persons cast ballots, 20,463, or 83.7 per cent, gave Gibbs a complimentary vote.

With a substantially bigger turnout than two years ago, Gibbs' vote total was larger in every precinct in the city except one.

The lone exception was Ward 4, Precinct 1, Auburndale Park, where there is some feeling against the motel to be built in Norumbega Park.

In that precinct 743 persons turned out to vote, and 597 marked a cross for Gibbs. Two years ago in the same precinct 686 men and women went to the polls, and 610 placed a pencil cross beside Gibbs' name.

Apart from that one small section, Gibbs' popularity with the residents of the city he is running has been extremely constant.

That is evidence that the refusal of a majority of the voters to approve a $5000-a-year pay raise for the Mayor was not intended as any reflection upon Gibbs.

It does indicate that the legislators who voted themselves a $2600-a-year pay raise earlier this year may have some cause for concern when they stand for reelection next year.

The people, it seems, have their own ideas on what their elected officials should be paid.

Democratic Aldermen

There will be twice as many Democrats in the new Board of Aldermen which convenes next Jan. 1 as there are in the present body—unless a change results from tomorrow's recount.

Three of the newly elected Aldermen are Democrats. One Democratic Alderman is retiring from the Board, and one Democrat was reelected an Alderman.

The Democrats who will assume places on the Aldermanic Board next January are Andrew J. Magni, newly elected Ward Alderman from Ward 1; Paul J. Burke, whose election as Ward Alderman from Ward 3 is still subject to tomorrow's recount; and Alderman-at-Large John F. Holden from Ward 1.

Democratic Alderman Joseph G. Bradley is retiring from the Board at the end of this year, and Alderman William E. Hopkins is the Democratic holdover.

While four votes out of 24 is not as large a voice as the Democrats would like to have on the Board of Aldermen, it does represent a Democratic gain in a city where Democratic voting strength is on the upswing.

Few Teens Provide Problem

The police report on Hallowe'en, given at the recent meeting of the Newton PTA Council, presents another forceful endorsement of this city's annual observance.

Incidents of vandalism have been reduced to a minimum and of a minor nature. This is the result of our city-wide and supervised parties for all youngsters from kindergarten to high school age.

Our 23rd annual observance of this nature, only recently written into history, substantiates the common sense of the idea, as have its predecessors. The Newton program has been observed by many communities and copied by a considerable number. Up to now it appears to be the solution to a one-time, annual Hallowe'en vandalism program.

And again, the appreciation of the community must be extended to all those adults who worked so energetically and with such dedication towards the success of the major project.

It also struck a refreshing note to hear the police representative at the PTA Council meeting extol the good qualities of the majority of Newton youth.

Emphasis was placed on the fact that about 5 percent of our teen-agers provide local police with problems. The others are red-blooded enough, healthy, alert and on the go, but manage to confine their activities within the boundaries of law and order.

This follows the basic pattern of juvenile delinquency across the nation. The lawless few swing the tar-brush at a whole generation of good kids.

They make some headlines, if that provides any lasting satisfaction. But, they are the mavericks and must be prepared to assume the penalties which life and the law has awaiting them.

Memorial PTA Meeting Theme To Be Reading

"Reading — A Lifelong Habit" will be the topic of discussion at the Memorial School PTA meeting to be held on Thursday, November 21.

Dr. Eldridge, principal, Mrs. Anne Cotmore, reading specialist, and several members of the Memorial School faculty have planned this meeting to coincide with the annual Book Fair which will be held during the same week.

The ultimate goal of the school reading program is to equip the child with a tool of learning which he may use for pleasure and profit all the days of his life.

The important skills in learning to read and how are they taught at Memorial School will be demonstrated by teachers at the school. Mrs. Cotmore will introduce the program and explain how each step in the reading process develops through the grades.

Demonstrations will be done by Miss Coffey, Mrs. Sugarman, Dr. Eldridge and Miss Quinn, and will involve voluntary participants from the audience, faculty and upper grade students.

Mrs. Jules Aarons of the school library department will have on display a group of books which may be helpful to parents who wish to choose books on the correct reading level for their children. Mrs. Cotmore will also give parents a few hints on this all important subject.

At the close of the meeting, as well as earlier, parents will be able to buy the books which will be on exhibition in the school gymnasium.

Carr PTA To Hold Annual Fair Tonight

The Carr School P.T.A. will hold its annual Book Fair and Open House today, Thursday, Nov. 14. After a short business meeting led by Mr. Nomi Henes, president, the parents will meet the teachers and visit the classrooms.

Following the outline of the year's program by the teachers, the parents will assemble in the auditorium to see children's records and books on science, music, literature, and art. At this time selections may be made for Hanukkah and Christmas presents by the parents.

Mrs. Bert Libon, chairman of the Book Sale, will be assisted by most of the school library mothers during this week from Nov. 12 through Nov. 15 when the children from Grades 2 through 6 will be allowed to view the exhibit.

Mrs. Marguerite Merrill, library consultant to the Carr School from the Division of Instruction, will assist Mrs. Libon in the arrangement of the exhibit.

The most successful bake sale in the history of the Carr School P.T.A. was held recently. The amount of baked goods contributed by the parents surpassed all expectations of the co-chairmen Mrs. Mimi Viseo and Mrs. Philip Jasset. They were especially grateful to the Horace Mann kindergarten parents who were among the main contributors.

The Horace Mann kindergarten children are integrated with the Carr School children for this year. The financial gains of the bake sale surpassed by $35 that of any previous year. The grand total was $213.60.

United Order True Sisters Plans Benefit

Mrs. Samuel Poorvu of Newton, president of the local chapter of the United Order True Sisters, announced this week that the 1963-64 Noemi Aid to Crippled Children campaign is well under way.

Further plans for the forthcoming gala annual luncheon and program book will be discussed at the meeting in November 20 to be held at the home of Mrs. Arthur Savel of Brookline.

A book review of Nora Loft's "The Concubine" will

Countless thousands have found freedom from fear in the midst of apparent conflict and chaos when they have prayerfully sought an understanding of God and man as revealed in Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy.

Science and Health explains that fear is the cause of much inharmonious and that as fear vanishes so does disease and pain and sorrow. And it teaches how to dispel fear effectively and permanently.

Science and Health may be read or examined, together with the Bible, at any Christian Science Reading Room. Or it may be purchased at $3.

Headlights and Highlights From Newton High School

BY KATHY WATERS

New plans are being made by the science department to discontinue the annual science fair and establish in its place a science night. On an evening in March, parents and students will have a chance to visit all classrooms in the science department.

Besides viewing individual projects, they will see what is going on in biology, chemistry and physics. Although there will be no individual prizes awarded, the evening should be a beneficial experience to all those who participate.

"Excursion", the Senior play, has recently chosen its cast: David Blocker, Henry Fradkin, Irwin Finger, Dennis Green, Ken Kronkiss, Tim Cox, Harlan Schneider, Tom Farrell, Jon Lepie, Larry L. Porto, Jeffrey Michelson, Stu Books, Simon Ruderman, James Barisano, Harlan Masters, Stanley Reimer, Richard Stone, Tom Marquis, Richard Milesky, Myrna Shapiro, Pamela Powers, Elaine Ullman, Joyce Wolbarst, Cary Horowitz, Roz Laserson, Eleanor Baker, Marilee Wyman, Ronnie Sullivan, Janet Rosenfelt, Jill Marcus, Ellen Savitsky, Sylvia Hall, Caryl Nussman, Sigrid Nickelsen, and Marilyn Stiller.

The play is under the direction of Mrs. William Sink, faculty advisor, and three student directors, Deborah Conant, Martha Hark, and Marlene Pishyn. The cast will present two performances on Friday, Nov. 22, and Saturday night, Nov. 23.

The production of the exchange students highlighted the first meeting of the American Field Service. Mr. Norma Gaudet, faculty advisor, assisted by co-chairmen Linda Harrer and Mary Eliza McDaniel, coordinator Sue Dietz, secretary Cathy Muther and treasurer Barry Canner introduced the foreign students.

A second A.F.S. meeting was held in the Palmer House Commons Room combined with Newton South High School.

Tim Weiskal, who spent the summer as exchange student to Syria, showed slides of his trip.

The Music Club, under the direction of Henry Lasker, held its election of officers and its first concert recently. Nick Farrell was elected president, Gillian Rogell, vice president; Kathy Waters, recording secretary; Jody Davis, treasurer, and Linda Piken, Ross Capon and Barbara Angel, corresponding secretaries.

Walter Waganknecht and Vicki Grand were appointed coordinators.

Performers in the concert were Yasuaki Tanaka, Marjorie Fishlyn, Rose Capon, John Hartman, Laurie Elgart, Susan Dietz and Leslie Claff, Jeff Hale, Joe Beatrice, Jim Beatrice, Walter Waganknecht and Nick Farrell.

Herb Pomeroy and his jazz sextet provided entertainment at a second music club meeting held last week. In addition to the musical selections, a panel discussion was conducted.

Members of the panel included Barbara Angel, Nick Farrell, Gretchen Bachrach and Mr. Lasker.

The officers of this year's Debate Society include James Levinson, president; Merrill Kaiz, vice president; Michael Davis, recording secretary; and Matthew Coogan-treasurer. The topic of debate is "Resolved that the federal government should provide complete medical care for all citizens at public expense."

The debating team will compete in the Greater Boston Debating League, as well as conducting intra-club debates. Any interested and informed citizen who would like to serve as a debate judge may contact James Levinson at DE 2-9139.

EVERY ONE WHO IS AFRAID

to reassure him

Countless thousands have found freedom from fear in the midst of apparent conflict and chaos when they have prayerfully sought an understanding of God and man as revealed in Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy.

Science and Health explains that fear is the cause of much inharmonious and that as fear vanishes so does disease and pain and sorrow. And it teaches how to dispel fear effectively and permanently.

Science and Health may be read or examined, together with the Bible, at any Christian Science Reading Room. Or it may be purchased at $3.

Some observers felt that Peabody was striving to defend the compromises he has made with his own principles and that in substance he was asserting that the end justifies the means.

They predict that his own words will be used against him when he stands for reelection next year.

One Beacon Hill columnist viewed Peabody's speech as a candid confession that he has found it necessary to lower his sights and wheel and deal with politicians in order to realize progress and attain his objectives or part of them.

That is a fair interpretation of Peabody's remarks although it may not have been what he had in mind at all.

An unusual aspect to the widespread confusion as to what Peabody meant and what he really was trying to say is that he read from a prepared text.

The doubt and uncertainty in recent years, Democrat and Republican alike.

Maybe he was implying that he compromised his own principles when his agents traded jobs and other favors for votes in order to push forward his legislative program.

If so, the hard fact remains that his administration has played politics to the very hilt when the situation required it.

What Peabody didn't say was that he provided himself a tough and ruthless fighter in the jungle of politics during his successful battle to reorganize the State Public Works Department.

That is an unusual statement for a Governor to make. But here is the excerpt quoted from Peabody's prepared text:

"Men of principle — teachers, professors, editorialists and the like—should not retreat a bit in their own statements of principle.

"They do not need to imitate the politicians who sometimes must compromise. Some one must set the standards of public life clearly, explicitly, uncompromisingly. But along with this I would beg some understanding for those in office who are trying to unlock the complicated machinery of government, who must work with many persons with many different motivations, who must sometimes advance by inches when they would much rather advance by miles and leagues."

The thought Peabody may have been striving to convey is that the Legislature is made up of men and women representing areas which have different views and conflicting interests and that a Governor must work out some compromise with them in order to achieve what progress he can since government, in fact, is the art of compromise.

If that was what Peabody was trying to say, he said it in pretty fuzzy fashion.

A legislator, who fights to give his city a veto power over the route of a proposed State highway to be built through it may be open to the charge of adopting a provincial position contrary to the greater good. But that doesn't mean he has abandoned his principles.

An ironical sidelight to Peabody's talk on principles and politics is that he has used the power of patronage to achieve his purposes just as has every Governor before him.

Miss Franks - Mr. Thalheimer Wed; To Live In Philadelphia

A trip to the Virgin Islands followed the marriage of Miss Joan Susan Franks to John Martin Thalheimer, which took place recently at the Hotel Somerset in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Franks of 60 Beacon street, Chestnut Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Thalheimer of Philadelphia, Pa., are the couple's parents.

The bride chose a gown made of pure silk taffeta marked with re-embroidered Alencon lace. The fitted bodice had a scoop neckline and elbow-length sleeves. The full skirt terminated in a court train.

A becoming jeweled crown was fastened with her elbow-length bouffant illusion veil. She carried her Bible with phalaenopsis orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Nancy L. Franks was her sister's honor maid. Mrs. Sylvia Shenk was matron of honor, while Miss Laura Stonberg was her cousin's junior bridesmaid.

The best man was Jay Wechsler of Philadelphia. Ushers were Donald Spitzer, Ralph Beren, Hank Thalheimer and Jeffrey Stonberg, all of Philadelphia, Pa.

The couple plan to make their home in Philadelphia.

The bride was graduated from Beaver Country Day School and Jackson College.

Mr. Thalheimer is a graduate of Lehigh University.

MRS. J. M. THALHEIMER

Anthony Gentile And Bride Making Home In Newton

Two rings were exchanged at the recent marriage of Miss Elvira A. Gabrielli and Anthony J. Gentile, which took place at Our Lady Help of Christians Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alebt Gabrielli of Italy. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Anita Gentile of 28 Lincoln road, Newton.

Following the 2 o'clock doubling afternoon ceremony, there was a reception at the Greek Community Center in Watertown.

To Introduce New Course In Figure Control

Mrs. Rima Gurvitz of Newton will introduce and teach a course in Eurhythmics for women, a technique of creative exercises done to music poolside in a countryclub atmosphere in Chestnut Hill beginning Tuesday, November 19, at 10 a.m.

Eurhythmics is an original technique that slims and enhances the figure through movement to music. It also encourages and develops individual creative expression.

It was evolved from the field of ballet and modern dancing fields with which Mrs. Gurvitz is well acquainted.

Infant Tidings

Recent births at Newton-Wellesley Hospital include the following:

Oct. 30—To Mr. and Mrs. Fritz A. Hampe, 191 Auburn St., Auburndale, a girl. To Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lynch Jr., 67 Cherry Pl., West Newton, a girl. To Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. O'Donnell, 48 Islington Rd., Newton Corner, a girl.

Nov. 4—To Mr. and Mrs. James M. Touhey, 167 Langley Rd., Newton Centre, a girl.

Nov. 5—To Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Collatz, 8 Roberts Rd., Wellesley, a girl. To Mr. and Mrs. Milton R. Graham, 18 Oakencroft Rd., Wellesley, a boy.

Nov. 6—To Mr. and Mrs. Edwin E. Bastoni, 36 Roslyn Rd., Waban, a boy. To Mr. and Mrs. Fernando Sastilio, 1234 Boulston St., Chestnut Hill, a girl.

father, the bride had Mrs. Victoria Santucci of Framingham as matron of honor. Miss Elsie Wormwood, Miss Joan Whyte and Miss Lorraine Barbato, all of Watertown, as well as Miss Ann Beatrice and Miss Theresa Gentile, both of Newton, were the bridesmaids.

Joseph Cucchi of Newton served as best man. The ushers were Daniel Gentile Jr. of Newton, Larry Antonellis of Watertown, Albert Passerini of Needham, Daniel Gentile of Watertown and Walter Santucci of Framingham.

Washington, D.C., was the honeymoon destination of the couple, who are now living in Newton.

The bride is a graduate of Watertown High School and the Cambridge School of Business.

Mr. Gentile was graduated from Newton High School and the University of Massachusetts, class of 1963, where his fraternity was Alpha Tau Gamma.

Reyim Pageant By Sisterhood

A live person-to-person television technique will be used at a Chanukah pageant to be presented by Temple Reyim's Sisterhood on Wednesday, Nov. 20, at 8:15 p.m. in the Social Hall, 1860 Washington St., Auburndale.

Members of the pageant's cast include Mrs. Charles Shapiro, Mrs. Irving Berman, Mrs. David Lintz, Mr. Erwin Greenberg, Mr. Harold Shapiro and Mrs. Murray Yogel.

Chairman of the program committee is Mrs. Nathan Seltzer. Committee members are Mrs. Charles Shapiro, Mrs. Samuel Aronson, Mrs. Norman Rich, Mrs. Daniel Lintz, Mrs. Gene Dennis and Mrs. Harold Segal.

Hospitality chairman is Mrs. Morton Levine. Presiding at the meeting will be Mrs. Gilbert Salk, president of the Sisterhood.

Pretty Fall Wedding Unites Miss Boudrot And Mr. Webb

A pretty fall wedding was that of Miss Janet Marie Boudrot, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred J. Boudrot of 20 Shawmut park, Newton, to Mr. Ray Allen Webb, Jr., son of Mrs. Anton Secheyco of 77 Nardone road, and the late Mr. Ray Allen Webb.

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Church, Newton, was the scene of the recent 11 o'clock nuptial mass and double ring ceremony, which was followed by a reception in Hillcrest Hall, Waltham. Rev. Daniel F. Riordan was the officiating clergyman.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white peau de soie fashioned with a fitted bodice, a high boat neckline, three-quarter length sleeves, and a chapel train. The flat front bell skirt had side scissors pleats and tiny bows opening out into re-embroidered Alencon lace appliques trimmed with seed pearls.

Her bouffant veil of imported silk illusion was caught to a tiny pillbox headpiece of Alencon lace, and she carried a bouquet of white flowers.

Mrs. Jeanne Robitaille of Clinton was the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Alanna Manning and Miss Beverly Hay, both of Needham; Miss JoAnn Turcotte of Newton, as well as Miss Jane Feeley of Waltham, cousin of the bride.

Serving as best man for his brother was Mr. Richard Webb of Needham. Ushers included Mr. Steven Borgeson, Mr. Joseph Gustowski and the bride's brother, Mr. Wilfred J. Boudrot, Jr., all of Newton, as well as Mr. Robert MacWilliams of New Jersey.

General Boudrot, another brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

After a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, the couple will live at 57 Horseshoe drive, Bellingham.

The annual Book Fair of the Peirce School PTA opened on Tuesday and will continue through tomorrow, Friday, November 15.

The fair will be open today, Thursday, from 8:30 a. m. to 12 noon and from 1:30 to 4:30 p. m. Tomorrow, Friday, the hours are from 8:30 a. m. to 12 noon and from 1:30 to 3:30 p. m. Proceeds help support the school library.

Many current titles are available, it has been announced by co-chairmen, Mrs. Jack Silverberg, and Mrs. Joe Yanofsky, and any book now in print at major publishing houses may be ordered through the Fair.

Mrs. Silverberg, in a recent statement said, "We hope all Peirce parents will buy their holiday gift books through the Peirce Book Fair and benefit the Peirce library while getting the benefit of their discount."

Mrs. Silverberg added that it is anticipated that books ordered at the Fair will be delivered in time for Christmas. She said that proceeds of book fairs in recent years have enabled the school library to add many titles to its shelves, purchase books for special reading programs, and add a complete card index to the library.

Maynard Church Is Scene Of Atwood-Steele Bridal

In St. George's Episcopal Church, Maynard, recently, Mrs. Anne K. Steele of Boxborough and Carleton E. Atwood of 50 Highland avenue, Newtonville, exchanged marriage vows.

The Rev. Richard E. Taylor performed the 3 o'clock afternoon service. He was assisted by the Rev. Wilbur J. Kingwill. A reception was held in the church vestry.

The bride chose a beige guilteed silk street-length frock. She carried a white prayer book.

Mrs. Thomas Steele of Boxborough, sister-in-law of the bride, was her sole attendant.

Parents Back To School At Weeks Jr. High

When the bell rang at 7:45 p.m. yesterday at the John Weeks Junior High School, all parents were in their seats and ready to start their first class.

It was the popular "Back to School Night" when parents follow the schedule of their child's program and stay in each class about ten minutes. In this way they are able to meet the teachers and learn something about the courses of study.

The parents of the seventh grade students reported to the auditorium at 7:30 p.m. where they heard a talk given by the principal, Mr. Slyva, and where they were introduced to members of the administrative staff.

The student members of the Week's Council were most helpful in directing parents to the correct location of their next class so that no one needed a "late slip". Following the dismissal bell, every one adjourned to the school cafeteria where refreshments served by the P.T.A. hospitality committee under the chairmanship of Mrs. Edmund Yaffee and Mrs. Irving Derdak.

There they show Harry James in a TV commercial. He doesn't blow a hole in a tissue covering the bell of his trumpet, and something tells us that Harry isn't half trying. But that isn't the story at all. Most good trumpet players don't blow too much anyway. Mostly it's done with the tongue — like triple-tonguing. There's very little lung power involved.
How well we remember the bold, soaring tones of Harry James on "A Sinner Kissed An Angel," and "Sleepy Lagoon," and all the others that even today are sheer joy and ecstasy! Harry, Harry . . . that you've come to this!
In advertising, there has never been a good substitute for honesty, for truth, for unvarnished statements of fact. And — despite our fanciful flights of descriptive imagery — we keep this column honest. Nor none more so than last week's essay on a wonderful, honest-to-golly coat event.
Where in the whole wide world, except at Jacques, can a man buy a $45 coat that's believable in every detail and stitch, and yet pay only $22.50? Oh, there is the hitch that one had to have earlier bought, or must now buy, $50 worth of marvelous merchandise from Jacques.
But it was all spelled out in honest, forthright terms. For Jacques puts its reputation right on the line with every statement it makes, and with every coat or button it sells. Value and veracity — there's nothing that can beat that combination.
MEMO TO THE LADIES: What a terrific Christmas gift the Jacques' town-and-casual coat would make for only $22.50! Wowee!!

Do you think the truth makes good reading?
So do we.
It's awfully easy, in editing a newspaper in 1963, to forget the main purpose of a newspaper: presenting the news. The temptation is great to substitute whoop-la for facts, and opinions for reporting. The Globe, we believe, manages to avoid that temptation. We make it a point to present both sides of all the important issues of the day — segregation, state constitutional reform, politics, international affairs — and to present them — in depth — without bias. That's why so many people are switching to The Globe. It'll give you a new outlook — a more balanced outlook — on what's happening in the world today. Try The Globe, at any newsstand, or home-delivered (just phone Avenue The Boston Globe 8-8000). Get both sides: get The Globe. PUTS THE WORLD AT YOUR FINGERTIPS

Emmanuel Alumnae Open Yuletide Festival Today

Lively enthusiasm has been generated among local Emmanuel College graduates in the upcoming Emmanuel Festival of Christmas scheduled to open today November 14th to run through the 16th at the college, 400 The Fenway. Although this event is the major fund-raising activity of the year, its primary purpose is to foster the development of fine living and enrich the traditions of Christmas through the presentation of little-known holiday customs of many lands.

The goal this year is $10,000. The public is invited to attend and also learn at first hand the growth of modern Emmanuel and the changes in its curriculum to meet today's challenges.

Alumnae, students and faculty have conducted their talents and skills in a varied program supervised by Mrs. Henry W. Lundquist of Auburndale, festival chairman assisted by Mrs. George Pink of Newton, chairman of workshop production and Miss Elizabeth O'Hearn of West Roxbury, alumnae president. Mrs. Philip Manson of Newton is chairman of the Doll House booth for the second consecutive year. High styles in doll fashions, puppets and even a cooperative where juvenile craftsmen and artists will sell their own creations will be features of this exhibit. Among Newton graduates helping with plans are Mrs. Robert Bonner, Mrs. Gerald V. May, Mrs. Robert Barry, Mrs. William Clancy, Mrs. Constantine Akstens, Mrs. John Anderson and Mrs. Thomas Lawton.

The three day extravaganza starts today Thursday at 7 p.m. with the opening of Candlelight Lounge. Coffee and dessert to be served by grads' teen-age daughters will be followed by a musical in the college gymnasium.

For the punctual holiday shopper, an array of charming shops will offer varied items of intrinsic value—from books to original etchings to bibelots. At the Stardust will be found all types of unusual ornaments, decorations and candles—the majority handmade by fine arts graduates and students. Miss Elizabeth Strain of Brookline and Mary Walsh of Roslindale share this responsibility.

Rest and restaurant areas will also accent the international. The Sidewalk Cafe will offer fine continental pastries and the Swedish Kitchen will specialize in home-baked goodies. The latter spot will be decorated with fine handwoven table cloth, the Swedish Ave Maria symbol and the Lord's Prayer engraved in Swedish—all accentuating the festival theme—the combination of fine arts with fine living.

hibits will recreate the features and characters of the holiday classic—from Eugene Field's sugar plum tree to Dickens' well-known personalities. For the international-minded a series of displays staffed by alumnae in native costume will demonstrate their country's contribution to culture and interpret their particular Yuletide customs.

From the world of high fashion will come elegant accessories for the Gold Coast Shop. The Boutique will offer the unusual in home and personal novelties while assorted gifts will be found in the Pot Pourri shop.

Typical of the holiday season are the fragrant evergreens, pine cones and varied natural arrangements to be found in the Gardener's Cottage conducted by Mrs. Robert Geller of Scituate.

George R. Glending is director of the production. Mr. and Mrs. Jed W. Bullen, II, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Blakeslee are co-chairmen.

The cast includes Mrs. James L. Richards, Mrs. William H. Raye, Jr., Mrs. Robert Brandt, Jed W. Bullen, II, Roderic E. Hall, Robert Brandt, George Clark, Steven Clark and Raymond Richards.

The production staff includes Scott Foster, stage manager, assisted by Robert Blakeslee, Jed W. Bullen, II,

Why we drove each of these '64 Comets day and night for 100,000 miles at over 105 miles per hour

The new historic Comet Durability Run at Daytona, Florida, was the toughest challenge to stamina a new car ever faced. The nearest comparable high-speed, long-distance run was for 50,000 miles. The Comet test was for 100,000 miles.

The purpose? To test the stamina of a team of special '64 Comets . . . to find out how much punishment they could be made to take—on body, axle, suspension, transmission, and engine.

The results? All four Comets—specially equipped and prepared for high-speed driving—completed 100,000 miles. Each averaged over 105 miles per hour including pit-stop time for refueling, tire change, and maintenance. After their 100,000-mile ordeal, all four Comets were still going strong! No cars have ever demonstrated their stamina and staying power so convincingly as these Comets.

Trip To Canada Followed Gordon-Chesarone Wedding

Canada is the honeymoon destination of Mr. and Mrs. John Rockwood Gordon (Felice Chesarone) who exchanged marriage vows here recently at St. Philip Neri Church in Waban.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip J. Chesarone of 20 Wyman street, Waban and Humarock, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gordon of Winchester are the couple's parents.

The Rt. Rev. John L. Parson celebrated the 10 o'clock nuptial mass, performed the double-ring ceremony and read the Papal Blessing.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride's traditional white brocade gown had a fitted bodice, elbow-length sleeves and a full skirt, entraine.

A petal cap was fastened with her illusion veil. She carried her prayer book with a cascade of Eucharis lilies and stephanotis.

Miss Janice Gordon, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids included Miss Theresa Aiello and Miss Lorraine Franco, cousin of the bride.

Serving as best man was Vincent Chesarone, brother of the bride. Ushering were Allan Chesarone, another brother of the bride, David Schumacher, Thomas Moran and George Peterson.

A reception was held at Monticello's in Framingham. Mr. Gordon and his bride will live at 5 Tappan street, Melrose.

Our Lady's Can Be Champs With Win Next Sunday

Our Lady's High School encountered little trouble in a 20-6 football win over St. Columbkille's of Brighton at Murray Park Sunday, and the victory attained at least a tie for their second straight Catholic Suburban League title.

The win brought to 11 Our Lady's string of games without a loss. The Lancers' game next Sunday against St. Patrick's on home grounds will settle the league championship for 1963.

The foe's lone touchdown last Sunday was the first scored against Our Lady's this year.

Said Coach Jim Sullivan, "I'm glad they scored on us, because I know St. Patrick's will score. It will be a question of who scores the most, and it will take a 100 percent effort to beat St. Patrick's."

Chapter Of AJC Meets Nov. 20

Newton-Chestnut Hill Chapter, American Jewish Congress, will meet on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 20, at 12:30 in the home of Mrs. Henry Rosenzweig, 40 Royce Rd., Newton Centre. A petit luncheon will be served.

Guest speakers will include Mrs. Eugene Schwab, lecturer and world traveler, who will review a current best seller, and Mrs. Selma Stenberg, coordinator of public relations for Newton Junior College, who will speak on the growth of that institution.

Mrs. Manuel Brackman, president, will preside. Mrs. Maurice A. Stoller will offer the invocation. Hostess of the afternoon will be Mrs. Harry Fisher. Serving on the hospitality committee are Mrs. Irving Mishara, Mrs. E. Louis Friederman and Mrs. Arthur Williams.

The meeting is open to members and their guests.

Compass Club To Fill Thanksgiving Baskets

Members of the Compass Club of Newton have been asked to bring groceries for Thanksgiving baskets destined for needy families to the meeting tomorrow (Friday) at 1:15 p.m., in the Newton Highlands Workshop.

Mrs. Leo F. Baldwin and Mrs. Paul W. Robey will serve as co-hostesses.

Victory

While the Tigers should have too much strength for Waltham this Saturday, they will be engaging the Crimson when Waltham is red hot after breaking a 10-game losing skein with a tremendous 20-18 upset triumph over Brockton which earlier in the fall conquered Newton 6-0.

Newton will have its hands full Saturday if Waltham plays the kind of game it did against Brockton. But on the basis of their last four games the Tigers are a solid choice over the neighboring Walthamites.

It will be the final contest for Newton High before it meets Brookline in the traditional Thanksgiving Day classic.

Quarterback Ken O'Connell was the hero of Newton's victory over Beverly in the rain at Dickinson Stadium Monday.

O'Connell, who gained 90 yards in 15 carries—an average of six yards per rush—passed three yards to Marty O'Gorman for one touchdown, scored the second touchdown himself on a plunge from the two-yard line and passed to Sam Rosenberg for a two-point conversion.

While O'Connell was helping to give Newton the scoring punch it needed, the sturdy Tiger line was holding the explosive Beverly team in check.

Roger Watson, Dick Evans, Steve Woodruff, Dave Bliss, Pete Shattuck and Frank Grant all were outstanding on defense for Newton. Woodruff halted one Beverly drive late in the game by intercepting a pass on his own two-yard line.

Coach Ronayne, delighted with the showing of his pupils, declined to single out any of the game's stars and said the Tiger victory resulted from "a great team effort."

For the second time this autumn time ran out on Newton South's Lions as they stood on the threshold of victory.

With Newton South on the Rindge Tech one-yard line and preparing for the play that might have produced a touchdown, the game ended with Rindge on the long end of a 12-8 score.

In the opening game of the season Newton South was on Fitchburg High's one-foot line as the clock ran out giving Fitchburg an 8-6 win.

Only inches and seconds have prevented this game Newton South club from boasting an unbeaten record.

But it's the score that counts, and the disappointed Lions are recovering from their second setback of the season in a game they could have won if they had capitalized on their opportunities.

South led Rindge 8-0 at half time. Mark Young provided the big break for the Lions when he blocked a Rindge punt in the second quarter. A few plays later, quarterback Ted Clarke plunged over from the one-yard line for the touchdown, and Chuck Spear bulleted across the goal line for the two-point conversion.

Rindge scored both its touchdowns in the third period.

Coach George Winkler was disappointed but philosophical about the upset defeat.

"We couldn't have come any closer," he said. "We just had one bad quarter. They have a big, fast team. It was just one of those days. We have nothing to be ashamed of."

It should be a different story next Saturday when the Lions

Temple Emanuel Bat Mitzvahs Lead To Award

Temple Emanuel of Newton will have its first combined Bat Mitzvah Party of the season on Saturday evening, Nov. 16, beginning at 7:30 in the Community Hall, 385 Ward St., Newton Centre.

The Jerry Davis Orchestra will play for the party honoring the following girls: Diane Axelrod, Glenna Carpenter, Linda Gershman, Marlene Lerish and Betty Spigel.

The temple held its first combined Bat Mitzvah Party last March, and 10 girls participated. It was because of that party's success and favorable response from parents and children that a program of regular monthly parties has been established. A number of temples in the country have followed Temple Emanuel's example.

Purpose of the parties is to provide well-supervised affairs at a reasonable cost and to eliminate the pressures and late hours of numerous social activities in the community.

Initiation of the combined Bat Mitzvah parties contributed immeasurably to Temple Emanuel's winning of the Solomon Schechter Award for the best youth program in the country. It will be awarded at the United Synagogue of America Golden Jubilee Convention at the Concord Hotel Nov. 17 to 21.

Mrs. Leo Tarutz is chairman of the parties, and is assisted by Chester Rubin, youth activities director. Rabbi Albert I. Gordon is the temple's spiritual leader.

Breakfast For Church Children And Parents

There will be a "Harvest Breakfast" for parents and children of the church school, First Unitarian Church, West Newton, in the Parish Hall Sunday, Nov. 17.

Designed to help the parents to become better acquainted with the school program, the breakfast will begin at 9 a.m., and teachers will be available to discuss the curriculum with the parents.

Dr. Dorothy Spoerl, director of education for the American Unitarian-Universalist Association and editor of the Beacon Curriculum, will speak after the breakfast at 10. A question period will follow.

Sponsored by the Religious Education Committee of the Church, the program is under the direction of Harry B. Taplin, director and Mrs. Arthur S. Laughland, assistant director of Religious Education.

The breakfast itself will be in charge of Mrs. Robert E. Tonks, 471 Heath St., Chestnut Hill, and High School members of the Church will assist in the preparation and serving.

Earl D. Mullare, 227 Islington Rd., Auburndale, is a member of the committee preparing for a father-daughter weekend at Salve Regina College, Newport, R. I.

First approved by the State board of directors last year, the firm's aid-to-higher education program has, since its inception, distributed $1,400,000 to private colleges and universities across the country, Wilson said.

During the same two-year period in which the Sears aid-to-higher education program has been in effect, an additional $1,300,000 has been given to institutions of higher learning by The Sears-Roebuck Foundation, the non-profit corporation endowed by Sears to carry on charitable, scientific and educational programs.

Flaschner Says Aldermen Goofed On Mayor Raise

Alderman Franklin N. Flaschner declared yesterday that the members of the Board of Aldermen "goofed" in wording the Mayor's pay raise so that the voters did not thoroughly understand it. (A proposal that the salary of the Mayor be increased from $15,000 to $20,000 a year was turned down by a 507 margin in last week's election.) Flaschner attributed this to the poor wording of the question.

Flaschner contended that Newton cannot afford to pay its Mayor "as little as $15,000 a year." He raised the question as to whether the Board of Aldermen should not increase the Mayor's salary without referendum approval in view of all the circumstances. The Aldermen have the authority to do this under a new law.

Science Subject For Next Sunday

"In the way of righteousness is life; and in the pathway thereof there is no death," is the passage from Proverbs (12:28) that will be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday, Nov. 17. The subject of the Bible lesson will be "Mortals and Immortals."

These lines from the Christian Science textbook will also be included: "It is only by acknowledging the supremacy of Spirit, which annuls the claims of matter, that mortals can lay off mortality and find the indissoluble spiritual link which establishes man forever in the divine likeness, inseparable from his creator" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, p. 491).

Rep. Koplow At Elohim Temple

Mrs. Freyda Koplow, assistant Republican floor leader in the Massachusetts House of Representatives, will speak on "The Responsibility of Women in Politics" during the second coffee discussion of the Sisterhood Adult Education Series on "The Modern Jewish Woman in Today's Complex Society" at Temple Beth Elohim, Wellesley, on Tuesday, Nov. 19 at 9:30 a.m.

The Temple and its Sisterhood are sponsoring a gala Harvest Dance at the temple on Saturday, Nov. 16.

Waban Women In Music Program

Members of the Waban Woman's Club will take part in a special musical program at the Waban Neighborhood Club on Monday, Nov. 18.

Mrs. L. James Nagy, chairman of the Music Committee, will play the violin in the Mendelssohn Trio #1. Three songs written by her will be presented by Dolores Baldyga, accompanied by Dana Lordly. A group of contralto songs will be given by Mrs. Ernest C. Shimmer, and Mrs. Ralph I. Schoonmaker will be at the piano.

The usual business meeting, presided over by the president, Mrs. Alex Miller, will precede the program.

Another Racial Justice Panel In Auburndale

The Adult Education Committee of Auburndale Congregational Church will present "Techniques to Gain Equal Rights," third in a series of panel discussions on racial justice, on Wednesday evening, Nov. 20.

Panelists will include Mrs. Helen Kistin, economist, chairman of the Housing Advisory Commission of Massachusetts and a member of the steering committee of the Newton Fair Housing and Equal Rights Committee; Peter Filene, Harvard graduate student and an active member of the Congress on Racial Equality; Archie Epps, Harvard graduate student, Boston co-ordinator for the March on Washington, and an active member of NAACP; and Attorney Richard Banks, first vice president of the Boston NAACP, and secretary to the governor for inter-group affairs.

The program will begin at 8 p.m. in the assembly room of the church's parish hall, Hancock St. and Woodland Rd., Auburndale. The public is invited.

Public Works Engineer

The name of Carlisle N. Levine of 1921 Commonwealth Ave., Auburndale, has been placed on a civil service alphabetical list of 26 men eligible for promotion to the grade of District Highway Engineer in the State Department of Public Works.

Mental Health In Children Will Provide Talks

Speakers who will explain the aims of Action for Mental Health in Children will be furnished to any interested group in Newton, it was announced by Kenneth Huberman, chairman of the AMHC Newton Chapter.

A movement underway, establishment of a Newton Child Guidance Center, sponsored by AMHC, has been endorsed by city and school officials here.

Programs will be tailored to fit the needs of individual groups. They include: panel discussions, lectures by psychiatrists, audience participation programs, and dramatic presentations. Special programs will be arranged for informal coffee hours.

Requests for speakers may be made by calling Dr. Rubin Margolin, 244-9297, or Dr. John Fielden, 527-5343, co-chairmen of the Education Committee of AMHC.

Dr. Margolin is director of research on rehabilitation at Northeastern University; Dr. Fielden is the editor of the Harvard Business Review.

School Board Okay For Day, Bigelow Plans

Members of the School Committee at their meeting Tuesday night approved educational specifications for the rehabilitation of the Bigelow and Day Junior High Schools.

In another action the School Board fired a junior custodian who previously had been suspended on five charges, one of them drunkenness.

Schaal Superintendent Charles Brown reported to the Board that in 1964, for the first time in many years, it will not be necessary to provide funds in the school budget for the appointment of elementary teachers.

However, Brown said the school department should increase the number of guidance counsellors and person-

Highland Glee Club Gets Ready for December Event

Regular Monday night rehearsals are being held by the Highland Glee Club of Newton in preparation for their winter concert on Tuesday evening December 10th.

Nine new singing members have been added to the club's 1963-64 membership roster. They are:

The Reverend Robert J. Harding, 40 Foster St., Newtonville, pastor of the Central Congregational Church, Newtonville;

F. Otis Drayton, 16 Irving St., Watertown, president emeritus of the Handel and Haydn Society of Boston, vice president of the Apollo Club of Boston, and a graduate of the New England Conservatory; J. Harold Crosby, 353 Lowell Avenue, Newtonville, senior clerk interviewer, Massachusetts Division of Employment Security, Newton; Stoddard Jenney, 78 Summer St., Weston, design engineer, W. H. Nichols Co., Waltham; Walter R. Jennings, 189 Parmenter Rd., W. Newton, of the Henry L. Owens, Inc., Cambridge; John L. Rich, 95 Warren St., Newton Centre, office manager, T. R. G. Inc., (electronics) East Boston; Edward B. Smith, 483 Franklin St., Reading, Mass., First National Bank of Boston; Donald W. Stowbridge, 33 Pond Brook Circle, Weston, Unit Head of Stop & Shop Inc., 393 D Street, Boston; Kenneth B. Weisner, 57 Wallace St., Newton Highlands, consulting engineer, Wm. J. LeMessurier & Associates, Inc., 711 Boylston St., Boston.

George F. Brewer, 1090 Walnut St., Newton Highlands, is president of the Highland Glee Club, and Dr. Homer Whitford, 43 Barnard Rd., Belmont is the director.

Patriots In Win Over R.I. Champs

The Newton Patriots played an intersectional Pop Warner football game Sunday at Coventry, R.I., that turned out to be as exciting as any the local team has played. They won, 16-8, giving the Coventry Cardinals, Rhode Island champs, their first defeat of the season.

Vote

The latter maneuver was intended to prevent the anti-fluoridationists from calling off the recount before its completion if a shift of votes should put their side in the lead.

The pro-fluoridationists prevailed in the Nov. 5 election by a margin of 895 votes. The vote was 13,884 in favor of fluoridation and 12,989 against it.

An 895-vote margin in a city-wide election is usually considered large enough to withstand any mistakes which may have occurred during the counting of the ballots on election night.

However, the groups opposing fluoridation believe the results were close enough to warrant a retabulation and recount.

With Attorney McGuire likely to challenge many of the ballots if the pencil crosses do not appear exactly where they should be, the fluoridation recount may last more than one day.

BENEFIT DINNER FOR RETARDED — Key figures in planning ticket sales for 1963 Crusade Dinner for Greater Boston Association for Retarded Children, are, left to right: Attorney Victor Bynoe, Mrs. David Lilly, of Newton, dinner co-chairman, and Paul Caplan of Newton. Dinner will be held Sunday evening, Nov. 24 at Boston's Statler-Hilton Hotel, and will be attended by more than 1200 civic leaders.

Woman Voters League In Unit UN Discussions

A discussion unit on the United Nations will be conducted by the League of Women Voters of Newton on Nov. 19, 20 and 21.

Under discussion will be how the test ban treaty fits into the general disarmament conferences sponsored by the UN at Geneva, the difference between arms control and disarmament, the role of the United Nations in reducing the risks of war. Disarmament has been of particular interest to the Newton League members.

The study group comprises Mrs. Louis Orszak, chairman; Mrs. F. Dow Smith, vice chairman, and Mrs. Joseph Applebaum, Mrs. Roy Lapidus, Mrs. Lawrence Rubin, Mrs. Ronald Weinfield and Mrs. Robert Wofsey.

Unit meetings will be held as follows:

Tuesday, Nov. 19, at 8 p.m., home of Mrs. Lloyd Williams, 30 Jacobs Ter., (off Hartman Rd.) Newton Centre.

Wednesday, Nov. 20, at 9:45 a.m., Newtonville Library (Highland Ave. entrance), At 1:15 p.m., home of Mrs. Ernest Picard, 14 Halcyon Rd., (off Parker St.) At 8 p.m., home of Mrs. Michael J. Ambrosino, 566 Centre St., Newton.

Thursday, Nov. 21, 9:45 a.m., Newton Highlands Workshop, 72 Columbus St., Mrs. John W. Locke, hostess. At 9:45 a.m., home of Mrs. Albert R. Reisel Jr., 25 Sewall St., (off Prince St.) West Newton. At 8 p.m., home of Mrs. Robert L. Sandman, 72 Fairlee Rd., (off Woodward St.) Waban.

Plan Pee Wee Hockey League

Newton's Pee Wee hockey program will start on Saturday, Dec. 7, at St. Sebastian's Rink on Hood St., Newton, it was announced this week by the city's recreation department.

Sessions will be held each Saturday from 10 a.m. until noon and will continue through Saturday, Feb. 22. The program will be open to boys 10, 11 and 12 years old.

Teams will be organized, and league games will be played each week.

Registration blanks may be obtained by parents at the recreation department office in City Hall between 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. on any business day from Monday through Friday.

Parents are urged to return the registration blanks to the recreation department as soon as possible to assure there will be places in the program for their sons since the enrollment will be limited.

Friday, Nov. 29, is the final date for registering youngsters for the Pee Wee hockey league.

Open House At Franklin School

Parents will have an opportunity to meet with teachers and learn of their children's progress during an open house at Franklin School, Tuesday, Nov. 19, at 7:30 p.m.

There will be a special display in the main lobby and school library of the hobby handiwork of Franklin School parents. Refreshments will be served in the auditorium.

Dartmouth Club To Hear Local Expert On Rugs

The Dartmouth Women's Club, which has a number of Newton residents as members, will hear a Newton Lower Falls rug merchant, Arthur T. Gregorian, in an illustrated talk on "Arts and Crafts of Persia" at the regular monthly meeting in Hotel Vendome, Boston, on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 20, at 1:15.

Mr. Gregorian is author of a book "Oriental Rugs and the Stories They Tell."

Chairman of the reception committee is Mrs. Clarence M. Logan, 45 Orchard Ave., Waban, a past president of the club. Another past president is Mrs. William A. Stratton of 118 Winchester St., Newton Highlands. Mrs. William C. Mattox, 9 Charlesbank Rd., Newton, is a charter member; Mrs. Edmund Miller, 161 Forest Ave., West Newton, is assistant treasurer, and Mrs. William H. McCabe Sr., 2061 Commonwealth Ave., Auburndale, is vice chairman of the Hospitality Committee.

Schwartz Is President Of Athletic Assoc.

The Newton Highlands Athletic Association has elected Daniel Schwartz of 39 Selwyn Road as president of the organization for the 1963-1964 term.

Other officers chosen at the recent October meeting were Edward Cain, vice president and commissioner of basketball; Morton Gendelman, corresponding secretary; Sidney Shadovitz, recording secretary and historian; Robert Wyner, treasurer and commissioner of baseball; and Thomas Moore, director of fund-raising.

The organization recently sponsored its second annual awards banquet at Valle's Steak House in Newton, at which trophies were presented to members of the winning teams in the basketball and Little League competition sponsored by the Newton Highlands Athletic Association.

President Schwartz announced that the organization will launch its annual membership drive during November and urged all parents of Newton Highlands boys and girls to enroll in the Athletic Association.

Meetings are conducted on the first Tuesday of every month in the community hall of the New England Advertising Company, Lincoln St., Newton Highlands.

Dr. Beisel To Be In Church Pulpit

Dr. Albert Beisel of 25 Sewall St., West Newton, will speak in the First Parish Unitarian Church of Bedford on Sunday, Nov. 17, when lay people take over the pulpits of many Eastern Massachusetts churches as a part of an observance of Association Sunday, held by the Massachusetts Bay District of Universalist Churches.

aged at the City Infirmary, and St. Paul's Home for the Blind.

In recent years money raised by the committee has helped relieve many weary hours for youngsters confined to the Peabody Home for Crippled Children.

In addition to this, the Elks committee has aided local Little League groups, the Babe Ruth League, Boy Scouts and numerous other worth-while causes. Tickets will be available at the door Sunday night from leading Newton merchants, or by calling Newton Lodge of Elks at LA 9-9440.

War Dead Are Honored Here On Vet's Day

Veterans Service Commissioner Carleton Merrill represented Mayor Donald L. Gibbs at the city's Veterans' Day service honoring the dead of all wars in the Hall of Flags of the War Memorial Building.

The Rev. Wilbur J. King, will, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, gave the invocation.

The observance was under sponsorship of Newton Post 48, American Legion, and representatives from other veterans' organizations participated. They included Garden City Chapter, Widows of World War I, Mrs. Viola M. Jepson, president; Newton Gold Star Mothers, Mrs. Etta Haverty, president; United Spanish War Veterans, Elmer King, commander; Carlson Post, A. L., Paul McGrath, past commander; Newton Women's Post, Betty Cunningham, commander, and Nonantum Post, A. L., Michael J. Riccio, adjutant.

Norman Mitchell, retired Veterans Service officer, also attended.

The Madrigal Singers of Newton High School, under the direction of Miss Geraldine Seaver, provided the music, and Michael J. Riccio, Jr., Newton High student, sounded Taps. General chairman was James A. Walker, senior vice commander of Post 48.

Local Professor At Williamston

Prof. Harvey Cox of Andover Newton Theological School, an ordained Baptist minister, was one of the 10 New England members of the clergy who went to Williamston, S.C., last Tuesday to participate in civil rights demonstrations.

A resident of 73 Herrick Rd., Newton Centre, he is scheduled to take part tomorrow (Friday) in a special Leadership Convocation at the theological school. He will be installed then as assistant professor of theology and culture, and will speak on "Motifs in Contemporary Theology."

Guest Day By Highlands Club

Newton Highlands Woman's Club will hold its annual Guest Day on Wednesday, Nov. 20.

Coffee and dessert will be served at 1 p.m., with the hostesses being Mrs. Arthur N. Hoggquist, Mrs. Fred J. Thompson and Mrs. Harry Walen Sr. A business session will follow, and then there will be a program by Richard Faust, concert tenor, and Helen Morrison Cruikshank, piano stylist.

Special guests will be Mrs. Joseph F. Leavitt, 12th district director, and Mrs. Alfred O. Weaver, president of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs.

The Art Committee, Mrs. Robert A. Cunningham, chairman, will present an exhibit of early American crafts, as a followup of the recent lecture on early American paintings and sculpture.

Can your child afford not to have a college education?

Advanced education does not miraculously confer health, wealth and wisdom. But it helps—as millions have learned.

U. S. Census statistics show the cost of college is returned many times over in extra earnings in later years. And this takes no account of the extra satisfactions college education can give.

One way to assure your children have the education best suited to their abilities is Metropolitan's Education-Estate Builder Plan. Planning for your children is not a thing to put off. It is never too soon to prepare for the costs of college. And the younger the child, the lower the premium.

Even if, when the policy matures, the money is not needed for education, each $1000 of the plan can be converted to $5000 of Limited Payment Life Insurance—a ready-made estate for your child.

That is why you should call your Metropolitan Representative now. Get the facts now. Give yourself as much time as possible to plan and prepare. It is your Metropolitan Man's duty to serve you and your family. Let him show you.

Why not call me for details — today?

High School Girls In Money-Raising Effort

The Raynace Society, composed of local high school girls, is currently engaged in planning a major fund raising event to be held early in the next year.

Through work days, fashion shows and much hard work and effort, the girls devote considerable time to raising money for the New England Kidney Disease Foundation.

The Foundation supports childhood kidney disease medical research and drug banks at the Children's, the Massachusetts General, and Boston Floating Hospitals.

Officers of the Raynace Society are: Dianne Leshay, Newton Centre, president; Sunny Lank, Newton Centre, vice president; Jerri Whitten, South Brookline, treasurer; corresponding secretary; and Helaine Cotton, Brighton, recording secretary.

The group, which has grown in three years from its charter membership of sixteen to over 75, has already contributed $1,850 to its cause and has set a goal of $2,000 next year. Plans are now being made for their gala third annual dance to be held on January 25, 1964, in the Bay State Room of the Statler-Hilton Hotel.

Philip Fine Scholarship

Friends and relatives of the late Philip Fine have set up a scholarship fund in his memory. It will be sent to the New England Academy (Lubavitz Yeshiva), in Roxbury. A daughter, Mrs. Rosalyn Sachs, is a Newton Centre resident.

"The Andover Newton of 1970" will be presented by a panel of four. Participating will be Prof. Gerald R. Cragg, chairman of the faculty library committee; Fred Denry, senior student and president of the Andover Newton Student Association; Miss Cynthia Brown, president of Chase House dormitory and secretary of the Student Association, and Albert O. Wilson, chairman of the trustees new buildings committee.

School President Herbert Gezork, Dean Roy Pearson, and Victor A. Lutnicki, seminary trustee, will take part in the evening program. "For a Learned Ministry in Today's World," the new Andover Newton sound color film will be shown.

Dr. Cox to be installed as a faculty member at Andover Newton although still in his early 30s is considered by many influential churchmen to be one of the most stimulating young theologians in America today.

He is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and Yale Divinity School, and received his Ph.D. from Harvard University this year.

As a staff member of the Division of Evangelism of the American Baptist Home Mission Societies, he spent three years at Andover Newton as a visiting lecturer in evangelism and carried on a nationwide speaking schedule.

Dr. Cox served as a consultant at the New Delhi assembly of the World Council of Churches in 1961. Last year in Berlin, he was an ecumenical worker at the Gossner Mission, where he taught theology to lay groups and maintained two-way communications between Christians of East and West Germany.

This fall, in addition to his seminary teaching, Dr. Cox led two lay schools of theology at Andover Newton and served as faculty advisor for the Blue Hill Protestant Center. He is a member of the editorial board of Christianity and Crisis and the Andover Newton Quarterly. He is now editing two book manuscripts.

Meadowbrook PTA Back To School Night

"Back-To-School Night" was the theme of the first meeting of the Meadowbrook Jr. High School P.T.A. Because of its extent and importance the program was divided into two nights, Nov. 13 and 20.

Parents will have an opportunity to visit classrooms, meet teachers, participate in discussion groups and be involved in current activities in the school. Announcements of other meetings, and programs will be made soon. Officers and committee chairmen are as follows:

School Representatives: Spaulding, Mrs. Murray Bernstein; Oak Hill, Dr. Irving Shaffer; Countryside, Mrs. Stanley Mervis; Memorial, Mrs. Philip Savage; Emerson, Mr. Ara Kazarian.

Committee Chairmen: Hal-lowne, Leonard Bluestein; School Store, Mrs. Alfred Maleson; Mrs. Morton Myerberg, and Mrs. Sidney Lewis.

Values and Recreation, Harold Asquith; Herb Freeman; Creative Arts, Mrs. Sidney Shuman; Publicity, Charles Levin; Health and Safety, Mrs. Charles Donnelly; Hospitality, Mrs. Louis Homonoff; Social Dancing, Mrs. Lawrence Lapidus; Room Mothers, Mrs. Beryl Masters; Adult Education, Mrs. Herb Freeman; Membership, Mrs. Jack Roberts.

Past Presidents serving as Advisers: James J. Morganthal and Joseph Oppenheim.

New Library Dedicated At Mt. Ida College

Hallden Library, gift of a Connecticut manufacturer whose niece attended Mt. Ida Junior College in 1948, was dedicated recently with ceremonies in which the faculty, student body and special guests joined.

An attractive new building on the Mt. Ida campus, it includes new offices for the librarians, tables and chairs for approximately 150 students, a separate periodical room, complete new shelving for books, separate study corals and individual conference rooms for faculty advisors.

Dr. Karl W. Hallden of Thomaston, Conn., president of the Hallden Machine Company there, a life trustee of Trinity College and a long-time benefactor of Mt. Ida, is the donor. His niece, whose attendance at the college aroused his interest in Mt. Ida, was Harriet M. Keller (now Mrs. A. G. Stocking of Waterbury, Conn.).

Commenting on the campus addition, Dr. F. Roy Carlson,

Dog Show To Be Held Next Week In Hub

German shepherd dogs, including those of the Boston Police Department's Canine Corps, will play prominent roles in the 51st Annual Eastern Dog Club Show and Obedience Trials to be held at the Commonwealth Armory, Boston, on Saturday and Sunday, November 23 and 24.

1962 winners in the show from this area, were an Otterhound, Jade of Adriucha, owned by Barbara B. Schiller, 122 Fessenden street, Newtonville, and a Cocker spaniel, Ch. Ru-Dan's Rusty Ruffles, owned by Miss Ruth A. Dolbier, 41 Richardson street, Newton.

Mt. Ida president, said, "We are indeed grateful for this most generous contribution to the academic life of our college. Not only is this an indication of faith in our school, but I believe it is also a sign of real concern with the future of the private junior college on the part of business leaders in this country."

NUF Church Has 3-Day Bazaar And Food Sale

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Church parishioners are having their annual bazaar and food sale on the following days:

Today, (Thursday) 7 to 9 p.m., tomorrow, (Friday) 1 to 9 p.m., and Saturday, Nov. 16, 10 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Winners of a TV set, hi-fi set and bicycles for a boy and a girl will be announced on Saturday evening.

Saturday will also be Children's Day, with movies, games, grabs and a Santa Claus. The latter will be on hand to hear all wishes of both youngsters and oldsters between 1 and 3 p.m.

Styrofoam Christmas balls will be on sale, and advance orders may be placed by calling Mrs. Barbara Vlass at LA 7-9058.

Pizza, soft drinks and other goodies will be available at the snack bar on Friday and Saturday.

Campfire Girls Voters Service

Camp Fire Girls who are members of the Yakawohki group and are fifth grade pupils at Beethoven School, Waban, took the responsibility for folding the Voters Guides that were distributed by the Newton League of Women Voters prior to the recent election.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Jordan Silin, the girls who took part in this important voters service project were: Amy Castaline, Susan Cohen, Alison Danis, Cathy Falk, Helene Frank, Nancy Marcus, Candy Meyerson, Amy Rosenblatt, Martha Sandman, and Gail Silin.

Harvard Glee Club Concert On December 1

The Temple Emanuel Brotherhood will present the Harvard Glee Club in a concert to be held at the Temple Community Hall, 385 Ward St., Newton Centre, on Sunday, December 1, at 8 p.m.

The guest soloist will be Cantor Gabriel Hochberg.

Youth

Jerome Grossman, past PTA Council president, suggested lengthening library hours, particularly into Sunday. Mrs. Barbara Kovar discussed lowering the age a child could receive adult library privileges to include the seventh grade student.

Mrs. Charles Ryan, PTA Council library coordinator, agreed, with the council's approval, to arrange a meeting with all the school library chairmen to further develop suggestions for the survey.

C. Robinson Fish spoke briefly on Medic Alert, a new program for emergency medical identification which he said was supported by all phases of the Newton community.

He declared that the schools are sending a letter to all parents through their children carrying the Medic Alert story. Application blanks for those interested are available at banks, drug stores and the Newton-Wellesley Hospital.

Mrs. Thomas Burnap reported on two recent school committee meetings. She stated it was decided that the cost of custodial service for five regular PTA meetings would be borne by the city.

Mrs. S. W. Hopengarten presented the new budget for 1963-64.

1100 Students At NHS Music Club Jazz Program

There were 1100 students in attendance at the recent Newton High School Music Club program at which Herb Pomerooy and his Jazz Sextet performed.

Members of the senior class were club guests.

Between numbers, a panel of three students asked the combo leader some controversial jazz questions. Panel members were Nick Farrell, Barbara Angel and Gretchen Bachrach.

The presentation was made through the courtesy of the Record and Transcription Fund of Musicians Union Local 9.

The next program will be on Dec. 13, and will be a concert for the benefit of the Music Club Scholarship Fund.

Ordinance

sion, when children are travelling to and from classes or are engaging in organized play.

However, that idea has been discarded as impractical. As one Alderman pointed out, a dog should be required to have himself, but he can hardly be expected to know what time it is.

The two alternatives confronting the Aldermen are: 1. To adopt an ordinance prohibiting canines from running loose at any time or anywhere on public places in the city. 2. Or to allow them to run at large as long as they are licensed and behave themselves. The disposition of a majority of the Aldermen is to try out the second plan.

They believe that the existing problem could be corrected through strict enforcement of existing regulations by the dog owners who would visit the owners of dogs against whom complaints are lodged and who would pick up dogs which frighten, molest, knock down, jump on or bite children.

Owners of canines who allow their pets to run loose will be expected to train them not to make a nuisance of themselves in this manner. If they fail to do so, the animals would be trucked off to the pound, and their owners presumably would be ordered to keep them under supervision at all times or face prosecution.

The Aldermen meet next Monday (Nov. 18) and again on Monday, Dec. 2. It is expected that the dog problem will be met at one of those two sessions.

Old Comics For Couples Club

A film featuring comedians of the 20's will be shown at the first meeting of the year for the Couples Club of the First Unitarian Church of West Newton tomorrow (Friday) night at 8 in the Parish Hall.

The members will see such all-time greats as Charlie Chaplin, Fatty Arbuckle, W.C. Fields and Buster Keaton.

Refreshments will be served by the co-chairmen, Mrs. John W. Gurry and Mrs. George Speers. Mrs. Robert L. Daniels is the program chairman.

Local Company Given Contract

KSC Semiconductor Corporation, 437 Cherry St., West Newton, has been awarded a $19,527 small-business government contract for transistors by the Defense Supply Agency's electronics supply center at Dayton, Ohio.

The contract calls for 3583 transistors.

The local manufacturer submitted the lowest of seven bids.

Recent Deaths

Barney Fagelman

Services for Barney Fagelman, 70, of 210 Hartman road, Newton Centre, proprietor of the Crown Furniture Company of Boston and the Munroe Furniture Company of Lynn, were held on Tuesday, November 12.

Mr. Fagelman died November 11 in Brookline Hospital. He had been in the furniture business for 37 years, and was a member of Temple Beth Shalom and the B'nai B'rith, both in Hull.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Dora (Kriger) Fagelman; two sons, Sidney Fagelman; two daughters, Mrs. Irene Starr and Mrs. Barbara Sidell, and seven grandchildren, all of Newton.

Memorial week is being observed at his home.

John V. Parnell Jr.

Services for Dr. John V. Parnell Jr., 46, of 18 David Rd., Newton Highlands, were held on Friday, Nov. 8, in St. John's Episcopal Church, Roxbury.

Dr. Parnell, coordinator of the mathematics and electronics departments at Bay State Community College, Boston, died Nov. 6 at home.

A graduate of Roxbury Memorial High School, where he excelled in athletics, he became a distinguished educator after receiving his master's and bachelor of science degrees from Boston University and his doctor's degree at Harvard. He specialized in the fields of biology and zoology.

He was a member of the American Association of Scientists, the American International Biology Society, Society for Study, Development and Growth; the American Society of Zoologists; Beta Kappa Chi, Sigma Xi, the National Association of Biology Teachers, the Virginia Academy of Science, Omega Psi Phi, Club 20 of Virginia and the Boston Chapter of Guardsmen.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Uarda (McKinney) Parnell; three sons, John III, Stephen and Nicholas, all of Newton Highlands, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John V. Parnell Sr., of Boston.

Burial was in Forest Hills Cemetery.

Daniel J. McCluskey

A requiem Mass for Daniel Joseph McCluskey, 54, of 43 Woodcliff Rd., Newton Highlands, insurance adjuster, was sung in Sacred Heart Church on Friday, Nov. 8.

Mr. McCluskey, vice president and director of the Boston insurance adjusting firm of Toplis and Harding, died Nov. 5.

He came here 16 years ago to join the Boston firm after being in the insurance adjusting business in Chicago. Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Virginia (Corby) McCluskey; a son Corby of Newton; three daughters, Dana Therese of Newton, and Mrs. Mary Louise Johnson and Mrs. Patricia Boughan, both of Brockton; seven grandchildren, and five sisters, Mrs. Mary Patullo, Mrs. Kathleen Mottaz, Mrs. Dorothy Howe and Mrs. Blanche Kausrud of Chicago, and Mrs. Genevieve Madison of Milwaukee.

Burial was in St. Joseph's Cemetery.

Sara S. Hovey

A memorial service for Mrs. Sara Sanborn Hovey, 90, of 1435 Centre St., Newton Centre, was held Sunday morning, Nov. 10, in the First Baptist Church of Newton.

Mrs. Hovey, widow of Frederick H. Hovey Sr., of Newton Centre and Montclair, N. J., died Nov. 4.

She was born in Newton Centre, and was a member of the Newton Centre Woman's Club. Her husband was a National Doubles Tennis Champion in 1893 and 1894, and the Singles Champion in 1895.

Of late years, Mrs. Hovey made her home with her son, Frederick H. Hovey Jr., here. Besides her son, she leaves a daughter, Miss Margaret Hovey.

Magnus I. Miranda

Services for Magnus I. Miranda, 74, of 126 Clark St., Newton Centre, a Boston-born chemist who was a Newton resident for 20 years, were held on Monday, Nov. 11.

Mr. Miranda died unexpectedly Nov. 9 when stricken with a heart attack while giving directions to a woman motorist who was maneuvering her car out of the Pelham St., Newton Centre, municipal parking lot.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Carrie (Dinner) Miranda; a son, Richard I. of West Newton; two sisters, Mrs. Louise Cleary of Weymouth and Mrs. Miriam Croscup of Lutz, Fla.; and a brother, Raymond L. Miranda of Brookline.

Burial was in Oshabe Cemetery, East Boston.

James M. Hayward

Services for James M. Hayward, 77, of 19 Waldorf Rd., Newton Highlands, long-time friend of shut-ins, were held on Friday, November 8, in the Newton Highlands Congregational Church.

Mr. Hayward died unexpectedly Nov. 5 at his home.

A Newton resident for 42 years, he was interested in benevolent and philanthropic work, including visits to the bed-ridden. He was a member of the Men's Fellowship at Newton Highlands Congregational Church, the Retired Men's Club of Newton and Norumbega Lodge, A.F. and A.M.

Survivors are a daughter, Miss Doris Hayward, with whom he lived, and a sister, Miss Alfreda Hayward of Cohoes, N. Y.

Burial was in Newton Cemetery.

Mayor Will Praise Move To Open Guidance Center

Mayor Donald Gibbs will praise efforts to establish a child guidance center in Newton before a rally of workers for Action for Mental Health in Children. The rally will be held at the War Memorial Auditorium at Newton City Hall on Tuesday, December 3. All persons interviewed in participating in this community effort are urged to attend.

The Action for Mental Health in Children Association seeks to establish a clinic in Newton where children in need of psychiatric help can be aided, regardless of their families' financial situation. Such a clinic would be co-sponsored by the Department of Mental Health of the Commonwealth and would be partly supported by state funds and partly by popular subscription.

A professional advisory board, composed of prominent Newton child psychiatrists, psychologists, social workers, pediatricians, and public health experts, has designed what it believes will be an ideal clinic of which Newton citizens can be proud. At the meeting on December 3, Dr. Joseph Sabbath, well-known child psychiatrist of Newton, will describe in detail the blueprint for this clinic.

On the same program Kenneth Huberman, President of Action for Mental Health in Children, will report to workers on the remarkable progress that has been made in the past few months. Dr. Reuben Margolin, Associate Professor of Social Science at Northeastern University, will conduct a workshop for volunteers eager to assist in this effort. General moderator for the evening will be Monte Basbas, City Clerk of Newton.

MAURICE KATES

Hub Firm Takes Over Control Of Illinois Corp.

Atlantic Instruments and Electronics, Inc., of Boston, has acquired a controlling interest in Astromarine Products Corp., Melrose Park, Illinois, according to an announcement this week by Maurice Kates, president and general manager of Atlantic. Mr. Kates is a resident of Newton.

Mr. Kates has been elected the new executive vice-president of Astromarine by the board of directors.

He was formerly founder and president of Advanced Miniaturized Electronics, Inc., a subsidiary of the Curtiss-Wright corporation, was general manager of the Cambridge Laboratory, Kearsott Division of General Precision, Inc.

Mr. Kates is a graduate of Northeastern University and is a registered professional engineer. He also holds a certificate in naval architecture and marine engineering from MIT. He has served as manager and chief engineer of the pre-production department of Minneapolis-Honeywell's Boston Division, and as chief engineer for the Alden Engineering Company, Inc. He resides with his wife and children at 23 Converse Ave., Newton.

Astromarine Products Corp., has been engaged in the design and manufacture of a fully-transistorized line of radio-telephone devices for ship-to-shore communications, and recently established a new laser and optoelectronic division at its Melrose Park plant.

Aid To Retarded

A reimbursement of $1444 to the City of Newton for the local program for mentally retarded persons, has been certified by Joseph Alecks, state comptroller.

Community Renewal Planners

Renewal Project Is Studied

Newton's Community Renewal Program, described by Mayor Donald L. Gibbs as one of the most historic documents ever published by the city, was discussed by more than 100 delegates and friends of the Newton Community Council at a meeting last night at the Union Church in Waban.

"Not often will a city self evaluate itself and then move to action—this we have done," according to Mayor Gibbs as he outlined the background of the citywide survey designed to determine the need for "renewal activities" to prevent and eliminate the spread of blight. The study was recently completed by the city after 18 months of intensive research.

Program panel members, in addition to Mayor Gibbs included Charles E. Downe, city planning consultant, and James A. Miller, director of planning and renewal for Newton, and Herbert L. Berman, attorney with Foley, Hoag & Eliot. Moderator for the evening was Joseph C. Skinner, executive vice president, Meridith & Grew, active in numerous community activities including the Community Chest and Council, and Chamber of Commerce.

Newton's Community Renewal Program is one of the first completed in New England and was designed specifically for Newton. Those looking for quick answers to specific problems such as the future use of the old Mason School and Norumbega Park and open spaces were cautioned by Mr. Downe that this comprehensive study was not intended to provide all answers, but was designed to identify in broad terms the need for urban renewal action.

With the use of maps and diagrams, Mr. Downe and Mr. Miller described the study procedures, and the analysis which led to the recommendations for re-

Church Wing Memorializes Former Mayor

The memory of a former mayor of Newton and his wife will be honored at the dedication of a new wing of a Sherborn church next Sunday afternoon.

The educational building has been given by the Misses Helen and Haidee Bothfeld in memory of their parents, Henry E. and Haidee Bothfeld.

More than 300 guests are expected when Dr. Dana McLean Greeley dedicates the new educational wing of the First Parish in Sherborn, Unitarian Universalist, on Sunday afternoon, November 24th at 4 o'clock.

The late Mr. and Mrs. Bothfeld were former residents of Newton and were active in the Channing Church which has since joined the First Unitarian Society.

Mr. Bothfeld served as Mayor of Newton, was a member of the Newton School Committee from Ward 7, and in 1914-15 was a representative in the General Court from the 4th Middlesex District.

Forefathers Sunday Here November 24

The First Church in Newton, now celebrating its 300th anniversary year, will hold special services on "Forefathers' Sunday," November 24th at 10 a.m.

Dr. Vaughan Dabney, former Dean of the Andover-Newton Theological School will preach the sermon.

Rev. Frank M. Weiskel, pastor of First Church, will conduct a short service at the grave of John Eliot, Jr., the first minister, at the Old Burial Ground on Centre St., Newton. This is the site of the original meeting house.

It is interesting to note that John Eliot's father, who also was a minister and known widely in the East as the "Indian Missionary" is pictured, preaching to the Indians, on

Anniversary Of Rabbi To Be Observed

The tenth anniversary of Rabbi Murray I. Rothman as spiritual leader of Temple Shalom of Newton will be observed with a special service tomorrow, Friday, night and a dinner and dance on Saturday night, sponsored by the Temple Brotherhood and Sisterhood.

Rabbi Solomon Freehof, of Rodef Shalom Temple, Pittsburgh, president of the World Union of Progressive Judaism, will deliver the anniversary sermon at the service starting at 8:15 o'clock tomorrow night.

Rabbi Freehof will discuss, "A Rabbi's Dream." He is no stranger to Temple Shalom since he delivered the installation sermon when Rabbi Rothman was installed as spiritual leader.

Following the service, a special Oneg Shabbat will be held in the social hall. The entire

Aldermen Give Green Light To Motor Hotel

A year-long controversy over a proposal for the erection of a $4 million motel on a 10-acre tract of Norumbega Park finally neared a close Monday night when the Board of Aldermen, with only one member absent, voted 20-3 to approve a permissive use and site plan submitted by Marriott Motor Hotels.

While there is no likelihood that action will be rescinded, repercussions from it are still being heard at City Hall.

Pending before the Aldermanic Board is a petition signed by 50 voters asking the Aldermen to call a general meeting of citizens to consult upon the common good, particularly the subject of the rezoning of Norumbega Park.

Under the city charter the Aldermen are obliged to call a meeting in response to that petition. A difference of opinion exists, however, as to what kind of meeting must be held.

Assistant City Solicitor George Elbaum told the city fathers that in his opinion the meeting of voters should be held at a regular Aldermanic session as a courtesy to the petitioners.

Some Aldermen, however, recalled that on a previous occasion City Solicitor Matt B. Jones had ruled that all the Aldermen need do under such circumstances is set a time and place for a meeting and then let the voters run it themselves.

It was finally decided to refer the matter to Solicitor Jones for an opinion which he will submit to the Aldermen at their Dec. 2 meeting.

Whatever sentiment is voiced at the meeting concerning the rezoning of the motel site will apparently be only an expression of public opinion.

However, it could affect the rezoning of the balance of Norumbega Park.

A hearing on the petition to waive the existing 40-foot height restriction on the motel and allow it to be built to a height of 52 feet will be held by the Aldermanic Claims and Rules Committee on the night of Dec. 9.

That appears to be the last obstacle which must be overcome before plans for the $4 million motel can be carried forward.

Secret Ballot Rejects Gibbs' Housing Choice

Mayor Donald L. Gibbs yesterday expressed disappointment at the action of the Board of Aldermen in disapproving his appointment of Robert M. Segal of West Newton to the Newton Housing Authority by a secret 11-10 vote.

Segal is general counsel for the AFL-CIO and a member of the ADA. His appointment apparently was blocked because of his political affiliations.

Grid Wins Set Up Turkey Day Hopes

The football teams of Newton High School and Newton South High tuned up for their traditional season-ending Thanksgiving games by chalk-ing up victories last Saturday.

Newton High's Tigers won their third game in a row as they defeated Waltham, 30-8, at Dickinson Field.

Newton South in a disappointing showing edged past Framingham South, 8-6, in a game played at Framingham, with a disputed two-point conversion the margin of victory for the Lions.

Both Newton and Newton South are now preparing for their big games on the holiday morning.

Coach Jim Ronayne's Newton High Tigers, who are now living up to the pre-season predictions of the experts, have a season's record of four victories, three defeats and a tie. In their last five games they have won four times and been tied once. For the first time this season they are above the .500 mark.

Fred Magarian and Marty O'Gorman spearheaded the Newton attack against Waltham, each scoring a pair of touchdowns.

By JAMES G. COLBERT

Peabody Patronage Grabs May Spell Future Trouble

Governor Peabody has achieved more than average success during his first 11 months in office.

His record of obtaining the passage of about four-fifths of his legislative program was a remarkably good one although it resulted in a large measure from the effective help he received from legislative leaders, notably Senate President John E. Powers.

He appears to be in a stronger position than was either John A. Volpe or Foster Furcolo, his two predecessors, at comparable stages in their administration.

Peabody got himself into some trouble during the past months by changing his mind and reversing his position.

Beacon Hill observers also are wondering whether he paid too high a price for some of the victories he won during the recent legislative session.

In the final analysis, however, Peabody's chances of winning reelection to a second term will hinge on what happens in the months to come, not on what already has been written into the record books.

Community Center Lists Active, Varied Program

Activities of the Newton Community Center continue at a rapid pace with bus trips highlighting the recent activity.

Miss Gayle Saunders, assisted by Miss Ginny Algeri, Miss Ann Comeau, Robert Peruzzi, and students from Wheelock College, Marty Watkins and Pam Dobson, took sixty youngsters to the Science Museum. The group ranging in age from 9-12 years enjoyed the many exhibits and had a good deal of fun in talking with themselves on the demonstration telephone. Checking their weights in Education Is Meeting Theme Of Brotherhood

"Salute to Education" will be the theme of the breakfast meeting of the Brotherhood of Temple Mishkan Tefila to be held in the social hall on Sunday, December 1st.

Dr. Eisig Silberschlag, of the Hebrew Teachers College, Brookline, and Dr. Israel J. Kazis, spiritual leader of Temple Mishkan Tefila, will be the speakers.

manly arts and modeling necessitated additional Saturday morning classes.

The adult women's groups have a shopping trip planned for the Braintree Shopping Center. A lot of fun is planned to accompany the arduous Christmas shopping task.

Adult art classes continue each Thursday evening, under the direction of Mr. Schwartz. The second session of Golf instruction under the direction of Mr. Dan Meany will get underway in early January of 1964. Applications for the Golf School which will be held for 6 successive Wednesday evenings are now being taken at the Center. Classes are small and sneakers are the only required equipment.

Anthony J. Ribbo, executive director of the Newton Community Center in commenting on adult activity, stated that registrations are also being taken for the women's sewing group and the second class of cake decorating. Starting dates for these two activities will be announced in the near future.

Activities for teenagers at the Center include Friday evening dances, basketball each Thursday evening at the Warren Jr. High School, and friendship club groups. Boys and girls between the ages of 13 and 18 years old who have clubs started that would like to meet at the Center or individuals interested in being a member in a club group should contact Miss Saunders or Mr. Callahan at the Community Center as soon as possible for proper scheduling, etc.

A special teen activity this winter will be skating parties. Additional information with regard to this special type activity will be released preceding its start.

The Senior Citizens of the Newton Community Center have planned with the club advisor, Mrs. Grace Lepore, a trip to the Wonder Baking Company for Monday morning, December 2nd. The group will leave the Center by bus at 10:30 a.m. The group will be treated to a tour of the total loaf of bread operation.

For information with regards to the activities of the Newton Community Center, please visit the Center at 429 Cherry street in West Newton or phone 244-2260.

Newton Doctors On Staff

Junior League Singers To Tour Hospital Here

When the business day concludes on Thursday (November 21) a dozen young women from Boston will hurry to Newton - Wellesley Hospital for an evening of unique volunteer service.

The working girls are members of the Junior League of Greater Boston. Nearly a year ago, they formed a professional singing group.

Tonight (Thursday) they will tour the 260-bed community hospital, serenading patients with a medley of popular and folk ballads.

Director of the group is Mrs. Noah T. Herndon of Weston, assistant director is Mrs. G. Alvin Crowell of Wellesley.

An adeptness with four-part harmony has kept the girls extremely active serving others. Within the past year, they have entertained patients at Boston City Hospital, Children's Hospital Medical Center, Massachusetts General Hospital, and Massachusetts Memorial Hospitals.

congregation and guests will meet Rabbi and Mrs. Rothman and Rabbi and Mrs. Freehof at this reception.

A testimonial dinner and dance will be held on Saturday night under the sponsorship of the Brotherhood and Sisterhood to honor Rabbi and Mrs. Rothman.

Rabbi Bruce Ehrmann, president of the Mass. Board of Rabbis, will be among the head table guests and will deliver the invocation. The evening program is being planned by Arnold D. a. u. m. Brotherhood president, and Mrs. Sydney Gold, Sisterhood president.

Committee members include, Robert Levin, Alfred Forman, Harold Edinberg, vice presidents of the brotherhood; Mrs. Nathaniel Roossin, Mrs. David Krongard, Mrs. Justin Gould, Mrs. Meyer Hoffman, vice presidents of the Sisterhood; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Topaz, reservations chairman; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Bronson, co-ordinating chairman; Bernard Swartz, treasurer; Paul Siskind, program chairman; and Mrs. Jacob Rosemark, house planning.

Rabbi Rothman came to Boston after completing service as a Navy chaplain with the First Marine Division in Korea, where he was cited and decorated with the Navy Commendation Medal with the combat "V."

Prior to this, Rabbi Rothman served with Rabbi Freehof at Temple Rodef Shalom, one of the oldest and largest Liberal Jewish Congregations in the United States.

Rabbi Rothman has taken an active part in Newton community affairs.

He is a member of the Newton Rotary Club and Newton Fair Housing Committee, and is on the boards of the Newton Boys' Club, the World Affairs Council of Boston, and the New England Region of the Anti-Defamation League.

Rabbi Rothman currently is the president of the New England Region Central Conference of American Rabbis and vice president of the Mass. Board of Rabbis.

New Members In Community Council Here

Three organizations were voted in as members at the recent business meeting of the Newton Community Council conducted by Mrs. Irene K. Thresher, council president.

The new members are, Action for Mental Health in Children, represented by Charles H. Morang; Catholic Guild for All The Blind, represented by Rev. Robert H. Carolan; and Intercommunity Homemaker Service, represented by Mrs. Thresher who also heads this group.

During the discussion period, questions included enforcement of regulations to eliminate illegal housing, air rights of the Mass Turnpike Authority, and problems of relocation. Full support of the United Fund campaign in Newton was urged.

Local Mothers Of Twins Asked To Join Group

At the October meeting of the Founding Chapter of the Massachusetts Mothers of Twins Association, Mrs. Peter Fazio of 2 Rowe Street, Auburndale, became a member.

The next meeting of the club will be held on Monday, November 25, at 8 p. m. in the Junior Hall of the Robbins Library, Arlington Center. Mrs. Penelope S. Peckos, an instructor in Nutrition at the Harvard School of Public Health and Nutritionist at the Forsyth Dental Infirmary will speak to the group on "Nutrition Today" and will also bring the club up to date on the Forsyth Twin Study, a research program being conducted by Forsyth in which the members of the Mothers of Twins Association are participating.

All mothers and grandmothers of twins in the Newton area are invited to attend. Kindly call Mrs. Warren Church at WO 8-572 for further details.

Certificates Awarded For Church Course

Five members of the First Unitarian Church in West Newton received certificates last week on the completion of a course in public relations for use in church work.

They are Mrs. Langdon W. Chandler, 44 Cheswick Rd., Auburndale, Mrs. Robert L. Daniels, 63 Perkins Street, West Newton, Mr. Norman Dixon, 148 Parmenter Rd., West Newton, Mr. Stanley Kulik, 101 Central St., Auburndale, and Mrs. Charles Levy, 61 Central St., Auburndale.

The course was given by George A. Speers, who, besides being a member of the West Newton Church, is director of the Press Bureau at Northeastern University.

The presentation was made by Dwight Strong, president of the Massachusetts Bay District of the Unitarian-Universalist Association, and the Rev. Theodore A. Webb, executive director of the same organization, at its headquarters, 3 Joy St., Boston.

Aldermen Okay 3 Appointments By Mayor Gibbs

Three appointments by Mayor Gibbs were confirmed by the Board of Aldermen Monday night. In each case confirmation was voted on a secret ballot. Those whose appointments were approved were:

Alan T. Shaw as a member of the Recreation Commission by a 20-2 vote, Wallace F. Forbes as a Member of the Board of Appeal by a 21-1 vote, and Phil Fine as a member of the Board of Library Trustees by a 14-8 vote.

Negro Students Meet On Sunday

Newton will be represented at the 14th annual conference for Negro students to be held next Sunday, November 24 at 2:45 p. m. at Freedom House, 14 Crawford St., Roxbury.

Local representatives on the NAACP Educational Counseling Committee include, Mrs. John Burgess, 46 Berwick Rd., Mrs. Charles P. Harris, 38 Kenwood Ave., and Mrs. Loy Long, 1830 Commonwealth Ave.

"What Are The Chances For Further Study?" will be discussed by representatives of the more than 1000 Negro high school students now attending senior classes in Greater Boston high schools.

Limit Package Licenses To 17

Additional package liquor licenses will not be issued here in 1964, the Newton Licensing Board has announced, continuing a policy that has been in effect for seven consecutive years.

Although the city's 92,400 population entitles the board to grant a total of 19 package store licenses, it considers the existing 17 sufficient to meet the demand.

NHS Juniors In Work Day For CORE's Benefit

Newton High School's junior class is having a work day on Saturday, Nov. 23, and the members stand ready to perform about any type of job from raking leaves and window washing to sweeping floors and cleaning out garages.

Any householder who has been hesitating to tackle a chore, what with Thanksgiving Day approaching, can call for help at WO 9-9810 tomorrow (Friday) and Saturday.

Objective of the juniors is not only to give their elders a day off, but to raise funds for a special cause—CORE.

They point out that CORE (Congress of Racial Equality) is an organization working for an integrated society and for removal of prejudice and ignorance. Among volunteer task forces are young people who donate time to helping Negroes in the South in matters of voting, housing and education.

The money raised by the N.H.S. junior class will help support a task force worker. The goal they've set their sights on is $500.

Exchanges Ideas With Doctors In New Zealand

Dr. Sidney S. Gellis of 77 Alderwood Rd., Newton Centre, has returned from a three weeks' visit to New Zealand, where he addressed groups in Auckland, Wellington and Christ Church.

Dean of the Boston University School of Medicine and director of Pediatrics at Boston City Hospital, Dr. Gellis was an invited guest of the New Zealand Pediatric Society at its annual meeting.

His trip was in line with B. U. Medical Center's policy of exchanging knowledge with doctors of many different countries.

A Healthy Community

Heated partisanship, centered around a variety of local problems, is a vital community aspect anywhere. Regardless of the final decision it is inevitable that there will be ruffled feelings in one or the other of the competing forces.

Honest opinions openly expressed by citizens constitute a healthy condition and is one of the foundation stones of our democracy. Votes cast in meeting by duly elected or appointed officials whereby they designate their choice in any controversial matter, also is a duty and privilege protected by our constitutional laws.

Ballots marked by voters whereby they make a decision for or against certain questions constitute a mandate from the voters to their elected representatives.

Those who have fought the good fight and lost are entitled to their disappointments, if they have journeyed to the voting places and cast their votes. If they have reneged on this necessary aspect of responsible citizenship they must button up their lips and hold their peace. They have done nothing to either support or defeat the issues.

The dedicated, intelligent partisan is respected even by his adversaries. However, there are elements among the citizenry of all communities whose zeal for most any type of campaign is dulled by a heedless, irresponsible approach to it. These zany soldiers in the ranks provide little in the way of solid support, and are of minor value in any assault on the barricades.

Community issues highlighted in our recent municipal election stress the extent to which individuals can involve themselves for or against. The dedication and vigor of both sides in these local wars are to be commended. It is healthy and highly interesting, sometimes belligerent.

But, it all adds up to a vital community with citizens alert to what they consider the common good. Men and women with the fortitude and intelligence to take a stand and to support that position with formidable, comprehensive arguments.

Now, how about that dog leash law and the incinerator? In this corner . . . !

THANK YOU!

May I express my deep appreciation to the people of Newton for the fine vote they gave me in the recent contest for election as Alderman-at-Large from Ward 6. While I missed election by a narrow margin, I am most grateful to everyone who worked in my behalf and for the confidence imposed in me by so many voters.

Letters to Editor

GOP Non-Partisanship

Newton Graphic,

To the Editor:

The City of Newton now contains almost equal numbers of Republicans and Democrats. Both parties contain many persons of ability who have rendered distinguished service in public and civil life.

Yet it is a curious fact that, in the recent city elections a "non-partisan slate" of 24 aldermanic candidates contained the name of only one Democrat.

The people of Newton can not be misled by the cynical announcement of the Republican City Committee that municipal elections have always been scrupulously non-partisan.

It is no secret that population changes in this city will bring about a preponderance of Democratic voters within the next few years. At that time the Republican Party's sins against the principle of non-partisanship could come back to plague it, with the election of a Democratic "non-partisan" slate. It is common knowledge that this Republican shortsightedness is not without precedent. Many procedural rules in the Legislature of which Republicans now bitterly complain were instituted by the Republicans themselves at a time when they commanded a majority in that body. Similarly, the wholly indefensible lack of home rule in the City of Boston was originally contrived by the Republican Party in an attempt to stave off Democratic influence in that City.

If the Republican Party is truly interested in re-establishing a non-partisan government in this city, this should be unmistakably shown over the next two years by actions, not words. I'm sure I reflect the views of many Democrats in suggesting that continuous demonstrations of Republican partisanship will not go unanswered.

Sincerely,

ROBERT W. HALLGRING,
Newton Highlands.

Roaming Rovers

Editor,

Newton Graphic:

It is gratifying to note that the enactment of a reasonable city ordinance will become effective to take care of the "roaming rovers." Such legislation has been delayed too long, and too many dogs have been on the loose too long.

I have witnessed perspiring pups and pooches chasing autos, buses, riders on bicycles, pedestrians and roaming in super-markets, drug stores, lunch rooms, school yards and upsetting rubbish barrels at 6 a.m. and even at 9 p.m.

Only recently at Newton Corner, several dogs or a pack were together, howling, and motorists and pedestrians were trying to dodge, which I would call a pack of "dog bandits," who were demanding in dog language give us the "dough" or the dog biscuits with vitamins or we stop all traffic. The dogs were all sizes, breeds and colors and it was very fortunate that no little children were on the streets at the time.

A few months ago, two men lost their lives on a highway in or near Boston; Reason, they did not want to hit a dog that was on the loose on the highway. Two lives snuffed out, automobile completely wrecked.

One traffic delay or tie-up in a western city amounted to this: fourteen automobiles were piled up, all damaged, many occupants injured. Reason: one dog on the highway on the loose. Who paid for all the damages such as repairs and medical expenses?

With about 4200 dogs in Newton and some I will admit are under control by their owners all of the time which is a satisfying situation; but the majority of the dogs are on the loose.

I also recall a situation in another city. A beautiful little girl was playing in her own yard. A dog came along and before her mother could get help, the dog had chewed off 75 per cent of her face. Disfigured for life, shunned by her little friends and possibly many others and barred from society as well as opportunities in life which were promising before the dog attack.

There are many other incidents about unleashed or unrestrained roaming rovers too numerous to mention. Time for action is now. Surely we don't want the name of "Dogtown" given to Newton.

It can be avoided with a reasonable law and a good Dog-Catcher.

LEE CARVER KITSON,
Newton Centre.

Bid For Partisanship

Newton Graphic

Dear Editor:

Thank you for your editorial in the Newton Graphic (Nov. 14) on "Democratic Aldermen." I think that you have answered for all time such of your readers as H. M. Brand of Newton Highlands who seems to feel that Republican partisanship is to be condemned, but that Democratic partisanship, piously masquerading as "Independents" is a fine, desirable thing.

Far from being condemned, the Republican ladies ought to be congratulated and honored by their male counterparts. Their forthright honesty in publicly acknowledging what their group believes in is refreshing in these days of political hypocrisy.

Nonpartisan elections and primaries are only two of the political nostrums foisted on a gullible public by the "Progressives" in the early years of this country. The cornerstone of responsible party government is the primary and election participated in only by ca's whose political affiliations are clearly identified. If the Republican City Committee sincerely believes that partisan politics have no place in municipal politics, then I respectfully suggest that they disband and permit their name to be used by a group which believes in giving the voters the opportunity to support those candidates whose political philosophy is the same as their own.

Perhaps when we have a vigorous system of political parties in Newton, we will no longer have to vote for a single slate of unopposed candidates. In the meantime, perhaps a future issue of the Graphic will list those members of the City Government who are not ashamed to be identified with the party which represents their political philosophy — the Republican Party.

Yours truly,

SAMUEL A. BALKAN, P.E.
Waban, Mass.

League Urges Contests

Editor

Newton Graphic

The League of Women Voters of Newton always welcomes constructive criticism from people who are interested in the same goals—good government brought about by informed participating citizens.

In reply to Mr. Samuel Balkan's pre-election letter to the Graphic in which he comments on the noncontroversial questions asked of the candidates in our Voters Guide, we would like to take this opportunity to point out that these questions represented timely issues, such as the Community Renewal Program and overall planning for the city.

We hope that Mr. Balkan was present at our Candidates Meeting, which was widely publicized, so that he had an opportunity, personally, to ask the candidates further questions on issues important to him and to the entire community.

The League heartily agrees that there should be opposing candidates for each office, and to this end had sent out letters to community organizations urging people of ability and integrity to run for public office.

Sincerely yours,

ELOISE K. HOUGHTON,
President, League of Women Voters of Newton

Chestnut Hill

1st Church In

Its Annual Sale

Members of the Woman's Alliance of the First Church in Chestnut Hill will welcome friends and neighbors, new and old, at their 44th annual Thanksgiving food and flower sale Tuesday, Nov. 26, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Honorary chairman of the sale is Mrs. Edwin S. Webster, a veteran supporter of the work of the Alliance, and the active managers are Mrs. Richard I. Johnson, Mrs. Carroll Dwight and Mrs. Walter St. Goar.

Sale items include all kinds of fruit and vegetables, flowers and flower baskets, pies, cakes, cider, bread, casseroles, nuts and hors d'oeuvres. Fudge will be made in electric chafing dishes and sold freshly made. The oyster and clam bar is expected to attract its usual quota of seafood lovers, and Mr. and Mrs. Stanton L. Rowley will again concoct their famous oyster stew, which can be purchased for luncheon, along with sandwiches.

Proceeds go to the work of the church and to the Philanthropic Fund of the Alliance.

Two students from Our Lady's High School — Robert Alexander and Joseph Keefe — will compete with students from St. John's Prep of Danvers in a debate on WBZ from 8:30 to 9 Sunday night. The topic will be: "Resolved that the Commonwealth should abolish the county system of government."

Young during the season which has seen him star consistently.

Clarke threw a high spiraling pass which proved short of its target. Young, who had been streaking downfield, turned, raced back, wrestled the ball away from two defenders, slipped away from them and sped 35 yards for a touchdown.

Then came the try for the two-point conversion which resulted in a disputed call by an official. Craig Spear took a pitch from Ted Clarke and smashed through the middle of the line. One official signalled he had not crossed the goal line. But another official, closer to the play signalled he had scored the two-point conversion.

After a conference, Newton South was awarded the two points.

Framingham made a comeback in the final period and pushed across a touchdown. On the try for the two point conversion Framingham's Joe Donnelly flipped a pass to end Bruce Howard.

Craig Spear managed to knock the ball away from Howard and save the game for Newton South.

Coach Winkler heaved a sigh of relief as his team ran out the clock but was obviously not impressed by the play of most of his charges.

However, he did have words of praise for his defensive line and paid tribute to the performances of Joe Durocher, Dick Horwitz and Jim Hennessey.

Mannie of Lee-El Beauty Wins Trip to Europe

Mr. Emmanuel, popularly known as Mannie, proprietor of the Lee-El Beauty Salons in Newton Highlands and Coolidge Corner, Brookline, recently competed in the hairstyling contest at the National Hairdressers Convention in New York and his talent has won him a two weeks' educational trip to Europe.

Recreation Basketball Season Soon

The Newton Recreation Department announced today that teams interested in their basketball program for the 1964 season must register and submit team rosters not later than Friday, December 13. Roster forms may be obtained at the Recreation Office, City Hall, Newton Centre, Mondays through Fridays from 8:30 A.M. to 5:00 P.M.

The purpose of the league is to provide recreation and foster good sportsmanship for young men of Newton. The league will be divided into four divisions: Pony Divisions for boys under 15 years of age; National Division for boys under 18 years of age; International Division for young men under 21 years of age; American Division—age unrestricted.

A registration fee of $10.00 must accompany team roster sheet when submitted on December 13th. Each team may have twelve (12) players on its squad, and all must be legal residents of Newton.

League play will start the week of January 5th, 1964 and will continue through March 6th. All games to be played at Levi Warren Junior High School, Washington St., West Newton.

Teams will not be allowed to include on their roster sheets the names of those who are members of High School varsity squads—public—private—parochial—trade or Junior College, Varsity freshman or College varsity teams.

Newton Chorus In Old Selections

The Newton Community Chorus, entering its fifth week of rehearsals under the new director, Chandler Gregg, has shaken the dust off old reliable compositions and has been introduced to Randall Thompson's music that was inspired by several poems of Robert Frost.

The poems are used as lyrics under the heading "Frostiana."

On Dec. 15 the chorus will present a program in recognition of its 15th anniversary. Given in the annex of Newton Junior College, it will pay special recognition to the loyal attendance over the years of Arthur Tooker, 185 Winslow Rd., Waban, Julia McDonnell, 243 Linwood Ave., Newtonville, and Lucille Fullington, 29 Lasell St., Auburndale.

Those intending to attend need only call Mrs. Jean Miller at BI 4-424 and indicate the number of persons in their group.

Joel Richman, 109 Langdon St., Newton, has been chosen photographer for the Ledger, Bryant & Stratton school newspaper. He is in his second year in the Marketing, Sales and Advertising program.

Conservation Commission Downed By Aldermen 14-9

By a vote of 14 to 9 the Board of Aldermen, at their regular meeting last Monday night, refused to recommend that the mayor appoint a Conservation Commission.

Advocating its establishment, Alderman Harry H. Ham Jr., said that the commission would merely be a study group under control of the city government, that it would be empowered to accept gifts of property, and that it would have no power to take land by eminent domain. Its primary purpose, he said, would be to preserve the open spaces that remain in the city and prevent encroachment by commercial developers. "The unpaid body," he said, "would balance off the growing tendency to nibble away at open spaces."

Aldermen Melvin J. Dangel and Joseph G. Bradley pointed out that the city, so long as it was in the MDC district, could get grants for conservation only from the Metropolitan District Commission, and would not be able to obtain other state or federal grants. The latter pointed out that it had proved to be virtually impossible to get MDC assistance.

The roll call vote was on the question of approving the 7 to 1 vote of the Committee on Claims and Rules denying a recommendation to accept the General Law permitting establishment of a Conservation Commission. (Alderman Ham, chairman of the Claims and Rules Committee, had voted Nay on denial.)

The nine votes in favor of appointment of a commission were those of William C. Mann, William H. Diman, Harry H. Ham Jr., Theodore D. Mann, William H. Prentice, Jack M. Roberts, Allard M. Valentine, Harry L. Walen and Earle D. Wood. Absent was Alderman William M. Glosky. Among matters approved was a communication from the commissioner of public buildings calling for an appropriation of $317,000 for construction and equipment of a fire station to replace the one at Newton Corner that stands in the way of the toll road extension. Actual cost to the city will be only $70,000, according to the commissioner, Vincent D. Burns. The Turnpike Authority has paid the city $225,000 for the building that is to be razed and $112,000 is represented by available funds.

Approved was a Retirement Board recommendation for appropriation of $4680.18 for a pension to be paid to Garfield Appleyard, retiring from the Fire Department.

Other appropriations approved were $2850 for installation of a water main in Centre St., $1545 for a main in Homestead St., $35,000 for acceptance under the betterment act of a portion of Waban Ave., and $23,900 for acceptance of Stanford St.

Approved with a number of restrictions on removal, haul, and against burning anything at the site, was a Working Boys Home petition for removal of gravel and fill over a two-year period. Also approved was permissive use and site plan for a garden type apartment of 11 dwelling unit, already partially constructed, at Centre and Wesley Sts.

Southard Named Named Of Bank

Garrison A. Southard Jr., of 14 Larkspur road, Waban, has been elected vice-president of the State Street Bank and Trust Company.

A U.S. Marine Corps veteran and graduate of the University of Illinois, class of 1951, Mr. Southard was formerly associated with Robert Heller & Associates, International Business Machine Corporation and Radio Corporation of America.

He has been assigned to general administrative responsibilities in the operating areas of the Mutual Funds Department of the bank.

Renewal

graphic locations in the city including Newton Corner, Nonantum, Newtonville, West Newton, Newton Upper Falls and Newton Lower Falls.

More than one-third of the area of Newton was included in a building field survey covering approximately 8,500 properties. In addition, a city-wide environmental survey was conducted including analysis of such services and facilities as proximity of elementary schools, traffic, sewer and water systems, and recreation areas.

Two sets of recommendations were described, one dealing with further study and analysis of the six specific locations designated for renewal activities, the other set includes city-wide activities of policy and administrative matters aimed at both long-range and short-range elimination of blight.

Legislation leading up to the present urban renewal programs were outlined by Mr. Berman.

Newton was commended by Mr. Berman for taking the more difficult citywide approach to urban renewal rather than pin-pointing one specific area for activity. Tracing the federal and state legislation leading to the present day urban renewal activity, Mr. Berman emphasized that the Community Renewal Program was designed to be a preliminary generalized look at blight on a city-wide basis. He also discussed the desirability of establishing a Redevelopment Authority in Newton to carry out, with Aldermanic approval, further renewal studies and specific renewal projects.

Defining the three levels of renewal activity to eliminate blight, Mr. Skinner suggested that conservation is "the power of positive thinking," rehabilitation as medication and redevelopment as surgery.

"Irma La Douce"
At West Newton

"Irma La Douce," the stage and film success, opened November 20 in an exclusive area engagement at the Newton Theatre, West Newton.

Produced and directed by Academy Award winner, Billy Wilder, the comedy stars Jack Lemmon and Shirley MacLaine as the pair whose romance runs into difficulties due to Miss MacLaine's profession as a lady of the evening in a less fashionable neighborhood of Paris. Lemmon portrays the "gendarme" who leads a raid on her establishment, winds up getting fired for it and then falls in love with her.

The Mirisch Panavision production, in Technicolor, was shot on location in Paris and scripted by Wilder and I. A. L. Diamond, the creative duo responsible for "Love in the Afternoon," "Some Like It Hot," "The Apartment," and "One, Two, Three."

Our Lady's High Is Champion, But Loses Coach

Our Lady's High School took the Catholic Suburban League football championship last Sunday by beating its arch rival, St. Patrick's High, 20 to 0 on Allison Field.

The 20 points were amassed in the first eight minutes of play.

It was the 12th straight win for the Lancers in Catholic League play. The record goes back to November, 1961.

Last year Our Lady's and St. Patrick's ended in a tie for top position in the league.

The game was halted Sunday for several minutes in the final period so Jim "Gus" Sullivan could announce his retirement as Our Lady's coach. He was given a standing ovation.

Sullivan took over the coaching job in 1948. He leaves to devote full time to his job as athletic director at Boston State College.

Music Treat Is Given Glee Club Members

Members of the Highland Glee Club of Newton received a surprise treat during their rehearsal last Monday evening when Dr. Homer Whitford, the director, introduced Jeannette Coran of 9 Waterhouse road, Belmont, prominent Boston soprano who sang several numbers for the club; and Mark Pearson 20 Cazenova St., Boston who accompanied her.

Mrs. Coran is the soprano soloist in First Church, Unitarian, Chestnut Hill, where Dr. Whitford is organist and choir director. She is also the soloist in Temple Israel in Boston and studies voice at the New England Conservatory under Madame Uta Graf, German born lyric soprano, famous on three continents for her opera and concert performances, and declared by Leopold Stokowski to be "One of America's greatest singers." Highland Glee Club audiences will remember Madame Graf as the guest soloist in the Glee Club's December concert two years ago.

Mark Pearson who accompanied Mrs. Coran is an artist in his own right, being one of Boston's outstanding teachers of voice and piano, as well as being baritone soloist at Temple Israel in Boston.

These two young artists were well received by the Highland Glee Club which is preparing for their own concert being presented on Tuesday evening December 10th at 8:15 o'clock in the Newton High School auditorium.

Are You Tired Of Wasting Money On 10 - Minute Toys?

THIS PROBLEM IS SIMPLY SOLVED. Be sure the gifts you give this Christmas offer more enduring fun and, at the same time, contribute to development of the child's mind. Just as baseball, tennis and other sports help build healthy bodies so can properly selected items for creative leisure help develop fertile minds through the formative years, all contributing to building "a sound mind in a sound body."

Each day can be filled with the thrill of discovery, the wonder of fresh understanding when a child recreates a tiny, but tangible, part of this world with his own hands and mind. Experimenting, seeing the results right before his eyes, can give him a basis of knowledge to help build his own life constructively and, in turn, help fashion a better life for others.

Canadian Trip Followed Donna - Todaro Wedding

Canada was the honeymoon destination of John F. Donna and his bride, the former Miss Ellen Theresa Todaro.

Mr. and Mrs. Cosmo Todaro of Newton Highlands and Mr. and Mrs. M. Joseph Donna of North Quincy are the couple's parents.

The Sacred Heart Church in Newton Centre was the setting for the pretty fall wedding. The Rev. Michael F. Doocey, celebrant of the nuptial, performed the double-ring ceremony and read the Papal Blessing. A reception followed at the Monticello in Framingham.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride's bouffant-skirted gown of traditional white silk organza had jeweled lace appliques.

A matching jeweled lace pill box cap held in place her bouffant French illusion veil. Her flowers were gardenias, orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Daniel McPherson of Newton Highlands, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Miss Joan Bennett of Somerville and Miss Carol Costello of West Newton were the other attendants.

Best man for his brother was Richard Donna of North Quincy. Paul Quigley of North Quincy, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and George Wagner of Quincy were the ushers.

The bride, a graduate of Newton High School, is associated with the Liberty Mutual Life Insurance Company in Boston.

Mr. Donna, who was graduated from North Quincy High School and Northeastern

St. Ignatius Church Scene Of Eschricht-Murley Bridal

After a trip to Antigua, British West Indies, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Gert Eschricht (Susan Murley) will make their home in New York City.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Edward Murley of Newton Centre. Kapitaen Zur See and Mrs. Gert Eschricht of Bonn, Germany, are the bridegroom's parents.

The Rev. George Gardner Holland, cousin of the bride, officiated at the pretty fall bridal, which took place at St. Ignatius Church, Chestnut Hill. A reception followed at the Brae Burn Country Club, West Newton.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown made of ivory silk satin appliqued with jeweled floral motifs of re-embroidered Alencon lace.

A matching bandeau was caught with a triple-tiered French illusion full-length veil which followed the graceful lines of her gown. She carried a bouquet of orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Caroline Eschricht of Hamburg, Germany, sister of the bridegroom, was honorary maid of honor.

Mrs. Alfred Duncker of Peekskill, N. Y., was matron of honor. Miss Virginia Nichols of Dedham, Miss Maryblair Ormsby of Weston, Miss Carol Joplin of Boston, Miss Lynn Mahoney of Newton Centre, Miss Valerie Raymond of Ojai, Calif., and Mrs. Stewart Pierson of Pittsburgh, Pa., were the other attendants.

James Edward Murley 3rd of Newton Centre, and San Francisco, Calif., brother of the bride, served as best man. The ushers were Holland Murley of Newton Centre, another brother of the bride, Alfred Duncker of Peekskill, N. Y., James Carney of West Newton, Holger Sommer, of Hamburg, Germany, Dr. Anthony Gristina of New York and the Rev. Stewart Pierson, of Pittsburgh, Pa.

The bride is a graduate of Beaver Country Day School, class of 1957, and Skidmore College, class of 1961. A debutante of the 1957-58 season, she was presented at a dinner-dance given by her parents at the Sheraton Plaza.

Mr. Eschricht was graduated from Buesum and the Hamburg Business School in 1958. He is a member of the Norddeutscher Regatta Verein, Hamburg and Alster Piraten Club. He is associated with Alltransport Company, air-freight exporters of New York City.

Of Mr. Robert W. Rigoli

St. Luke's Church in Fall River was the scene of the recent marriage of Miss Barbara Ann Sullivan and Robert William Rigoli.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Arthur W. Sullivan of Fall River and the late Mr. Sullivan. Mr. and Mrs. Philip J. Rigoli of 223 Church street, Newton, are the parents of the groom.

The Rev. Milton Saville officiated at the 11 o'clock double-ring nuptial ceremony. A reception was held at the Red Angus Lodge in Tiverton, R. I.

The bride's cousin, Mr. Warren L. Baker of Fall River, gave her in marriage. She wore a full-length gown of white velvet. The fitted bodice had a sculptured neckline, long tapered sleeves, a natural waistline marked with two bows, and a semi-bell skirt.

A coronet of jeweled Alencon lace petals held in place a butterfly pure silk illusion veil. She carried a cascade of red roses, stephanotis and ivy.

The maid of honor was the bride's sister, Miss Nancy L. Sullivan of Fall River.

Richard Blue of Needham, uncle of the bridegroom, served as best man. Ushering were two brothers of the bridegroom, Peter Rigoli and Philip Rigoli, both of Newton.

New York City was the honeymoon destination of the couple, who are now at home at 142 Mott street, Fall River.

The bride was graduated from B.M.C. Durfee High School, Fall River, where she is now a stenographer.

Mr. Rigoli, a graduate of Newton High School, served with the Navy. He is a production technician at the Polaroid Plant in Waltham.

JANE DORE

January Bridal For Miss Dore, Mr. Powers

Planning to be married in January are Miss Jane Dore and Thomas Joseph Powers of Osterville.

Mrs. Clement J. Dore of Auburndale makes known the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter to the son of Mr. Michael J. Powers and Mrs. Agnes Powers of Boston.

Daughter of the late Mr. Dore, the future bride was graduated from the Country Day School of the Sacred Heart in Newton and Regis College.

Mr. Powers, a graduate of Boston College, served as a lieutenant commander with the Navy, and belongs to the Clover Club.

Smith College Club Meeting This Morning

Mrs. Alvin V. Ludwig, 95 Dorset Road, Waban, is hostess this morning, Thursday, November 21, to the Newton Smith College Club. Assisting her for the morning coffee at ten o'clock is Mrs. Oliver S. Leland, of West Newton.

Six members of the Smith Club have recently returned from the annual Alumnae Council meeting held on the Smith College campus in Northampton. Mrs. Charles J. Macdonald of Dedham will speak to the club members on the State of Smith College.

Others who attended as Class Representatives were: Miss Fanny Garrison, Mrs. Herbert J. Young, Mrs. Edward D. Leonard, and Mrs. Robert G. Fisher, all members of the club. Mrs. Daniel Bliss was club representative.

Candlelight Service Unites Miss MacKenzie-Mr. Graham

At a recent candlelight service in the Presbyterian Church of Newton, Miss Phyllis Maybelle MacKenzie became the bride of Donald Ross Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Mackenzie of New Glasgow, Nova Scotia, and Mr. Thomas J. Graham of Belmont and the late Mrs. Graham are the couple's parents.

Bouquets of white flowers decorated the altar and pews for the 8 o'clock service at which the Rev. Barton Smith, pastor, officiated. A reception was held at the church parlors.

Mr. William J. Holmes of Newton gave the bride away. She was attired in white peau de soie applique with Chantilly lace, entraine. Pearls and sequins marked the Chantilly lace pill box cap fastened with a fingertip illusion veil. Her flowers were orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Harry Goss of Everett was matron of honor. Miss Joan Eastman of Arlington, Miss Donna Gillis of Brighton and Miss Marion Morrison of Belmont were bridesmaids.

Miss June Morrison of Belmont was in charge of the guest book.

Harry Goss of Everett served as best man. Ushering were John Tweedie of Arlington, Kenneth Johnson of Bedford and Scott MacGregor of Belmont.

Now on an extended European trip, Mr. Graham and his bride plan to live in Belmont.

The bridegroom was graduated from Colby College.

Who will buy the turkey next Thanksgiving?

Children take Thanksgiving and other family holidays for granted. But parents know that providing protection for the family future is a responsibility that often rests heavily on the breadwinner. Thousands of thoughtful dads buy Savings Bank Life Insurance. SBLI is the low-cost insurance protection geared to fit most family men's budgets. Thrifty premium rates, annual dividends help dads with big family responsibilities buy adequate insurance with less money.

SAVING is the big word in SAVINGS Bank Life Insurance

The new information rack at your nearest Savings Bank or Institution for Savings is filled with valuable facts everyone interested in family protection wants to know.

The balance of the rack is devoted to individual cards. Just take the card showing your age (nearest birthday) which has premium rates that are lower than you thought. Be sure to take a card for each member of your family.

HOW TO BUY THE MOST PROTECTION FOR YOUR MONEY will help you decide what type of policy is best for you. Other folders explain popular features of TERM Insurance and policies for CHILDREN, HOMEOWNERS and FAMILIES.

Savings Bank Life Insurance has been available since 1907 exclusively for people who live or work in Massachusetts. Policies totaling more than $900,000,000 are now in force.

College Has 28 Wives Enrolled

Newton Junior College's Hospitality Committee held a reception for married students on Tuesday, Nov. 19. This year there were 28 of them, the largest number in the school's history. For many years married women in the Newton community have enrolled in the College to continue their education in the Associate Degree program. Children and household responsibilities have been no deterrent to their furthering their academic careers. The College has prided itself in being able to meet the needs of this segment of the adult Newton community.

Garber Leader In Israel Bond Sale

Bernard Garber of Newton, long prominent in communal activities and associated with Israel's economic growth for the past 12 years, will have a prominent role in Action Day for Israel, the Greater Boston one-day effort in which 3000 volunteers will sell Israel Bonds in 50 communities.

The date of the effort is Dec. 8. Each Action Day volunteer will receive two tickets for the annual Chanukah Festival, scheduled for Dec. 22 in the Donnelly Memorial Theater. Volunteers may enroll by calling LI 2-5289.

Cabot School Stages Kiddies' Play Saturday

A three-act adaptation of the famous Grimm fairy tale, "Rumpelstiltskin" with original music and dancing will be produced for a children's audience at the Cabot School Auditorium in Newtonville on Saturday, Nov. 23 at 2 p.m.

The play, which is being sponsored by the Cabot P.T.A., will feature the Children's Hour Touring Players of Brookline, directed by Allen J. Savage. Music was composed by Charles Dittell, set design by Judd Weisberg and costumes by Anthony Buglio.

The adaptation was written by Charlott Chorpensing and the lead role of Rumpelstiltskin is played by Martha Jacobs, 13, a freshman at Brookline High School.

Tickets for the play will be on sale tonight (Nov. 21) at the school, and at the door the day of the performance. Doors open Saturday at 1:30 p.m.

Thanksgiving Bread Sale To Aid Youngsters' Trip

Youth Fellowship Bread Sale will be held at Eliot Church on November 23. High school young people from three Newton Corner churches: the Eliot Congregational Church, the Newton Methodist Church, and the Grace Episcopal Church, will gather to bake and deliver the famous Thanksgiving nut-bread.

The bread, may be ordered by calling the Eliot Church office, BI 4-3639, before Friday, November 22.

The cranberry nut bread sale is one in a series of drives to raise money for the "Jamestown Junket," a trip the group plans to take during the April vacation. This is the third such trip, started and sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Salinger of Eliot Church.

The trips have been three years apart, so that each high schooler of the three churches has had a chance to participate. By living in a bus for a week and heading south to New York, Washington, and Jamestown, the junketeers hope to practice Christian fellowship and understand the Southern heritage and current racial problems. To finance the trip, the group must raise over $1,900.

Of the people involved in the sale, Erland Russell, Fred Angier, Bill Hunter, Ellen Gleason, Tina Seeglit, April Crosby, Sid Marston, Roy Coleman, Don Smith, Steve Fields, and Mrs. Piercy will deliver the bread on Saturday; Ellen Gleason, Fred Angier, Jane Coleman, and Merrily Lovell have been working on publicity; and Robert Anderson, Frannie Atkinson, Bob Bell, Chris Boyd, Alan Conway, Jane Coleman, Nancy Coleman, Gwen Cheyette, David Dewsnap, Don Fields, Bruce Garon, Sally Gleason, Susan Hallett, Gail Howard, George Jarnis, Bob Jarnis, Audrey Kasarjian, Ken Kurkonis, Merrily Lovell, Aline Marquis, Tom Marquis, Kathy McCloskey, Mike Piercy, Pam Powers, Gayle Purple, Beverly Rich, Janette Scandale, Martha Steinman, Sandy Thomas, Janis Thompson, K. T. Toman, John Tomb, Lloyd Wentzell, John Weyler, Bob Yukes, and Claude Jeanloz will mix, measure, and bake the bread.

Cardarelli Submits Low Horace Mann Bid

Lowest of six bidders on the contract for construction of a new Horace Mann School, on the Albemarle Playground opposite the site of the burned out old school, was Cardarelli Construction Company of 143 Chapel St., Newton, it has been announced by the city's Purchasing Department.

The figure submitted was $598,578, less than the next lowest bidder by $8252.

Let's do a column on Harris Tweed sport coats, they said. But we were admonished not to resort to barnyard comedy and humor. This is serious stuff, they explained.

Then we can't mention this guy by the name of Stubby Harris who grew weeds in Passaic, New Jersey?

No, nor Sam Harris, nor Herbie Harris, nor In-A-Hurry Harris, they quickly interjected. Well . . . there's a good chance we'll blow this bit, but here goes with the story on Harris Tweed.

Harris Tweed is a he-man's fabric woven in Scotland, and there is a federation of hand-weaving mills that keep the name of Harris Tweed forever green, or something like that. These Harris Tweed chaps are death on anyone saying a fabric is genuine Harris Tweed unless the wool is hand-woven on the island of Harris and others in the Outer Hebrides off the west coast of Scotland. The virgin wool from Scotland's bonny sheep must be spun, dyed, and finished in the Outer Hebrides for the cloth to bear the imprint "Harris Tweed."

Meanwhile, Jacques has the finest selection of genuine hand-woven Harris Tweed fabrics, carefully tailored into men's sport coats. They have hand-felled collars, hand buttonholes, and other hand-tailoring features. Because of a special purchase, these three-button dandies are priced at only $35, and the heather mixtures and subdued tones will evoke pastoral scenes of the Scottish moors for anyone wearing them. Put on one of these nifty Harris Tweed sport coats, and you may kick up your heels in reckless abandon for a Scottish reel, or burst forth with a few stanzas of "D'ye ken John Peel." Honest!

Dr. Tullis Gives 2nd Lecture In Fried Series

Dr. James L. Tullis will present the second of the 1963 Fried Lectures at Newton-Wellesley Hospital this evening (Thursday) at Newton-Wellesley Hospital.

Speaking at 8:30 in the Usen Auditorium, he will discuss "The Present Status of Frozen Blood and Its Implications in Clinical Use."

Dr. Tullis is a research associate at Harvard Medical School, chairman of the medical staff at N. E. Deaconess Hospital, and a director of the Cystology Laboratories at the Protein Foundation and senior associate in medicine at Peter Bent Brigham Hospital.

The Fried series is a part of the community hospital's comprehensive medical education program.

Chorus Plans Special Show December 10

Entering their fifth week of rehearsal in their current year, the Newton Community Chorus under the new director, Chandler Gregg, have been able to shake the dust off the "old reliable" compositions and, in addition, have been introduced to Randall Thompson's music. This music was inspired by several poems of Robert Frost which are used as the lyrics under the heading "Frostiana."

The Newton Community Chorus plans to present a special program on Dec. 10 in recognition of its 15th anniversary. This program will be held at the Newton Junior College Music Annex, paying special recognition to the loyal attendance over the years of Arthur Tooker, 185 Winslow Road, Julia McDonnell, 243 Linwood Avenue and Lucille Fullington, 29 Lasell St. Any and all are invited to the concert and need only telephone Mrs. Jean Miller at BI 4-4424 to indicate the number in their group that will be attending.

Science Service Bible Lesson

Subject of the Bible lesson to be read in all Christian Science services this Sunday is "Soul and Body."

The Scriptural readings include a verse from Psalms (27:14): "Wait on the Lord: be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the Lord."

The following passage will be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The divine Mind, which forms the bud and blossom, will care for the human body, even as it clothes the lily; but let no mortal interfere with God's government by thrusting in the laws of error, human concepts" (p. 62).

Francis W. Dahl Jr., of 47 Central Ave., Newtonville, a senior at Dennison University, Granville, Ohio, is a deputy group commander in the Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps program there.

"Scouting In Action" To Be Featured On Saturday

The North District of Norumbega Council, Boy Scouts of America, will present its fourth annual "SCOUTING IN ACTION" Show on Saturday, November 23rd at the West Newton Armory from 1 to 6 p.m.

One of the special features of the show will be a Pine Wood Derby directed by Pack 348 and an Air Space Derby directed by Pack 313. All boys, both Cubs and Scouts are invited to bring their cars or rockets and compete in these events. There will be ribbons for all winners of each heat and special prizes for the winners of the District Championship races to be run late in the afternoon. Cooper Eastman, of Pack 302 will head the team of judges for these special events.

Other special exhibits and activities will feature Hidden Valley Camping and the Order of the Arrow Dance Team on the stage; winter survival enacted by the boys on survival at Hidden Valley last winter.

Troop 331 will demonstrate both summer and winter camping; realistic first aid, marksmanship and safety will be actively demonstrated by Troop 324; Troop 301 will have a live surprise pioneering exhibit. Other Troops and their displays are 307, plaster casting; 311, fronting; 322, rope making and knots; 333, tenderfoot knots and conservation; 349, constellations; 355, the Civil War; physical fitness; Troop 315, and friction fires demonstrated by Troop 373.

Cub Scout Packs will display den activity and typical den meeting craft projects. Those represented will be 302, tie slides; 316 will again make and give away name pins, 306, 307, and 324.

Explorer Post 322 will demonstrate arts and crafts and Post 355 photography. Ship 313 will again man the galley as well as demonstrate Sea Exploring with boats, sails, ropes, and other nautical things.

An added attraction will be the Cadette Girl Scouts who will be there to show the boys a thing or two about scouting. Special booths in the show will be manned by Ed Power and his Norumbega archers, authorities on Philmont and Barron's Department Store, official outfitters of Scouts in Newton.

Jack "Uncle Bing" Crosby is general chairman assisted by William Mark; floor arrangements, Mr. Francis Kent, Joseph McEneaney; electrical arrangements, Francis Tom; show treasurer, Gunner Koskinen; district commissioner, Douglas Chrichton; scout executive, John Shaw; Mrs. Betsy Ross, publicity, and all Scoutmasters, Cubmasters, and Explorer advisors.

Tickets available at the door or from any Scout or Cub Scout in your neighborhood.

Parking Meters And Cars Keep Thieves Busy

Parking meters and automobiles are the prey of weekend thieves here.

An employee of a coin collecting service reported to police Monday that six meters in the Newton Centre municipal lot had been smashed and emptied.

A car parked in the Newton-Wellesley Hospital lot was found minus a spare wheel by its Wellesley owner.

Parts worth $100 were stripped from the car of Ronald Vincillio, 89 Gardner St., Newton, while it was at the Newton Auto Repair Company, West Newton.

Mrs. Elinor Margolis, 21 Scootney Rd., Oak Hill, reported the loss of four of her car's hub caps.

Firefighter Lawrence Sampson, 21 Dalby St., Newton, reported that the battery was taken from his car in the rear of the Waban fire station.

Irving Trachtenberg, 18 Cannon St., Newton, told police the garage door radio control was removed from his car near 96 McCarthy Rd., Oak Hill.

A similar theft was reported by Alexander Wolf, 43 Levee Rd., Newton Centre. A box containing garage door control was taken from his car near the Oak Hill School.

5 From Newton In R. I. Parley

Judith Ann Burgess Bride Of Lt. Peter T. Tarpgaard, Jr.

The Second Church in Newton was the recent setting for the marriage of Miss Judith Ann Burgess to Lt. Peter Thorvald Tarpgaard Jr., USN.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Emerson Burgess of West Newton and Mr. and Mrs. Peter T. Tarpgaard of Glen Ferris, West Virginia, are the couple's parents.

The Rev. Dr. Ross Cannon officiated at the 4 o'clock afternoon service. A reception was held at the Brae Burn Country Club in Newton.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in ivory brocade. The fitted bodice had a portrait neckline and elbow-length sleeves. The full skirt terminated in a circular train.

She chose a mantilla designed with Belgian lace, and carried a bouquet of miniature white carnations and stephanotis.

Miss Gretchen L. Straub of Cleveland, Ohio, was honor maid. The bridesmaids were Miss Joan S. Chase of West Newton, Miss Sara J. Geiger of Newton and Miss Emily A. Morgan of Tenafly, N.J.

Lt. Franklin W. Clark of Waterford, Ct., served as best man. Thomas B. Burgess of West Newton, brother of the bride, Lt. (j.g.) David C. Farley and Donald S. Yeaple, both of Groton, Ct., and Ensign Michael L. Kobar of New London, Ct., were the ushers.

The bride was graduated from Connecticut College, Class of 1961.

MRS. P. T. TARPGAARD JR. (Bradford Bachrach)

Lt. Tarpgaard is a graduate of the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, class of 1959.

Following a trip to Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands, the couple plan to make their home in Groton, Ct.

Milton Temple Setting For Sherman - Gross Wedding

The marriage of Miss Linda Helen Gross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold E. Gross of 145 Langley road, Newton Centre, to Albert Sherman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Sherman of Mattapan, took place recently at Milton's Temple Shalom.

Rabbi Jacob Hochman and the Rev. Irving Kischel officiated at the 6:30 o'clock double-ring service. A reception followed at the temple.

Given away by her father, the bride wore a gown fashioned of peau de soie and re-embroidered lace. The molded bodice had a scoop neckline. A polynesian drape designed the attractive skirt which terminated in a chapel-length train.

A tiered jeweled crown held in place her French illusion veil. She carried her Bible with a cascade of white orchids, stephanotis and miniature carnations.

Miss Susan Beth Gross of

Newton was her sister's sole attendant.

The bridegroom's brother, Arthur Sherman of Newton Highlands served as best man. The ushers were Alfred Mesnick of Randolph, Barry Bornstein of Mattapan, Eugene Perkins of New York, Barry Alpert of Milton, Robert Krasnow of Mattapan and Martin Bress of Boston.

The couple left on a trip to Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands. They are now at home at 48 Harvard street, Brookline.

The bride was graduated from Boston University.

Mr. Sherman is a graduate of the Massachusetts College of Pharmacy, Class of 1960.

Turkey Whist Saturday At Local School

A Turkey Whist and Forty-five party for the benefit of the parish Building Fund will be held in Our Lady's School cafeteria, 575 Washington Street, Newton, next Saturday evening, November 23, starting at 8 p.m.

Top prizes for the winners of the event will include many turkeys, linens, and a variety of household items.

Refreshments will be served during intermission under the direction of Mrs. William Paul.

Mrs. Charles May heads the committee planning the event and she is being assisted by Misses Joan and Patricia Barr, Mrs. Daniel Barton, Mrs. John Coffey, Mrs. John Powers, Mrs. William King, Mrs. Richard Sheehy, Misses Maria and Ann St. George, and Miss Joan Welch. Arrangements at the party will be under the direction of George McGoldrick.

Gibbs said he felt Segal would have done a good job on the Housing Authority. Under the law the Mayor must name a member of organized labor to the present opening on the board.

Aldermen Harry H. Ham, Jr., and William M. Glovsky were absent when the vote was taken, and Alderman William C. Armen, chairman of the Housing Authority, abstained from voting.

Since the vote was taken by secret ballot, there is no record as to who opposed Segal's appointment.

Political Highlights

Peabody's biggest problems undoubtedly still lie before him. Some of them may stem from his patronage grabs.

Whether Peabody's legislative successes will help or hurt his reelection prospects will depend on the performances by Peabody himself and his appointees.

For instance, his feat in jamming through his sweeping reorganization of the State Public Works Department will boomerang against Peabody unless his men do a better job of running that agency than did Jack P. Ricciardi.

Peabody's triumph in his all-out battle to revamp the DPW has been the high point in his administration to date. It enhanced his stature and increased his prestige.

Yet, his fight was accompanied by so many gleaming promises and so much fanfare and ballyhoo that he may have caused the people to expect more than he can deliver.

As has been repeatedly pointed out, Peabody now has direct control over everything the DPW does. He has secured greater patronage power than any Governor in Massachusetts history. It will not be possible for the agency to hire a truck or to put a college student to work on a summer job without the okay of his office.

In seeking and assuming that enormous power, which, of course, can swing votes at a Democratic State Convention, Peabody also takes on terrific responsibilities and potential headaches if anything goes wrong.

His critics will be watching closely for any abuses of his patronage power and for any slip in the DPW which can be made a campaign issue. In an agency whose operations are so sprawling and far-reaching it isn't difficult to find things to criticize.

Rarely has there been a time when the DPW has not been a public whipping boy. If it remains one for the next 10 months, Peabody will be badly hurt.

Peabody has been the spending Governor in all the annals of the Commonwealth.

He approved a pay raise for everyone at the State House, including himself — provided he is reelected next November.

The whopping boost in the salary of the Governor from $20,000 to $35,000 a year becomes effective Jan. 1, 1965.

There has been a great deal of criticism of members of the Legislature for voting themselves a $2600 hike and raising their pay from $5200 to $7800 a year. A move is underway to place that increase on the ballot next year for approval or rejection by the voters.

In all fairness, however, if a Lieutenant Governor, who holds a position that is largely ceremonial except when he sits as a member of the Executive Council, is worth $16,000 a year, then the average legislator is underpaid at $7,800.

Speculation already has developed on Beacon Hill as to whether Peabody will need additional taxes next year to balance his budget for the fiscal year which ends next June 1.

Most experts on State finance express the belief that Peabody will be able to get by within the present tax framework, thanks largely to the withholding system which Senate President Powers was instrumental in putting into effect.

Whether Peabody needs new taxes or not, the hard fact is that he will not get them in 1964 — an election year.

Regardless of what forecasts or predictions you may read, there will be no sales tax enacted in Massachusetts next year.

the members of the Legislature — was responsible for the length of the 1963 legislative session, the third longest in history.

Peabody waited until far into the legislative session before submitting major portions of his program.

Because of the inexperience of Peabody and his aides, many of the measures they filed with the Legislature were unworkable.

Powers and other legislative leaders said nothing about that. They didn't want to make Peabody look bad.

But it took time for them to revise and revamp Peabody's bills and put them in proper form.

They were stunned when Peabody turned on them at the session's end in a row over one career employee he wanted to displace and one job he wanted to fill.

As the legislative session drew to a close, rumors swirled around the head of controversial House Speaker John F. Thompson.

One was that Thompson will face a fight to retain the speakership when the Legislature reconvenes at the start of 1964.

Another was that Thompson will be appointed to an important position by Governor Peabody.

The likelihood seems to be that Thompson will serve out his term in the House, that he will retain his mantle of speaker and will fight off any challenge against him if one should develop in January.

Last Hurrah For Knocko McCormack

There never was a more colorful political figure than Edward J. (Knocko) McCormack who died this week of cancer.

His enthusiasm and ebullience when he was campaigning for his son, former Attorney General Edward J. McCormack, Jr., or his brother, Congressional Speaker John W. McCormack, were unbounded.

They might try to tone him down in advance of a rally, a meeting or a convention. But it was like trying to sweep back the waves of the ocean with a broom.

Knocko, as he was known to Presidents, Governors, United States Senators and the little people in South Boston he helped, always said exactly what he thought.

And he said it in terms nobody could misunderstand. He made enemies in campaigns, for any contest in which his son or his brother was engaged, was a life and death matter to Knocko. He asked no quarter, and he gave none.

The feuds and the animosities were forgotten as soon as the votes were counted.

Knocko would oppose a Democratic adversary so bitterly in a primary that an observer would expect the grudge to be carried to the grave. But if the Democratic adversary won in the primary, Knocko would turn around and support him to the hilt in the final election.

He was big, bluff and likable, one of the vanishing old-line politicians. Except for an unflattering reference to his son or his brother, the easiest way to annoy him was to mention some kindness he had just performed.

Ex-Sen. John Adams To Run For Governor

Former State Senator John Adams has decided to seek the Republican nomination for Governor.

When he served in the upper branch of the Legislature, Adams, although a middle-of-the-roader, was somewhat more liberal than most of his GOP colleagues.

If he thought a measure was right, he voted for it, irrespective of the position of his party leaders. He probably will run on a platform of liberalizing the GOP.

Dumaine Ouster Move Delayed Until Spring

No move will be made to oust Republican State Chairman Frederic C. Dumaine, Jr., when the GOP State Committee meets next Tuesday night, but the session promises to provide plenty of fireworks.

The fight to replace Dumaine probably will come next May after a new State Committee is elected in the Presidential primaries.

An attempt will be made to place the official GOP State organization, on record as favoring the referendum on the $2600-a-year legislative pay raise.

This, of course, would be embarrassing to those Republican law-makers who voted in favor of the wage hike, and they are certain to resist the move.

It is somewhat surprising that the matter is being revived since the committee last summer defeated a resolution praising Republican legislators who voted against the salary increase.

"Thanksgiving Crusade" For Retarded Children Dec. 1st

The birth in the family is a time of joy.

There is the child, tiny and tender, squalling and slumberous, fulfilling a dream—bringing immense pride and a touch of glory to the parents.

This is the normal course of events. But there are the abnormal, also.

What of the parents who see the dream become a kind of nightmare as the months reach into years, and they find themselves wondering and worrying at the child's inability to grasp, to cope.

And then comes the final crushing realization that "something is wrong" and the ultimate diagnosis: the child is mentally retarded. This tragic destiny strikes the families of 3 out of every 100 babies born in the United States.

A generation ago, such a child, would be destined to live out a life of uselessness and joylessness, and in many instances severe neglect. For of all human afflictions, mental retardation has been the most maligned and misunderstood, shrouded by centuries of public ignorance and prejudice.

But today is a far different story. The history of the movement for the mentally retarded is the saga of social revolution in which parents have sought freedom from the shackles of their own shame and liberation of their children from the bonds of public bigotry. Over the past decade, new horizons of help and hope have opened for the 5,400,000 Americans who are mentally retarded.

Here in Greater Boston, the movement for emancipating the retarded from second to first class citizenship is embodied in the Greater Boston Association for Retarded Children, Inc.

Within 15 years, this organization has grown from ten founding mothers to a membership of 1200; its programs expanded from desperately needed counsel for parents to a broad spectrum of special services answering some of the endless needs of 45,000 mentally retarded individuals in 14 Greater Boston communities.

The Association's enlightened, progressive programs conducted by skilled, dedicated professionals are returning the vast majority of the retarded considered "educable" to the community as productive, self-respecting, self-sufficient citizens.

Take the case of a young man in this community. He is nineteen years old and went through the public school special class system. Then his parents, tremendously concerned about his future, looked around for skills training. They were brought to the Greater Boston Association for Retarded Children where the Vocational Adjustment Center program was outlined to them.

This is a program sponsored by the Association, with the aid of a federal grant and financial support from the Friends of BARC, in which a dozen career skills for mentally retarded persons are taught. VAC graduates work in hospitals, electronic plants, gas stations, heavy industry, department stores, supermarkets and many other places of employment requiring basic skills.

The young man from this community found his interest centering on carpentry and he is now working in the maintenance division of a large factory. He has become a contributing member of his community—a taxpayer, a contented and useful citizen exercising his inalienable right to fulfill his maximum potential as a human being.

The Greater Boston Association sponsors a variety of such programs for the mentally retarded of all ages. At its 42 The Fenway headquarters and in its 14-member communities, BARC sponsors nursery, special education, recreation, social and vocational training classes; Scout programs, teen-age social events, and in some areas, religious training for children of the major faiths. BARC programming also extends to parent-counseling and parent and public education, as well as financial support of vital research into the causes and prevention of mental retardation.

A short decade ago, such dynamic programming would have been impossible.

But today, a new public awareness and accelerated governmental and private support have opened new horizons of opportunity for the mentally retarded.

Yet the waiting lists are still tragically long. Many more special classes, special teachers, special facilities are urgently needed.

On Sunday, December 1st, the Greater Boston Association for Retarded Children will stage a "Thanksgiving Crusade" for funds house to house

SPECIAL NURSERY CLASS—Patience, skill and understanding of the teacher of a special nursery class will guide these mentally retarded youngsters through a variety of learning experiences and to an eventual future as self-sufficient, self-respecting citizens.

Roll-Land Skating Rink To Celebrate 25th Anniversary

Roll-Land Skating Rink in Norwood will be celebrating its 25th anniversary on Wednesday, Nov. 27. A giant 75-pound birthday cake will be cut up and passed out along with a birthday gift to all who attend.

There will also be exhibitions by our current world champions, Diane Kern and David Tassinari, who just returned from Las Vegas after defeating other champions from United States, Canada, European Countries, Australia, and New Zealand. These skaters will be televised on "Wide-World of Sports," December 14.

In addition, there will be exhibitions by many other national champions. The people of this area will have a chance to see first hand the top skaters in the world. They are taught and trained here in Norwood. Among the other exhibitionists will be Nancy Lou Johnson, only 15 years old, already has eight gold medals in national competition and too many to mention in this community and 13 others. When a volunteer calls on you, remember that retarded children CAN be helped, and give generously.

Deadline for Coast Guard Applications

Eligible young men are reminded that the deadline for submitting applications to compete for appointment as a Cadet in the U.S. Coast Guard, is approaching.

The 88th annual competition for admission to the U.S. Coast Guard Academy at New London, Conn., will commence with the December 7, administration of the College Entrance Examination Board tests. Appointments are made solely on a competitive basis, with no Congressional appointments or geographical quotas.

An applicant must be an unmarried high school senior or graduate who has reached his 17th but not his 22nd birthday by July 1, 1964. Applicants must be high school graduates who have earned 15 units by June 30, 1964, including the following units:

Three in English, two in Algebra, and one in Plane Geometry.

Applicants must be in excellent physical condition, between 64 and 78 inches in height, with proportionate weight, and have at least 20/30 vision in each eye, correctable to 20/20.

Additional information and application forms can be obtained from high school guidance counselors or by writing to the Commandant (PTP-2), U.S. Coast Guard, Washington, D.C., 20226.

Parcel Post packages for Pacific Coast States should be deposited by Dec. 2. For all other states outside of the New England area gift packages should be mailed not later than Dec. 7 with New England parcels due for mailing by Dec. 14.

Christmas cards for all states, outside of New England are scheduled for mailing by surface transportation no later than Dec. 10—New England and local cards by Dec. 15.

Air parcel post gift and air mail cards can be mailed to any part of the United States for Christmas up to the week before the holiday.

Postmaster Martin again called public attention to the reduced shopping time offered this year with five less shopping days between Thanksgiving and Christmas and he urged buying now so that mailings can be made on time.

The new Christmas postage stamp is already on sale at all postoffices. The postmaster stated that the demand for the issue of last Christmas exhausted the supply considerably before the holiday. Superintendents of local postoffices report a big advance sale of the 1963 Christmas stamp which reproduces a three-color painting of the National Christmas tree on the eastern Ellipse near the White House. It went on first sale at Santa Claus, Indiana, on Nov. 1.

Postal officials request all business firms and organizations planning volume mailings between now and Christmas to advance their normal deposit, wherever possible, and to mail in the morning instead of at night.

EARLY DEADLINE - TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 26th, 12 NOON

Health For All

(Prepared by Norfolk County TB and Health Ass'n.)

We live in a child-centered culture — so the oft-heard story goes. And yet, a discussion in the Journal of the American Medical Association points out, physical abuse of children by their parents is on the increase.

The "battered child syndrome," in fact, is estimated to be one of the most frequent causes of child death. Only a small percentage of such tragedies are officially reported in their true guise. No matter how plain the medical evidence, the facts are extremely difficult to establish 100 per cent. in a court of law.

Psychologically, parental cruelty is a fact of life difficult for most of us to face. Yet those who do face it grow increasingly aware that abusive parents aren't criminals in the ordinary sense. They are basically disturbed, in need of protection against themselves.

What makes them beat their children? Psychiatrists have found that patterns of child-rearing are passed from one generation to another. Many abusive parents find themselves willy nilly repeating the treatment they received. Psychologically, they are still angry children. When life is too difficult, they often can't help acting like angry children. They break their dolls.

The majority of abusive parents don't suffer from "hopeless" mental disorders. Nor do social or economic status, race or religion appear to be important factors. Abusive parents are generally found to be immature, unable to cope with adult reality. But in general, they can be helped.

Psychological counseling in fact seems to offer the most hopeful pathway to correction of this tragic situation, most authorities agree. More hopeful, at any rate, than yielding to attitudes of revulsion, disbelief, or irrelevant wrath.

Teen Time Topics

By DOT DUNN

Dear Dot,
I have a very high forehead and red hair. My eyebrows are so light one can scarcely see them. Please help me solve the problem of how to pick the proper hair-do. I should like to lessen the long drawn-out look I seem to give. —J. U.

Dear J. U.,
You are in luck because you will look better with one of today's hair styles featuring semi-bangs or bangs. This will give your face a more rounded look. Use a gray eyebrow pencil. Practice with rather short feathery strokes, and soon you'll give a natural eyebrow line that will do wonders for you.

Dear Dot,
I am 15 years old and an only child. My father just won't allow me to date. Don't you think this is unfair? —Meg.

Dear Meg,
Why not participate in mixed school activities and join in your church and community mixed socials? If you show your father that you are not overly interested in one boy, he may allow you to date when you are old enough. Why not seek help from your mother? She certainly understands you both. Most experts agree with your father about single dating at your age. Try to develop gradually and not rush into this phase of growing up.

Dear Dot,
I have one older brother. My parents appear to favor me. This is making it hard for both of us. I just don't like this any better than he does. I don't seem to know how to make them realize the mistake they are making. —D. F.

Dear D. F.,
Why not have a heart-to-heart talk with your mother. You didn't say, but I'll bet you cooperate with your parents more often than your brother does. Often this is harder for the conformer than the non-conformer. Perhaps your mother will see the light and be able to change this situation.

Dear Dot,
My orthodontist has made me give up my favorite instrument, the clarinet, because my teeth can't take the pressure. I am lost because I just loved it and was pretty good at it. Any ideas on what I could do in its place? —L. C.

Dear L. C.,
I hope that you have a piano. I know of another young gal who had to do the same thing and she is very happy with the piano—she has no regrets.

Incinerator, Dog Leash Law, Still Not Decided

With only two more regular meetings scheduled before the end of the year, the Board of Aldermen on Monday night began to clear their docket of matters which have been awaiting action for long periods of time.

Two measures which have not yet been acted upon, however, are a petition for a dog leash law and a recommendation by Mayor Donald L. Gibbs that a bond issue be floated to finance the construction of a municipal incinerator.

A petition by the Linda Land Corporation for the right to build a development of garden-type apartments on Vernon street in the Newton Corner area failed to win approval.

Twelve Aldermen voted in favor of the land use and site plan submitted by Linda Land Corporation and 11 against it. However, Aldermanic President Wendell R. Bauckman explained that 16 votes—representing two-thirds of the members of the board—were needed to approve the plan since property-owners in the area had objected to the proposal.

The 11 Aldermen who voted against the plan were William Carmen, Ernest F. Dietz, William A. Diman, Harry H. Ham, Jr., William E. Hopkins, Charles F. Hovey, Theodore D. Mann, John P. McCarthy, William P. Riley, Harry A. Walen and Wendell R. Bauckman. The other 12 voted for it except for William M. Glovsky who was absent.

It is expected that the Linda Land Corp. will resubmit its petition after the incoming Board of Aldermen assumes office in January.

The garden-type buildings would be limited to two and a half stories in height.

Aldermen McCarthy made an unsuccessful fight for a zoning change which would restrict construction in the Vernon street section to two-family homes.

McCarthy's petition, which had been pending before the board for some time, was defeated by a 14-9 vote.

The nine who voted in favor of it were Aldermen Carmen, Dietz, Diman, Ham, Hopkins, Mann, McCarthy, Ripley and Walen.

Equal Rights In Housing Is Theme of Forum

"Equal Rights in Housing," fourth forum in a series on racial justice, will be presented by Auburndale Congregational Church Tuesday, November 26, at 8 p.m.

Guest speakers will include Lewis Watts, graduate student at Brandeis and former executive director of the Urban League of Seattle, Wash.; Samuel Turner, teacher in the Newton public school system and director of the Newton Fair Housing and Equal Rights Committee; and William Bowers of Bowers Real Estate, West Newton, a former member of NFHERC. Moderator for the discussion will be Luther Manning, teacher at Warren Junior High School in West Newton.

The program will be held in the assembly room of the church's parish hall, Hancock street and Woodland road, Auburndale. The public is invited.

Newton Set To Win In Brookline Contest

Newton High School's football team, unbeaten in its last five games, will wind up its season with its traditional Thanksgiving morning clash with Brookline High.

The contest will be played at Brookline, with the kickoff scheduled for 10:30 a.m.

On the basis of the season's records of the two teams, the game looms as a tossup.

Newton, which started slowly, has won four games, lost three and tied one.

Brookline has won four games, lost two and tied one.

In only one contest this fall have Coach Jim Ronayne's Newton High Tigers been decisively defeated. That was their 29-6 loss to Weymouth when four players were sidelined.

With a few breaks, Newton could have won over Everett and Brockton, the other two teams to which it lost.

In fairness, Coach Ronayne's team was operating under a handicap at the season's start.

Newton is the only team in its league which does not have spring football practice. So it took the Tigers longer to get rolling than it did its opponents.

With but one exception, the members of Newton's starting offensive and defensive teams are seniors who will be playing their last high school football game on Thursday morning. They will be out to wind up their schoolboy careers in a blaze of glory.

Co-Captains Steve Carroll and Dave Bliss, Ken O'Connell, Marty O'Gorman, Fred Magarian, Jim Hoover, Ron Arra, Jim Hoover, Steve Woodruff, Roger Watson, Pete Shattuck, Sam Rosenberg, Dick Evans, Tony Conti, Al Ryan, Larry Gentilucci, Frank Grant, Walter Alessi and Lewis Watts all will be donning their Newton High uniforms for the last time Thanksgiving morning.

The lone member of the starting aggregations who is not a senior is junior Guy Reynolds, 183-pound defensive linebacker.

Coach Ronayne reports that his charges will be in reasonably good physical condition for their season-ending encounter.

Students In City 'Adopt' Foreign Waifs

Two youngsters, one in Saigon, the other in northeastern Greece, are assured of schooling and a stepping stone to self-help as a result of their "financial" adoption by the Student Council of Newton High School.

Under the adoption through Foster Parents Plan, Inc., of New York, the Student Council members agree to contribute $15 per month for a year to the support of each child.

The Saigon youngster is Nguyen Thi Ngoc Hanh, an active, healthy, normally developed girl who likes to study and wants to continue her schooling. At home she is surrounded by misery and abject poverty. Her parents had tuberculosis for a couple of years and their condition is run down. The grandmother called off Monday, and the Tigers were restricted to light workouts this week.

After losing their first three games to Everett, Brockton and Weymouth, the Tigers roared back to defeat Watertown, Medford, Beverly and Waltham and tie Arlington.

Now they're pointing for the big game of the year with Brookline.

Thanksgiving Joy Is Saddened By Tragedy

Thanksgiving, 1963, in Newton homes will not be quite the same as in other years.

But the shadow cast by the tragic death of President John F. Kennedy will give a somber note to what is traditionally a most festive holiday.

Many will attend to sharpen up their appetites. As hundreds upon hundreds of persons visit their churches to offer their prayers of Thanksgiving, they also will murmur a prayer for the happy repose of the soul of our martyred President.

Few will be able to forget that the Kennedy family compound in Hyannisport, which was to have been the scene of a joyous Thanksgiving reunion, will be muted instead by grief.

But life must go on, and Newton will join with the rest of the nation in following closely the customs inaugurated by the early Pilgrims as an expression of thankfulness for an abundant harvest.

To as great an extent as they can residents throughout the Newtons will make this Thanksgiving the kind of day the Pilgrim fathers intended it to be—a day of thanksgiving for all that is ours in a land of plenty — a land of freedom.

For most Newtonites it will be a quiet, leisurely holiday at home, a day of family gatherings and good talk, a day of savoring the aromas which drift out from the

EDITORIAL

John Fitzgerald Kennedy

John Fitzgerald Kennedy was President of the United States for two years, ten months and two days. Yet, in that time he left his imprint upon the nation and the world and in the hearts of men.

He was the kind of President of whom every American could be truly proud, whatever their political beliefs and convictions.

He will be remembered for many things.

For the leadership he displayed when the United States stood on the brink of nuclear war with the Soviet Union over the missile bases in Cuba.

For the way he risked his own political future as he fought to uphold the constitutional rights of all Americans, whatever the color of their skin.

For his youthful vitality even though those who knew him well realized that he was aging under the enormous burdens he carried.

For many little things such as the memory of his small son peering out from under his desk.

Many tributes have been paid to this man of goodwill. Eloquent farewells have been spoken and written. Little can be added that hasn't already been said.

But in their sadness and sorrow over his tragic death the people who mourn him can take some solace from the fact that the work John Fitzgerald Kennedy did as President will live on after him.

Michael A. O'Neil of 38 Cherry pl., West Newton, has been named by Congressman Joseph W. Martin, Jr., as an alternate for appointment to the West Point Military Academy. O'Neil would be appointed to the academy if the principal designated by Martin for any reason is not enrolled there.

Anthony J. Terry of 125 Highland ave., Newtonville, was nominated by Martin as an alternate for appointment to the Naval Academy at Annapolis.

South High Favorite In Hingham Grid Test

A Newton South High School football team, which is only seven inches away from an undefeated season, will be a slight favorite over Hingham High when the two teams meet at Dickinson Stadium on Thanksgiving morning. The game will start at 10 a.m.

It will be the fourth Thanksgiving Day contest between Newton South and Hingham. Of the three games that have been played, the Lions of Newton South have won two, and Hingham has won once.

Newton South has a record of six victories and two defeats. It won over Framingham North, Stoughton, Leominster, Wellesley, Lexington and Framingham South.

Its two losses came at the hands of Fitchburg and Rindge Tech.

In the Fitchburg game the Lions were trailing 8-6 and six inches from a winning touchdown when the whistle blew to end the contest.

In the Rindge game, which they lost 12-8, the Lions were one inch from the goal line of their Cambridge opponents when the encounter ended.

Coach George Winkler reports that his charges will be in their best physical shape since the Lexington game.

Winkler, now serving his second season as South's head coach, makes no secret of his pride in his team.

"We're not the strongest or the fastest team," he declares. "But I don't think you will find a team with more desire. These boys may make mistakes. But they never quit and never stop trying."

Teacher Is Honored For Leadership

Miss Anna P. Fessenden of 131 Elliot Ave., West Newton, who taught school in Needham for 27 years and retired a year ago, has been honored with the Valley Forge Teachers Medal for her "exceptional work in teaching responsible citizenship and a better understanding of the American Way of Life."

The presentation was made by a former Newtonite who taught in the schools here, William M. Powers, now superintendent of the Needham schools.

By JAMES G. COLBERT

President Kennedy's Death Changes Political Picture

It is almost impossible to assess the political effects and repercussions of the death of President Kennedy. But it is an understatement to report that they will be staggering, not only here in Massachusetts but throughout the nation.

If any evidence were needed that President Kennedy would have been overwhelmingly reelected next year, it was provided tragically in the stunned grief and the spontaneous sorrow which engulfed the entire country at the shocking news of his assassination.

Few political observers fully realized the extent to which this lithe, handsome son of Massachusetts had captured the hearts and the imagination of the American people.

The full impact of what John F. Kennedy meant to the United States hit with explosive force within minutes after the horrifying news that his life had been ended by an assassin's bullet.

But now John Fitzgerald Kennedy is a martyred President, whose name belongs to history with that of Abraham Lincoln and about whom children yet unborn will be reading in their classrooms generations hence, as they read today about Lincoln and Washington.

Teacher Is Honored

Miss Anna Fessenden, of Newton, a former Needham teacher, receives coveted Valley Forge Classroom Teachers Medal from William M. Powers, Needham superintendent and former Newtonite.

Teacher

Mr. Powers has described Miss Fessenden as "an outstanding teacher and director of mathematics. Throughout her entire teaching career," he said, "she has been faithful to the highest ideals of her profession."

"As a teacher and as a person, she has made a lasting impression on those who have been privileged to associate with her."

The Valley Forge Classroom Teachers Medal is awarded by Freedom Foundation, and is designed to honor teachers throughout the United States whose work inspires youngsters to assume characteristics of good citizens.

Miss Fessenden was one of 332 teachers to be given the award this year. They were selected by members of a distinguished independent awards jury comprising Supreme Court Justices and national heads of patriotic, veterans, and service club organizations. Nominations are submitted by the general public.

In announcing the award to Miss Fessenden, Dr. Kenneth D. Wells, president of the Foundation, wrote as follows to the school system of which she was a member:

"You are to be congratulated for having a teacher of this high caliber on your staff. The officers, trustees and directors of Freedom Foundation at Valley Forge join me in the highest commendation."

Park Commission And Others Oppose Charles River Land Swap

The question of whether there can be an exchange of land on the Charles River in the vicinity of the Auburndale duck feeding area is in the hands of the Governor's Council.

At a hearing before the Council last week, opposition of the city of Newton was recorded when Charles E. Downe, city planning consultant, appeared as a representative of the Board of Park Commissioners and read a letter signed by the board's chairman J. Howard Loughman.

Also recorded as opposed were Mrs. Helen A. Heyn of 21 Alexander road, Newton Highlands, representing the Newton Conservators, Inc.; Rep. Lorenz F. Muther Jr., and Mrs. Joseph B. Fyffe of Wellesley, representing the Garden Clubs of Massachusetts.

The two parcels of land involved in the exchange, which is proposed by the Metropolitan District Commission, are adjacent and begin at the old foot bridge to recreation grounds in Auburndale, a half-mile or so from that part of the river near Norumbega Park where for many years children have fed the sizeable duck population of the area.

One parcel is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Gilligan of Wellesley. The other is MDC land that has belonged to the commission since 1898 and, according to the commission, cannot be legally approached by land.

The Gilligan parcel is one of only a few that are not now owned by MDC, and its acquisition is described as part of a long-range program of controlling the land and land under the river that was begun in 1893. Aim of the program is to make the river more attractive for recreational use. Arguments of the opposition involve technical and legal points in the deeds, which the Newton park commissioners view as inadequate to protect the city's interest in sewer and draining easements of the land.

Filing Of Civil Service Forms Is Completed

A three-month program of transferring civil service applications for labor service has been completed in the Veterans Service office, it has been announced by Carleton P. Merrill, city civil service registration clerk.

Accumulated applications dating back to 1908 have been sorted and packaged by application numbers and dates and placed within the vault for future reference.

In making the transfer of records from the year 1908 to 1949, the more recent applications filed during the 15 years have been refiled by number and by date in the active office files so that prompt reference to same may be made without delay.

While the active file continues to hold records for the past 15 year period, the transfer of the older records still allows for an 8-year expansion before another transfer of records will have to be done according to Mr. Merrill.

Along with the work completed with the application forms, companion index cards were also transferred, sorted and filed by numbers and by dates.

Assisting with this work, which will allow the department more efficiently to service the needs of Newton citizens were Mrs. Phyllis G. Horgan, principal clerk and Mrs. Margaret M. Kenneally, clerk.

Newton Women On Committee Of Holly Fair

Miss Priscilla Carter and Mrs. Barbara Lahti of Newton are working with the Cambridge Center for Adult Education on plans for the Center's annual Holly Fair. Miss Carter and Mrs. Lahti are members of the Center's Advisory Committee.

The Holly Fair has become a Christmas tradition for residents of the Boston area. The White Elephants, Country Store, gift shops and many other booths offer the Christmas shopper unusual and inspired items for giving. The Fair will be open from 1 to 9 p.m. on Friday, Dec. 6 and 10 to 4 p.m. on Saturday, Dec. 7.

Santa Claus Has Zip Code Number Also

The Post Office Department is getting together with Santa Claus this year to make sure that children who write to the North Pole get an answer from the best-known citizen up there. Postmaster Ephraim Martin said today.

In order to identify these letters they should be addressed as follows: SANTA CLAUS, North Pole 99701. The number is Santa's special Zip Code. In order for Santa to answer each letter they must have a return address and the Zip Code for the sender, said the postmaster.

Santa's reply to the children's note, to be delivered free of any additional charge through the courtesy of the Postal Service, will be a gaily decorated card with an appropriate reply to please the children. All that is required is the note from the child to Santa with regular 5 cent postage on the envelope, together with the Zip-Coded address and the return address.

Postmaster Martin commented, "We are very pleased to make this service available to the children on their big day. Actually, we in the Post Office have been Santa's biggest helper for many years, and I think it is very appropriate that we extend our lines of communication a little at Christmas for the youngsters."

Postal officials stated that thousands of letters have already been received from Santa Claus at the Boston Post Office and it is expected that Santa will receive additional thousands before the December 15th deadline for his getting replies to the youngsters.

Sisterhood In Annual Torah Fund Meeting

Temple Mishkan Tefila Sisterhood will hold its annual Torah Fund meeting at the Temple on Hammond Pond Parkway on Wednesday, December 4.

A petite luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m. Mrs. Morris Levy, president, will preside, and Mrs. Robert Devorin is program chairman.

Hostesses for the day will be Mrs. B. Leonard Kolovson, who will give the invocation; Mrs. Melvin Kolovson, who will speak on Judaism in the Home, and Mrs. Carl Grupp, who will introduce the program.

Rabbi Israel J. Kazis will speak on the Torah Fund Drive, and Cantor Gregor Shekian will give a musical program, accompanied by Professor Solomon G. Braslavsky. Guest speaker will be Michael M. Tapper, rabbinical student from the Jewish Theological Seminary, who will discuss his life and thoughts at the seminary.

Hospitality will be arranged by Mrs. Louis Narva, assisted by Mrs. Benjamin Williams, Mrs. Philip Weisman, Mrs. George Kaplan, Mrs. Louis Shrair, Mrs. Jack Adelson, Mrs. Edward Rosenthal, and Mrs. Bernard Abelman.

Fitness Topic Of Davis PTA

Physical fitness will be the theme of the Davis School PTA meeting on Monday evening, Dec. 2, in the school auditorium.

Frank M. Simmons, supervisor of Physical Health and Safety Education for the Newton School system, will join with Miss Helen D. Brei-vogel whose special responsibility is the elementary and girls secondary program, in a discussion of physical fitness testing.

With the help of 10 Davis School pupils, Keith Adams, the school's physical education teacher for fourth, fifth and sixth grades, will demonstrate the tests the children have taken and will show exercises which can be done at school and at home.

3 Insurance Men Given Honors

Three residents of the Newtons have been elected as directors of the Boston Life Underwriters Association.

Newton-Wellesley Hospital Praised For Patient Care

Newton-Wellesley Hospital, its staff and administration, were commended for providing good care of patients and for maintenance of high standards by the Joint Commission of Accreditation of Hospitals.

The commendation was included in a letter from Kenneth B. Babcock, M.D., director of the Joint Commission, notifying the hospital that it had been accredited for another three years, the maximum period for which such authority is conferred.

Hospitals across the nation are regularly reviewed by the Joint Commission as a means of assuring patients that acceptable standards of medical and hospital care are being maintained. Member agencies of the Commission are the American College of Physicians, American College of Surgeons, American Hospital Association and the American Medical Association.

In the letter to William S. Brines, director of the hospital, Dr. Babcock stated, "The Commission wishes to commend you for maintaining standards deserving of accreditation and for your constant efforts to improve the quality of patient care."

A physician representative of the Commission visited Newton-Wellesley Hospital on Oct. 1. He met with administrative and medical staff representatives, reviewed extensive statistical data, medical records, minutes of meetings, and the policies, procedures and regulations of the medical Staff and the hospital. The visit included a methodical tour of the hospital and its services and discussion with various department heads.

Commenting on the accreditation program, Director Brines said, "A hospital voluntarily seeks to maintain the highest standards of patient care. That is the toughest continuing task facing a hospital. It is gratifying when an impartial observer on behalf of the community rates your work highly. It is reassuring, too, since the entire hospital effort is directed toward the best in patient care under circumstances which provide maximum patient safety and comfort."

Emerson strengthened their lead to 20 points with eight minutes left in the game, but the Junior College Bears started a scoring spree that just fell short.

Captain Ken McDonald of Newton chipped in with 22 points, topping all scorers. Bob Pentz had 13 points and picked off 20 rebounds for the losers.

Although disappointed by defeat, Coach Leo Judge praised the team for determined effort. Newton out-rebounded Emerson 58-34, but Emerson shot 40 per cent from the floor to Newton's 26 per cent.

Child Guidance Plans To Be Unveiled Dec. 3

Dr. Joseph Sabbath, prominent local child psychiatrist, will unveil the details of Newton's proposed child guidance clinic. His talk will be given at the rally for Action for Mental Health in Children, held at 8:00 p.m. next Tuesday (Dec. 3) at the War Memorial Auditorium in Newton City Hall.

Many of the questions the public has been asking will be answered by Dr. Sabbath's talk. What is the extent of Newton's need for such a clinic? Who is eligible for treatment? How much will treatment cost? How will the clinic be run? Who will staff it? What part does the state play in operating the clinic? Will parents be seen as well as the children? In what ways will the clinic support the work of existing social and private psychiatric services?

Dr. Sabbath was educated in Canada, Europe, and the United States. Currently, in addition to private practice, he is Instructor in Psychiatry at Harvard Medical School, a psychiatric consultant to Massachusetts Mental Health Center and Jewish Family and Children's Services, and a contributor to publications in the field of child psychiatry. Dr. Sabbath is also a member of the Professional Advisory Board of AMHIC, the group which offers direction and counsel relative to professional matters associated with the clinic.

The proposed clinic's history dates back many months, but now needs only the support of Newton's citizens to become a reality within a relatively short period of time. All forces within the city have now banded together in a coordinated effort to bring the clinic to Newton's children. Recognized local authorities have testified as to the need. Dr. Landry of the Newton School system, for example, has stated that hundreds of local children could profit from clinic assistance.

It is expected that a large turnout will be at the War Memorial Auditorium on next Tuesday, where a workshop will be conducted to enable all interested citizens a chance to contribute their efforts to this worthwhile project. Also on the program will be Mayor Donald Gibbs, Dr. Edward Lindy, Director of Guidance Services, Newton Public Schools, Kenneth Huberman, President of Action for Mental Health in Children, Dr. Reuben Margolin, Associate Professor of Social Sciences, Northeastern University, and City Clerk Monte Basbas, Vice-President of AMHIC.

William C. Sear of 315 Otis St., West Newton, has pledged to the Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity at Kenyon College, Gambier, Ohio. The son of the Rev. and Mrs. William A. Sear was graduated from Newton High School last June.

Newton Women Active In Crittenton League Fair

The annual Crittenton Fair of the Wellesley-Newton-Needham area of the Florence Crittenton League will be held at Christ Episcopal Church, 1132 Highland Ave., Needham, on Thursday, December 5, from 9:30 a. m. to 4:00 p. m.

The fair will be under the direction of Mrs. Gorham W. Humphrey, Mrs. George F. Allard and Mrs. Philip H. Bird.

Special decorations have been planned by Mrs. Robert E. Lee, chairman of decorations. A snack bar will be open during the day.

The Newton Circle chairman for the fair, Mrs. Alphonse P. Chiappisi, will be assisted by Mrs. George Cahill, Mrs. Victor A. Noel, treasurer, and Mrs. Herbert A. Murphy, publicity.

The table for the Newton Circle will feature antiques and jewelry. In addition, costume jewelry, handmade as a hobby in her Waban home, will be displayed for sale by Mildred J. Hoffbauer.

The White Elephant table, always a great favorite, will be under the combined supervision of all five Circles in the Area.

A baby sitting service will be available all day by the Needham Junior Circle, under the supervision of Mrs. Donald F. Fraig.

The proceeds of this event go toward the support of Crittenton Hastings House, a non-sectarian home for the care of unwed mothers. The Florence Crittenton League is a Red Feather Agency sharing in the United Fund.

Seven In Line For School Job

The names of seven women were certified by the director of civil service in response to a request by Charles E. Brown, superintendent of schools, for a temporary clerk-typist to serve for six months. The pay is from $2450 to $3675, depending on training and experience.

Those certified were Barbara C. Lilly, 20 Lewis terrace, Newton; Linda R. Costello, 17 Country road, Chestnut Hill; Estelle Mason, 154 Beaumont avenue, Newtonville; Linda F. Kozol, 78 Lakewood road, Newton Highlands; Danielle J. Levesque, 179 Pauson road, Waban; Lorraine Wanagel, 40 John street, Newton Centre, and Sue G. Hacker, 452 Lowell avenue, Newtonville.

4 Hospitalized Over Weekend

Four persons were injured in a pair of weekend automobile accidents here.

Robert W. Mackie, 75 Walker St., Newtonville, was treated for head and knee injuries at Newton-Wellesley Hospital after his car was in collision Saturday evening at Washington and Walker Sts., Newtonville. The other car was operated by Edward A. Jackson, 31 Capital St., Newton.

A collision early Sunday morning at Watertown and Walnut Sts., Newtonville, required treatment for three. They were Janet C. Cifaldo, 6 Churchill St., Newtonville, driver of one of the cars, and her two passengers, Donna Marini, 41 Melville Ave., and Jane Womholdt, 13 Churchill St., both Newtonville. Louis Brown, 59 Longfellow Rd., Waban, was driver of the other car.

Local officials stress the objectives of the Camp Fire Girls are: the application of her religious, spiritual and ethical teachings to daily living; a love of home and family that grows as the girl grows; pride in woman's traditional qualities—tenderness, affection, and skill in human relationships; deep love of country, the practice of democracy, readiness to serve; the capacity for fun, friendship, and happy group relationships.

Also the formation of health habits; the ability to take care of herself, to do work skillfully and to take pleasure in it; interests and hobbies she can enjoy with others, and alone; the love of out-of-doors and skill in living; a happy heart that will help her find beauty, romance, and adventure in the common things of daily life.

Annual Yule Party To Be Held Dec. 4

The annual Christmas Party of the American Home Class of the West Newton Woman's Club will be held on Wednesday, December 4, at the home of the leader, Mrs. Thomas S. Williams, 285 Otis St., West Newton.

A festive holiday luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m. by Mrs. Donald C. Moody, chairman, assisted by members of the class. The program for the day will consist of a gift exchange, followed by demonstrations by Mrs. Moody and Mrs. Williams on the making of various Christmas decorations.

NHS Class of '53 In 10th Reunion

Mental Health Problem Gets Unified Approach

A unified approach to Newton's mental health problems has been recently adopted by the Newton Community Council and Action for Mental Health in Children (AMHIC), according to a joint announcement by their respective presidents, Mrs. Irene K. Thresher and Kenneth Huberman.

As the result of recent conferences between AMHIC and the Community Council, AMHIC, has agreed to broaden its scope to include concerns for adults as well as for children and to change its name to Action for Mental Health in Newton (AMHIN) to indicate this.

The Newton Community Council, under the committee chairmanship of Adelaide B. Ball undertook a broad study of mental health services and problems in Newton for almost two years. This study led to the recommendation that a broad based mental health organization be formed to give its attention to six areas of activity which need attention in Newton. These six areas include (1) an education program, (2) information and referral service, (3) coordination, (4) further study and research, (5) action program and (6) fund raising.

AMHIC has been active since last February in planning for a much needed child guidance clinic in Newton and is now chartered by the State to establish this facility, partnered by the Massachusetts Department of Mental Health.

Representatives of both groups have been meeting since last spring to coordinate their closely related activities, and these meetings have resulted in the combined approach.

Citizens are urged to attend an open meeting on Tuesday, December 3, at 8 p.m. at the War Memorial Auditorium of Newton City Hall. Chairman of the meeting is Monte G. Basbas. Mayor Donald Gibbs will extend the city's welcome to the new organization. Dr. Joseph C. Sabbath, instructor in psychiatry at Harvard Medical School, will outline a Blue Print for Newton's Child Guidance Center. This facility is the first step in the development of a comprehensive mental health center as outlined by the Community Council's Study Committee.

Dr. Edward Landy, assistant superintendent of schools in Newton, will explain the relationship of the Center to the schools. Dr. Reuben Margolin, associate professor at Northeastern University, an authority on rehabilitation, will lead the question and answer period.

Open House For Club Women

All members of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs have been invited to attend an open house to be held in their honor at College Hall, Washington Park, Newtonville, Thursday afternoon, Dec. 5 at 2.

Charles W. Dudley, director of the college, will greet the guests, and representatives of the college student government will conduct guided tours of the college facilities. A reception will follow.

Among those who will attend are: Mrs. Alfred O. Weaver, president of the Newton Federation; Mrs. Malcolm Jackson, Miss Adelaide B. Ball, Miss Mabel Chase, Mrs. Albert Everett, Mrs. Stanton J. Ten Broeck, Jr., Mrs. E. Tyler Parkhurst, Mrs. Albert E. Holdridge, and Mrs. Spencer Dewing.

Dr. Gerhard Ebeling, center, of the University of Zurich, chats with Prof. Neil H. Richardson, Newtonville, at left, and Prof. Paul S. Schilling, Newton, who met Dr. Ebeling in Europe last year. Dr. Ebeling lectured at Boston University recently as part of 125th anniversary of School of Theology.

De Suze Lecture To Be At Newton Highlands Fri.

Newton Highlands Congregational Church's Business and Professional Women's group is presenting Carl de Suze in his newest color and sound lecture, "Empires Revisited, The New Look of Europe," tomorrow (Friday) in the Parish Hall.

Out of respect to the late President John F. Kennedy, the lecture was postponed from Nov. 22.

President of the women's group is Mrs. Herbert W. Gleim. Mrs. Clifford W. Rust is vice president, Mrs. Albert W. Clifton, secretary and Mrs. Ralph W. Kellaway, treasurer. The committee on arrangements comprises Mrs. Barbara Riley, Miss Clara Dillaway, Mrs. Arthur F. Fultz, Mrs. Howard G. Hobbs and Mrs. Robert G. Jennings.

Carl de Suze thinks that this new lecture on his latest trip through Europe will be the most exciting journey thus far for arm-chair travelers. To show the surging optimism of the New Europe, with camera and tape recorder, he chronicles scenes from this dynamic and changing world and brings alive not only the significance of the New Europe to us, but also its majestic and turbulent past. President Kennedy in Europe, the Coronation of Pope Paul, visits with heads of state, and talks with the youth of Europe reveal the face of modern Europe.

The public is cordially invited and tickets may be purchased from members of the Business and Professional Women's Group or at the door.

Pats In Tag Days To Finance Post Season Game

Tag days were conducted by members of the Newton Patriots on Tuesday and Wednesday after school in an effort to get financial support for the coming of the New Rochelle, N. Y. team of the Pop Warner Conference.

The local lads are to be the New Rochelle lad's hosts in a post-season Conference bowl game here Saturday afternoon at 2.

In making arrangements for Saturday's game, the Newton Pats talked with Rodd Exelbert, commissioner in New York for Pop Warner football. A graduate of Newton High School, Exelbert was active her in sports.

The Patriots finished third in the South Shore division of the Pop Warner Conference. The New Rochelle eleven, undefeated in eight games, won the Westchester County, N. Y., championship.

The tag days were originally scheduled for last Friday and Saturday, but were postponed out of respect to the late President John F. Kennedy.

South has missed Dick Kessler, its defensive linebacker, offensive right guard and an excellent football player, who is out for the season with a broken leg.

Juniors on the squad include Ted Clarke and Craig Spear, two of its offensive mainstays, Art Chansky, Charlie Rezzuti, Soren Olsen, Stewart Moss, Greg Steinsieck, Dick D'Eugenio, Mark Cohen, Elliot Marks, Joe Fiore, Ralph Meyer, Pete Bassett, Jarold Holtzman, Steve MacDonald, Kevin Terry and Tom Lopez.

Mark Young has been a great captain and outstanding end all season. He has scored touchdowns in seven of South's eight games. Ted Clarke is a good quarterback, Craig Spear a fine halfback.

Don't go off half-cocked

There's nothing worse than letting people know your opinion about something, and then finding out that your opinion is all wrong. Because you didn't have the facts at all, or because you didn't have them straight. That's why The Boston Globe is edited to present all the facts on both sides of important issues (international issues, state issues, local issues). Not half the story. Not one side of the story. Not the story the way we wish it had happened. But the whole story — in depth — and both sides, exactly as it did happen. It's a nice feeling to read a newspaper you know you can rely on. We don't grind any axes in our news columns (we let you know what we think on the editorial pages and in signed columns, where you'd expect it). We report. We feel you're big enough and grown-up enough to make up your own mind. Try reading The Globe. At newsstands or phone A Venue 8-8000 for home delivery. Get both sides: get The Globe. Political Highlights

And now in these troubled days, as we watch history being made, a great adjustment is taking place in our national government.

Just as the experts on international affairs ponder the effect John F. Kennedy's death will have upon an uneasy world, so the students of politics speculate on the changes it will make in next year's elections—at next year's national conventions—on what it will mean here in his home state where his name had vote-getting magic.

It will take the people some time to become accustomed to the transition from John F. Kennedy to Lyndon B. Johnson.

Johnson in all probability will be nominated next August as the Democratic candidate for President.

Whether he will be opposed at the national convention in Atlantic City probably will not be known for some months. He should be able to beat back any challenge against him.

By then he will have had eight months in which to solidify himself as the leader of both the nation and the Democratic party.

Johnson will not have the dynamic appeal of John F. Kennedy.

But he is a sound, able, astute public official somewhat of the stamp of Harry S. Truman, and he should make a However, Johnson will not be as sure of winning next year's Presidential election as John Kennedy would have been.

Johnson will face major political problems as he gets ready for the run he will make less than a year from now to hold the Presidency.

He has lost much of the popularity he once enjoyed in the South which gave him solid support when he and John Kennedy battled it out for the Presidential nomination at the 1960 Democratic national convention in Los Angeles.

Political experts expect that Johnson will undertake to mend his fences in the South and to heal the wounds of bitterness in the old Confederacy.

This he undoubtedly will do, for Johnson is skilled in the diplomacy of politics. But it will be a problem he will be obliged to approach with a great deal of careful thought lest he risk the loss of support in the North. In a sense he will be walking a political tightrope in the months ahead.

The probability that Johnson will be the Democratic Presidential standard-bearer next year will cause many Republican chieftains to review and reappraise their political thinking.

It may project Richard M. Nixon into the forefront as the likely GOP choice for President at the convention to be held next July in San Francisco.

It could conceivably result in the nomination of former U.N. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge who was Nixon's Vice Presidential running mate in the 1960 campaign.

Many Republican leaders have been supporting Senator Barry Goldwater for the Presidential nomination because they felt Goldwater might carry the South over John Kennedy on the civil rights issue and thus would have a better chance of winning the election than any other member of their party.

They knew, however, that Goldwater could not defeat Johnson in the South if the new President makes his peace in that area, as he is expected to do since he is on friendly

Temple Emanuel Holds Memorial Service Sunday

The Harvard Glee Club will present a Memorial Concert to the late president John F. Kennedy, Sunday evening, December 1, at 8 o'clock in the Community Hall of Temple Emanuel, Newton, under the auspices of the Temple Emanuel Brotherhood.

The special program, being prepared under the direction of Conductor Elliot Forbes, will be comprised of selections dedicated to the memory of the late chief executive, one of Harvard University's most distinguished sons.

With a membership of 120 undergraduates, representing twenty-eight states and two foreign countries, the Harvard Glee Club is one of the world's oldest collegiate choral societies, and one of the most widely-known. The 105 year old musical organization has for many years made annual concert tours in Europe, the Middle East and the Far East and each year makes an important appearance with the Boston Symphony Orchestra.

Guest soloist with the Harvard Glee Club for the Memorial Concert will be Cantor Gabriel Hochberg, who recently celebrated his twenty-fifth anniversary as musical director of Temple Emanuel. He is formerly president of the New England Cantorial Assembly and has been featured soloist in many outstanding programs of liturgical music.

Serving as reservations chairman for the Memorial concert to the late President Kennedy is Dr. Robert Kirschbaum, vice-president of the Brotherhood. Tickets for the Harvard Glee Club program may be procured through the Temple Emanuel office, by calling Dr. Kirschbaum at 244-3925, or may be purchased at the door on Sunday evening.

John Fitzgerald Kennedy

By MARY E. WINCHESTER

Through the long night, in solemn tread,
The mourners grieve the honored dead;
Staring in disbelief to see
The sombre draped reality.

Well may they mourn, for who can say
When such as he shall pass this way?
The honest face, the probing mind,
The heart encompassing mankind;

The buoyant step, the vibrant youth,
The scholar's quiet quest for truth;
The lofty courage, true and tried,
The manly grace, the strength and pride.

Stilled now the heart, silent the tongue,
Let the drums roll, the dirge be sung!
Weep for the hero lying here!
Pray for the nation at his bier!

Lord, help us walk the path he set,
Grant that his spirit with us yet,
Lead in the struggle we dare not cease
For Justice, Mercy, Truth and Peace.

Miss Allen Is Named To Tufts Fund Position

Miss Frances L. Allen of 59 Adella Ave., West Newton, will serve as head class agent for the half million dollar Tufts University Annual Giving Fund, according to State Chairman Merlin J. Ladd.

A member of the faculty of the Newton South High School where she is assistant to the head of the department of mathematics, Miss Allen was graduated from Jackson College, where she earned a Phi Beta Kappa key, and received a Master of Arts degree from Boston University. She is a member of numerous professional organizations, including the Association of Teachers of New England, the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics, the Association of Advanced Placement Mathematics Teachers, and the Massachusetts Teachers Association.

The Annual Giving Fund is a nationwide undertaking among Tufts and Jackson graduates to raise $500,000 of unrestricted funds before the end of June 1964.

Women Voters Plan Talks On Latin America

The Newton League of Women Voters will hold unit meetings on Latin America from next Tuesday through next Thursday, December 3 to 5).

The plight facing the Latin American republics in their efforts to introduce the 20th century into their economic development will be the topic of discussion.

Also to be considered are the problems confronting the Latin Americans as they seek to attract domestic and foreign capital necessary for economic growth.

The committee planning the meetings include Mrs. Michael Ambrosio, chairman; Mrs. Henry Shepard, Jr., vice chairman; Mrs. Sidney Kasman, Mrs. Peter Morehouse, Mrs. Horton Rubinstein and Mrs. J. Siegel.

The unit meetings are scheduled as follows:

Waban Churches Hold Combined Thanksgiving

Parishioners of two Waban churches will combine this (Thursday) morning at 9:30 in a Thanksgiving service at which the Church of the Good Shepherd will be host to the Union Church.

The joint service has been a feature of Waban Thanksgiving for many years, with the observance alternating between the two churches and with the guest minister traditionally preaching to the host congregation.

The Rev. William E. Foley, Rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, will officiate at the service and the Rev. Joseph C. MacDonald, of the Union Church, will deliver the address to the combined parishes. An offering will be taken and the proceeds turned over to benefit the New England Home for Little Wanderers, 161 South Huntington avenue, Boston.

Headlights And Highlights From Newton High School

By KATHY WATERS

Keep Norumbega! This sentiment appeared in a set of letters sent to all the Aldermen by the Newton High School Student Council prior to the first vote concerning Norumbega legislation. The Council was strongly against the building of a Marriott Motor Hotel using part of the land where the present Norumbega Amusement Park now stands.

Back on the school front, a new language laboratory procedure is soon to be brought up for vote. Now, all Curriculum 1 language students must have two half periods of language lab per week. The proposed plan is as yet indefinite, but so far consists of two alternatives. One proposal states that all honor students (having B or better in all subjects) would not have to attend language lab.

The other plan dictates an optional system whereby a student would be provided with a schedule of all forthcoming tapes, and would be able to go only to those that he felt he needed work in.

The Junior Class Committee, headed by John Delgizzi, president; Jacqueline Maloof, vice president; Ann Couzens, secretary, and Glenn Hart, treasurer, sponsored a Junior Work Day on Saturday, November 23. All of the proceeds are to go to support the Reynolds, a task force worker from CORE (Congress on Racial Equality).

Finalists for the Americans Abroad program sponsored by the American Field Service were announced recently.

They are Barry Canner, Dick Betts, Norman Zameck, and Diane Blumenthal. The finalists are not competing specifically among themselves, but are in competition with AFS finalists throughout the country. Each finalist fills out a series of forms which are mailed to the New York headquarters of AFS which in turn tries to find homes abroad for the finalists.

Officers were elected and plans were discussed at the first ski club meeting held recently. Election results are: Renie Kay, president; Don Hayden, vice president; Cathy Muther, secretary, and Posie

needs this book

Every right thinker knows that God is, and wants, so much, to approach Him intelligently through prayer—to commune with Him and to listen for His guidance.

In the first chapter of Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy there is an inspiring and practical explanation of prayer.

A great number of people, through the study of this chapter, have found needed health, harmony, supply and well-being.

Science and Health may be read or examined, together with the Bible, at any Christian Science Reading Room. Or it may be purchased at $3.

Newton Musicians In Concert Friday Night

Eight Newton musicians will be among the personnel of the Wellesley Symphony Orchestra when it launches its 15th concert season with a "pops" concert at Wellesley Junior High School Friday evening, Nov. 29.

The orchestra, recruited from the ranks of talented musicians in Wellesley and surrounding communities, will present this year a full symphonic ensemble of 75 pieces under the baton of Conductor Rolland Tapley of Newton Highlands, violinist of the Boston Symphony Orchestra.

Soloist of the evening will be Salvy Cavicchio, marimba virtuoso, who will be heard in Offenbach's "Orpheus in the Underworld" and Peter Bodg's "Tico-Tico" with orchestral background. In an unaccompanied solo he will render Debussy's "Clair de Lune."

The general program includes a premier performance of "Big Top" a new composition by Lucien Thayer of Waban. "Big Top" is a fantasia depicting the color and feverish excitement of an American three-ring circus.

Newton players in the orchestra are Mary Scipione, Mitchell Grosbayne, William Custer, Doris Forte, Betty Forslund, Mark Budd, George Koller and Mrs. Maude Sanroma.

Eligible As Auditor

Sydney S. Kaplan of 66 Esty Farm Rd., Newton Centre, has been certified by the director of civil service as eligible for promotion to the rating of permanent supervising field accountant auditor in the office of State Auditor Thomas J. Buckley. The pay is $151.55 per week.

Style Corner

The kick-off of traditional Thanksgiving Day football games usually marks the kick-off to the Christmas season. But this year the American public is mindful of a greater sense of sorrow and heartbreak than possibly at any other time in this century.

Yet the tradition of turkey and football, and even the true spirit of Christmas gifts are part of the American way. So there can be no disrespect in touching briefly on these traditions, despite the heart-tearing events of the past five days.

Wherever young people of good will gather on Thanksgiving morning and no matter the fortunes of their football teams, they will have been marked for the rest of their lives by a sense of values established by the late President John F. Kennedy. He played the game of life clean and hard, and the world and all those in it must be the better for it.

Therefore, football players . . . go to it with a right good will on Thanksgiving Day. Play a little harder, strive a little more . . . to the end that you fit yourself for tougher struggles in later life.

And when the games are over, go home and eat turkey — and be thankful for all the blessings our nation has bestowed on it.

Good luck to Coach Jim Ronayne and Co-Capt. Steve Carroll and Dave Bliss of Newton High in their Turkey Day joust with traditional rival, Brookline High.

These good wishes come from (and we hope you will forgive the commercial) kindly old Jacques, the house of whippocks, forearm shivers and mouse-traps. Oh . . . Jacques also features a starry clothing lineup with those Three Horsemen of Newton Centre — Hart, Schaffner and Sam Marx.

$17,000 Pledged Will Put Over United Fund

The sum of $17,000 in pledges to the United Fund drive here is still outstanding and must be collected before it can truthfully be said that the city's participation was 100 percent, it was reported today (Thursday) by Howard E. Branch, the local drive's publicity chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Miller, as chairmen for Newton, are still hard at work, he reported, and Mrs. William Bruce, chairman of the Clean-up Committee, has sent out some 500 follow-up letters to those whose pledges as yet have not been collected.

All concerned with the drive here are elated at its success, but at the same time hope that the outstanding pledges will be sent in promptly to United Fund Headquarters, 12 Page St., Newtonville.

Tosca To Benefit Music School's Building Fund

Music lovers of Newton will have an opportunity to help the All Newton Music School's building fund by their purchase of tickets, through its Parents' Association, for Boris Goldovsky's presentation of Tosca on Sunday afternoon, Dec. 15, at 2:30, in the Harvard Square Theatre, Cambridge.

The opera will be sung in English by professional leads including Francesca Roberto, Cheryl Mills and Dean Wilder. Last year's performance was a sell-out, so the public is urged to obtain seats as early as possible.

They may be ordered from the following: Mrs. Berezin at BI 4-5285, Mrs. Bridevold at DE 2-9087, Mrs. Fallaw at DE 2-7581 or Mrs. Schilder at BI 4-2632.

Mitten Tree For Little Wanderers

The usual Christmas "Mitten Tree" will be heavy with gay mittens for children of the Home for Little Wanderers, when the Mother's Rest Club of Newton meets Wednesday, December 4, in the home of Mrs. Stanley P. Lovell, 65 Prospect Pk., Newtonville.

Members are reminded that the treasure table, in charge of Mrs. George Wright, will have an attractive exchange of articles popular as gifts.

Assisting Mrs. Lovell at luncheon will be Mrs. Grosvenor Calkins, Mrs. James S. Munro, Mrs. Henry A. Thomas, Mrs. Norman H. Tracy and Mrs. Sidney S. vonLoes-ecke.

Anniversary To Be Held Dec. 6

Rabbi Robert A. Rothman of Lexington, Ky., will take the pulpit at Temple Shalom's Sabbath Hour in honor of the 10th anniversary of his brother, Rabbi Murray I. Rothman, as spiritual leader of the Newton Temple on Friday evening, Dec. 6, at 8:15.

Like numerous other affairs, this one was rescheduled from Nov. 22. The testimonial dinner and dance in honor of Rabbi and Mrs. Rothman has also been rescheduled. It will be given at the temple on Sunday evening, Dec. 8, at 8 p.m.

Rabbi Robert Rothman's message will be "From Rabbi to Rabbi, and Brother to Brother."

The special music and Oneg Shabbat, as well as the message from President Donald L. Daniels and members of the congregation to their rabbi will be part of the postponed service.

W. Peter Rutley of 138 Collins Rd., Waban, is enrolled at Wentworth Institute as a member of the largest class in the school's history.

Burglar Charge Holds Colorado Jail Escaper

A man who was arrested last week while trying doors of a house on Gate House road, Chestnut Hill, was found to be a fugitive from Colorado after his fingerprints were sent to FBI headquarters in Washington, D. C.

Judge W. Lloyd Allen in Newton District Court, held him in $50,000 and continued his case to yesterday (Wednesday). The charge was carrying a gun unlawfully and having burglar tools in his possession.

He gave John C. Carson of Denver, Col., as his name and address, but police report that his fingerprints matched those of John Hosey, an alleged escapee from a Colorado jail.

Police reported two attempted burglaries last Sunday. One was at King's Department Store warehouse on California street at 1:45 a.m. police found a forced door, but said no entrance was made. The other was at Retailers, Inc., Washington street, Newton Lower Falls, where a window was broken, Newton High's Tigers will journey to Brookline to meet arch-rival Brookline High in a game which will start at 10:30 a.m.

Newton South High will host Hingham High at Dickinson Stadium where the opening kickoff is slated for 10 a.m. Thousands of Newton football fans will attend one game or the other on the holiday morning.

A large number of others will pull up an easy chair but entrance was prevented by a screen.

In front of the television set and watch one or more of the games being televised.

Housewives, many of whom were a little late in doing their Thanksgiving shopping because of President Kennedy's assassination, are making the final preparations for the holiday feast.

Proprietors of markets report that there are plenty of the choicest turkeys in all sizes as well as a wide variety of other delicacies available to provide all the fixings for the Thanksgiving dinner and that late shoppers need have no concern about possible shortages.

Thanksgiving will be more than a commemoration of the occasion on which the hardy Pilgrims gathered before an abundant board to celebrate their establishment of their firm footing in a new world.

It will be a day on which the people in the Newtons and across the 50 States pause to count the blessing which have come to them.

But it will also be a day tinged with sorrow for the President who just a week ago was so alive and vibrant—but who now is no more.

Almost all the normal activity of a workday Monday was suspended.

A School Committee meeting scheduled for Monday night was cancelled.

The football fields, where the squads of Newton and Newton South High Schools ordinarily would have been preparing for their Thanksgiving games, were deserted.

Only the churches and the synagogues were busy. There each worshipper in his or her own way paid tribute and said farewell to John Fitzgerald Kennedy.

Requiem masses were celebrated Monday in all Catholic churches throughout Newton. Women wept softly in their pews during the services or prayed as tears coursed down their cheeks—tears for a fallen President whose tragic death shocked the mighty and the humble alike.

Memorial services were held in Jewish synagogues and in a number of Protestant churches.

The synagogues echoed to the chanting of the Kaddish—the memorial prayer for the dead.

Throughout Newton, Catholic priests, Protestant ministers and Jewish rabbis expressed their grief and voiced their eulogies of John F. Kennedy.

The Rev. Frank M. Weiskell of the First Congregational Church in Newton Centre told his parishioners that "more than an individual has died."

"A President with whom the best elements of our nation could identify has been taken from us," the clergyman declared.

Dr. Albert A. Gordon of Temple Emanuel asserted that President Kennedy "represents in our day what Abraham Lincoln personified in his." He said that John Kennedy exemplified "the youthful spirit and the hope of the future of America and the Democratic world."

Ministers from more than 20 churches participated Sunday in an all-Newton service held at the Second Congregational Church under the auspices of the Council of Churches. An overflow gathering of more than 850 persons attended the rites.

In Newton, as in other parts of the nation, the sorrow and grief of the past weekend in which everyone shared will not soon be forgotten.

Brookline

Brookline has a good quarterback and leader in Kevin Fleming, whose passes are not things of beauty but seem to find their targets.

Coach Ronayne is winding up his second season as Newton High's gridiron mentor. His team last year had a record of five victories and three defeats, ending the season with an upset triumph over Brookline.

His boys will be out Thanksgiving morning to give him his second winning season in a row.

Pilgrim's Progress

or, I Had A Hat When I Came In.

And you'll have one when you leave. After a bountiful Thanksgiving dinner, of course.

However, it will be far different from the traditional pilgrim's hat, for things have changed since Plymouth, 1620. Hats. Transportation. Shelter. The all-important business of living. But people? No, people haven't really changed much since 1620.

Look for yourself. Tomorrow, glance around a table almost groaning with its menu of plenty. True, the cabin may have given way to the split-level, the wooden utensils to stainless steel, the boot buckles to loafers. But people? Thank goodness they still remain the nicest part of Thanksgiving.

Tomorrow, give thanks for just being present before you get your hat and leave. Your day will be richer for it.

THANKSGIVING GREETINGS

Senator Kennedy Reports

(Ed. note: The following report from Senator Edward M. Kennedy on his first year in office was written by him before his brother's assassination and was received the day the late President was killed in Dallas.)

By SENATOR EDWARD M. KENNEDY

A year ago, in the election of November 6, 1962, I won the privilege of representing the people of Massachusetts in the United States Senate. It has been a busy and exciting year, full of developments important to our State and our Nation. For me, as a first-year Senator, it has been an opportunity to concentrate on the problems confronting my State and to work at becoming an effective legislator.

Potentially, the most significant event of the year was the ratification of the test ban treaty by a Senate vote of 80 to 19. We had a sense that this was an historic occasion—a first, short step away from nuclear war. I believe that those of us who spoke on the Senate floor in support of the treaty spoke for the vast majority of Americans throughout the Nation, and certainly for the people of Massachusetts.

Shortly after the first of the year, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration asked Congress for authority to build a major electronics research center. This request provoked a controversy as to whether the center should be located in Massachusetts. Representatives from other parts of the country desired the project for their own areas. Others professed little faith in the space program itself. So far, we have weathered the storm, primarily because the Greater Boston area, with its vast electronics complex, is the logical location from the standpoint of efficiency and economy in government. If all goes well, work should start on the center next year. In future years, as activities in space become more important, the existence of the center in our State will cement our place as the electronics capital of the country.

Another storm, this one on the airlines broke over New England in July, when the Civil Aeronautics Board suddenly revoked the license of Northeast Airlines to fly from New England to Florida, Washington and other points south of New York. The CAB is an independent, quasi-judicial agency which is not subject to the direction of the President or of the Congress. This looked like a virtual death sentence for Northeast, which had been faced with financial difficulties for several years.

I requested that the Justice Department look into how this decision would affect free competition in the airline industry, and initiated hearings before the Senate Aviation Subcommittee which helped to emphasize the injustice done to New England and to airline competition by the decision. I urged that the CAB provide immediate subsidy to protect New England service, and worked to keep Northeast's operating rights alive so that it could bring its case to court for final review. In September, the CAB did grant a subsidy of $3.7 million annually to Northeast, but held firm on its decision to terminate Northeast's service south of New York. The case is now before the U. S. Court of Appeals in Boston, which has allowed Northeast to operate on the Florida route at least until April 30, 1964, and thereafter until the final decision by the Court.

Working for State

In my campaign a year ago, I emphasized certain programs which I felt were of vital importance to the growth and development of Massachusetts. I am pleased to report that so far the Senate has acted favorably on legislation embodying many of these programs. This is what has been accomplished to date:

The Manpower Development and Training Act of 1962 has begun to swing into operation in Massachusetts. Over 1800 workers in 23 cities and towns have been retrained under the Act. They have taken jobs as welders, electronics workers, lathe operators and in other skilled fields.

Our Senate Subcommittee on Employment and Manpower has held 60 days of hearings on this most serious problem. We have produced major measures to make the opportunity to work a reality and to meet the critical problem of school dropouts and unemployment among our young people. We reported two bills to improve the Manpower Act which were passed by the Senate. These would enable more people, including young people, to enter vocational and on-the-job training programs. We also reported and the Senate has passed the Youth Employment Act, which creates a Youth Conservation Corps and a Home-town Service Corps. This legislation takes new initiative to assist school dropouts to acquire job skills by working either on conservation or community improvement projects.

Strides have been made in the Senate on education legislation which contributes so significantly to the strength of our democracy and the enrichment of our lives.

In October the Senate passed a higher education program authorizing almost $1.2 billion for construction of college buildings. Earlier the Senate passed legislation extending and expanding the National Defense Education Act, aid for vocational education, and assistance to public schools in areas where federal facilities or programs have greatly increased the number of children in school. These bills have also passed the House and are now awaiting final adjustment of differences between the versions of the two branches. I have also worked for the Cold-War G.I. Bill which would provide educational assistance to veterans who have served since 1955. This has been favorably reported by the Labor Committee and is awaiting Senate action.

Two major laws have been enacted in the cause of better health, and I was privileged to work for these bills in the Committee on Labor and Public Welfare and on the Senate floor.

A new $329 million mental health program has been adopted which will help build community health centers, conduct research into the causes of mental retardation, and care for the mentally retarded. In addition, the Health Professions Educational Assistance Act of 1963 provides for construction of medical school facilities and loans to medical students. These are landmark efforts which will mean healthier lives for millions of American families.

The Urban Mass Transit Bill, which I co-sponsored, has passed the Senate and is now before the House. This bill would provide $750 million in urgently needed grants and loans to urban areas to enable them to have an efficient mass transportation system.

The bill would be of particular importance to Massachusetts because the $10.2 million demonstration and planning program, which is now being conducted, will place our communities in an outstanding position to quickly qualify for the federal assistance made possible by this legislation. The Commonwealth will be eligible for up to 12½ percent of all the total grants made in the United States in the next three years.

In addition to the improvement of our urban transportation facilities which so importantly affects our cities, Massachusetts has received federal assistance for many specific areas of urban development. The Commonwealth has received over $56 million in the last year in federal loans and grants for the purpose of modernizing our cities under programs authorized by Congress.

Challenges Ahead

The closing weeks of this session pose further legislative challenges of far-reaching importance for all of us. The Senate will have before it tax reduction, immigration reform, the civil rights bill and foreign aid. Early next year we will be taking up legislation regarding health care for our senior citizens under Social Security. These are momentous decisions affecting the peace of the world, the security of our country, the liberty of the American people, and the prosperity and economic growth of our Nation.

To correct the unfair quota system under the present Immigration Act, I have co-sponsored two bills which are now pending before the Senate Judiciary Committee. These bills would reform the national origins quota system, and strongly emphasize the reuniting of families and the entry of skilled persons. I have been working closely with organizations which support a more enlightened immigration policy, and I appeared at the national meeting of the American Committee on Italian Migration in support of this important pro-hearings and the chairman of the Judiciary Committee has indicated that he will begin consideration of immigration reform shortly.

Much has been done. Much remains to be done. The implementation of these programs will continue to get first priority in the coming year.

In September I was appointed as a member of the U. S. Senate Delegation to the Inter-Parliamentary Union and flew to Belgrade, Yugoslavia, for the conference with delegates from 65 nations. At this meeting I participated in the deliberations of the Union, and in a speech to the delegates reviewed the progress we are making in our country on racial discrimination, progress which is far more significant than the isolated outbreaks of violence which are so often publicized abroad. I was extremely impressed by the friendship shown to the United States at this conference.

I had hoped to spend the Fall traveling through the State to report to you personally on some of our progress and problems, but it looks like Congress will stay in session until shortly before Christmas. I hope this report, and the ones to follow, will keep us in touch until I am able to visit your area.

High School Girls In Sorority Aid Charity

Eighty high school girls in Newton, sophomores, juniors and seniors, all members of Alpha Chapter, Iota Phi sorority, are hard at work this time to assure the success of their annual charity fund-raising dance to be held at the Sheraton-Plaza Hotel on February 15, 1964.

Officers of the chapter in Newton are, Donna Rodman, president; Susan Weiner, vice president; Linda Shuman, treasurer; Helen Berman, secretary; Donna Perry, pledge; and Merle Isenberg, add book chairman.

Proceeds of the dance will go to the Children's Hospital to help purchase needed equipment. Last year the dance proceeds went to the Jimmy Fund.

The girls have collected money for many causes, have collected Halloween candy for the Peabody Home for Crippled Children, and for the Boston Association for Retarded Children. Their goal for this year is $3,000 to be realized by the dance and other fund-raising efforts.

Newton Authors Display Work At Kiddies Library

Newton authors are being featured in a display at the Boys' and Girls' Library at 126 Vernon street in Newton, from now until Dec. 14.

Margot Zemach's original drawings and work book for her new picture book "The Three Sillies," have the humor and flavor of this familiar folk tale for which the artist has made her own adaptation. These drawings show the process of illustrating from the artist's sketch to the finished book.

In private life Margot Zemach is the wife of Harvey Fischman, with whom she has collaborated in the illustrating of previous children's books.

The illustrations from "The Three Sillies" have been loaned to the Newton Free Library through the courtesy of Holt, Rinehart and Winston, publishers.

Other fall books by Newton authors which are on display are: "The Land and People of Norway" by Elvjean Hall, written from first hand knowledge of the country, published by Lippincott; "Eggs of Things" by Maxine Kumin and Anne Sexton, one of several books by Mrs. Kumin for beginning readers, published by Putnam; "The Shipwrecked Dog" by Shirlee Newman, a story for young readers by the author of several books for children, published by Bobbs-Merrill.

These new titles as well as other books by these Newton authors may be borrowed from the Newton Free Library.

Newton Family Service Bureau Holds Meeting

The Board of the Family Service Bureau of Newton met recently at the agency at 74 Walnut Park. Rabbi Harold D. Kastle, president of the board, turned the meeting over to Mrs. Philip Segal who presented a panel made up of the district supervisors of the four original communities—Brookline, Newton, Waltham and Wellesley—which combined to form Family Counseling, Region West, Inc.

Their reports on the backgrounds of their separate agencies and their adjustments to the new organization provided an encouraging picture of cooperation and flexibility. Clients are free to use the agency most convenient for them. In addition to the above areas, service is now extended to provide counseling in Natick, Sudbury, Sherborn, Wayland and Weston.

The district supervisors participating were Miss Anne Snow, Mrs. Catherine White, Mrs. Marion Minard, Mrs. Elinor Evison, Miss Ann Daily and Mrs. Caroline Enwright.

Noted Artist At Meeting Dec. 5

Emile Gruppe of Gloucester will be the guest demonstrator for the Newton Art Association on Thursday, December 5, at 7:30 p.m., in the Beethoven School, Waban.

He is well known in North Shore and Boston art circles. He will do an oil as part of his contribution to the program. The public is welcome. There will be a small donation.

Adults And Kiddies Enjoy Assumption Academy Event

The annual Christmas Bazaar of the Academy of the Assumption in Wellesley Hills was held recently with Edward J. Hanigan of Newton Lower Falls in charge of the successful event. A committee of Newton mothers whose children attend the Academy, also contributed to the success of the bazaar.

A fun filled day for the youngsters featured the arrival of Santa Claus with souvenirs for all the children. He also patiently heard all their requests for Christmas.

The popular hayride through the spacious Academy grounds was enjoyed with the big farm tractor hauling the hay cart.

The adults found many unusual and unique articles in the booths which included religious articles hand sewn linens and embroideries, aprons, dolls, toys, games, jewelry and Christmas wrappings.

Refreshments were served all day in the high school building with a wide selection of food to take home including bread and rolls baked by the Sisters in addition to cakes and other goodies.

The Alumnae and Caritas had separate booths with special attractions and there were a number of games to provide amusement. All proceeds went to the benefit of the new high school building.

Country Players To Cast Musical December 2-3

The Newton Country Players, after an extremely successful production of "The Deadly Game" are preparing to present "Guys and Dolls."

The new show will be cast at 8 o'clock on the evenings of December 2nd and 3rd at South High School on Brandeis Rd. The show will be done as a full scale musical.

Following the open door policy the public is invited to participate. Many spots will be open in the cast as well as on the technical crew.

Norumbega Scout Hold Honor Court

Troop 208, Norumbega Council, Boy Scouts of America, held a Court of Honor recently at their headquarters at the Civil Defense Building, Langley Road, Newton Centre. Scoutmaster Lou Perrotti conducted the ceremonies with the assistance of Committeeman Driscoll. The scouts and their parents took part in the ceremony, led by Scout David Winer.

Awards were given to: Tenderfoot Scouts Robert Cohen, Allan Driscoll, Brian Framson and Stephen Silver; second class scouts Ralph Esterman, Wayne Finkelstein, Mark Ochs and Henry Price; life-saving, cooking and camping merit badges to David Winer.

The scouts were congratulated on the progress they are making by Troop Committee Chairman Arthur H. Cohen. The committee chairman has been assisted by Messrs. Finkelstein, Ochs, Price, Driscolls in instructing the scouts in advancing in scouting.

Plans will be discussed at the next regular meeting for an overnight camping trip. The scouts and their parents were served refreshments by Mrs. Perrotti, Mrs. Price and Mrs. Framson.

Women's Clubs To Hold Annual "Night" Dec. 2

The Newton Federation of Women's Clubs will conduct its annual "Woolworth's Night" at 306 Walnut street, Newtonville, Monday evening, December 2nd from 6:30 to 9:30 o'clock. Mrs. George J. Brookheiser, first vice president of the Federation, is chairman.

Hostesses for the evening will be: Auburndale Woman's Club, Mrs. Albert E. Everett, and Mrs. LeRoy A. Faulkner; Newton Centre Woman's Club, Mrs. Harold Keller and Mrs. Stewart Holmes; Newton Community Club, Mrs. Clinton C. Brown, Mrs. Edmund T. Charles F. Fitzgerald, accountant of the Newton-Waltham Bank and Trust Company was elected president of the New England Area Council of Industrial Management Clubs at its recent annual meeting.

The Council has 38 clubs throughout New England including the Charles River Industrial Management Club which serves the Greater Boston area.

Mr. Fitzgerald, who resides at 172 Adams Avenue in West Newton with his wife and two children, has been a member of the local club since 1956. During that time, he has served as secretary, treasurer, vice president and president.

IT'S LIKE A PROPERTY TAX CUT FOR YOU!
You'll never have to paint your house again, with new, ever-beautiful, lasting BIRD SOLID* VINYL SIDING!

- Bird Solid Vinyl Siding never needs painting — its color goes clear through the material!
- It won't dent — even a hard, driving hailstorm can't hurt it!
- It won't peel, blister, split or rot!
- It won't stain or hold grime — a rainstorm or hosing down washes its smooth, satin surface bright and clean!
- It won't tempt termites!
- It won't show scratches or corrode and lose its weather-tough seal because of them!
- It insulates against winter cold, damp, summer heat, humidity — cuts heating fuel bills and provides extra comfort!
- It quiets the home — blocks out street and neighborhood noises!
- It beautifies any exterior — gives it an authentic, narrow-clapboard, colonial American charm... adds long, lean, sleek-line grace to contemporary home styles!
- It adds safety — won't conduct lightning or electricity, won't support fire!
- It installs easily, quickly over your present siding!
- It protects, stays beautiful, preserves home investment dollars for a lifetime!
